THE LOCAL JUNIORS FALL BEFORE WOODSTOCK IN SECOND GAME 5-1

Sticky Ice Helps Local Downfall. House Subs Well

LOCAL BOYS FOUGHT TO THE LAST MINUTE

The Junior O.H.A. Round. 1st. 2nd. Ttl. Woodstock..... 3 5-8 Kitchener..... 1 1-5

WOODSTOCK—Woodstock juniors last night handed the fast Kitchener Union Jacks a decisive beating, trimming them 5 goals to 1 before a multitude of 3,000 people in a semi-final O.H.A. junior game and thereby winning the round. The game was lightning fast every minute of play in spite of sticky ice and there is little doubt that the best team won. The Kitchener lads fell down on their shooting, although their stick handling and checking were good. Repeatedly in the earlier part of the game the Red and White played excellent hockey all the time and deserved their win. Woodstock excelled in the first frame, which ended 3 to 1 for the home team, the second period was a draw and the locals had all the better of the third frame, scoring two more goals. The Kitchener boys played a fine game and they may be the locals' best team yet.

Individual Attacks. Kitchener opened the game strong. Gerald Schanz notching their one and only tally three minutes after play started.

The ice was sticky, but play was fast the period being featured by individual work on both sides and close checking. Kitchener showed an inclination to shoot from outside defense. There was no score in the second frame. Kitchener surged about the local citadel several times, but Dumlop made some marvelous stops and nothing got by him. The game lagged in the middle of the period, but toward the end speeded up again both teams working hard for a goal. Four minutes after the final stanza opened Shea pulled off a fast rush and notched No. 4 for Woodstock. Dumlop broke up some determined efforts of the Jacks and although bombarded heavily for several minutes he acquitted himself nobly.

The crowd went wild when the final going sounded and celebrating was kept up for a long time after the game was over. The locals are now qualified to enter the second round of the semi-finals and it is expected they will meet the winners of the Stratford-Mount Forest series. The line-up. Woodstock..... Schmalz, King,..... defense..... Trushinski, Gildner,..... center..... W. Schanz, W. Carson,..... L. wing..... G. Schnarr, Duhurle,..... sub..... Hans Johnston,..... sub..... Seen or Heard On And Off The Ice

Nothing very pretty was said of the Woodstock management last night when the seats that the local fans had reserved by wire were all taken when the locals arrived there.

Schnarr Boys again proved themselves hockey players, individually they had not their equal on the ice.

Young Hause gave a surprising exhibition when once allowed on the ice, considering his short experience his play was very creditable.

Trushinski did well but did not reach his form of previous games. Neither he or Gildner were seen at their best last night.

The Juniors, though disappointed at the outcome were far from disgraced they have every reason to be proud of their past record, the victories of which have been won by clean play and true sportsmanship. Manager Captain deserves every credit for his efforts, this season more so than any previous one for some years has been full of difficulties, and the ice problem is by no means the least.

However the boys acquitted themselves well under the circumstances, the advice and encouragement of their manager going a long way.

See. Sturm is deserving of praise for the way in which he handled the bus iness end of the team. "Hen" has been a busy man ever since the first game, and has given unstintingly of his time and labors for the benefit of the youthful players.

He is not right out of business yet, and if approached by the Stratford management will be ready to stage an exhibition game with them.

His big consolation is that practically all of his team will be youthful enough next season to appear in Junior Hockey and by that time they will be seasoned veterans.

The well-known and popular turfman Barry Littlefield, recently was a visitor in Toronto. He is former trainer of the seasonal horses. Barry has been in Waterloo for several days paying a visit to the old place and looking over the Seagram thoroughbreds. It was much impressed with the good looking brown Havoc colt, Hong Kong, a King's Plate candidate. Hong Kong ran and won a race at Pimlico last fall.

FAMOUS RUNNER DEAD

Jack Caffery of Hamilton Victim Of Spanish Influenza

Jack Caffery famous long distance runner died at Hamilton. Caffery was stricken with Spanish influenza during the recent epidemic here, and has fought gamely for his life ever since. When at his best Caffery had no superiors in the Marathon game. He first attracted attention in 1898 when he hung up a record of 1,54.05 for the Herald road race, a distance of 19 miles, 108 yards. The following year he finished second to Billy Shong, who shattered the mark made the previous year. In 1900 Caffery came back and led Shong home, at the same time establishing another mark of 1:50.00 for the same distance.

NOTED RACE HORSE SOLD BY BOLSHIEVISTS FOR $7

Most of the trotting studs in Russia have been confiscated by the Bolsheviks and the many fine American stallions in their hands and purposes of the confederate horses according to The London Live Stock Journal. General H., 2044 and Willy 2,05, two stallions that won memorable races at the Empire Track on the same day during the Grand Circuit meeting there in 1910 are reported to be among those which should this fall. Willy, then owned by Louis W. Winans, of Brighton, England and valued at $25,000 was sold by the Bolsheviks for $7. The English paper says while General H., equally valuable went to about the same price.

MAY QUIT O.A.B.A.

Brantford Feb 12—Local shop baseball teams which reached the Ontario finals last year are talking of breaking away from the O.A.B.A. this summer. The move is apparently one in behalf of semi-pros who last year changed so often between Brantford and Hamilton, until the fans could not tell with what team they were playing. Local fans are hopeful that the amateurs will remain such.

Incidentally there is a feeling that Kitchener's rejoicing over pro-ball there is a little premature. The rest of the league figures that the tickets taken in at the game will tell the real story later on in the season.

The winners retained their advantage as leaders in the group race, but it is just possible that Kitchener will draw up on even terms with them and in such case the tie game between St. Patricks and Kitchener will be played over.

On behalf of a young Jew, charged at Dublin with being a military absentee, it was pleaded that he was exempt as he had been living in Ireland since March, 1915. In support of this statement a lawyer swore that he shaved the defendant on St. Patrick's Day in 1915, and got a tip from him to back a horse called Lie Low, which won at Baldoyle races. The Racing Calendar was produced, and, it appearing that Lie Low won on that day, the Magistrate discharged the defendant.

NEEDLESS DIVOTS.

Harry Vardon's gospel is "never take a needless divot." "Even in a push shot," he declares, "if the shot has been played really well all you see is that the grass has been cut clean away on the top of the roots; all one has to do is to put a foot on the spot, and it is quite all right again for play. On the tee 80 out of every 100 golfers take needless divots."

competitions and exhibitions given by the M.A.A.A. today.

The performance of Miss Fitzsimmons, who is 17 years of age, was a remarkable one. She lowered the mark for the 50-yards made by Mrs. H. J. Taunton at Winnipeg in 1917 by 3.2 seconds, while she lowered the mark for the 100 yards by almost three seconds. Her times were: 50 yards, 32.2-5 seconds; 100 yards, 1.20 4-5.

The record made by Mrs. Forrest was another creditable performance. Mrs. Forrest swam the 220 yards in 4.14-2.5 seconds. This is a new distance for lady swimmers.

PRICES PARED DOWN TO COST

At Malleck's Clearing Sale of Underwear and Shoes

With the prospect of six more weeks of cold weather—the worst yet to come—and with a stock of winter goods that has not turned over as rapidly as anticipated owing to the unprecedented spell of mild weather, I have decided to place the entire stock on sale until the shelves are practically depleted of winter goods.

This can be accomplished in only one way—and that way is in offering the stock at prices so low that the temptation to lay in a supply of these winter goods not only for the present season but for next year as well, will be simply irresistible.

NEXT YEAR'S WOOLLEN PRICES WILL BE HIGHER. Read that line over again and let the fact sink in. Don't delude yourself into thinking that there will be any appreciable drop whatever in 1920 prices, because if you do, you are doomed to disappointment.

For your information and enlightenment, the reasons why prices on these lines will be higher for 1920 are due to the fact that the mills all work one year ahead on their schedule. In other words, the big woolen mills for the past four months have been busily engaged in the manufacture of 1920 requirements, the orders being placed the previous summer by the wholesalers.

The prices quoted then were governed by existing conditions. The manufacturer was forced to purchase his raw materials in the open market at top prices and when the finished article is delivered to the wholesalers, there will certainly be no tendency on their part to sell at a loss—and they will not—since they control the sale and distribution of these lines.

There will be no noticeable drop in prices until 1921. Consequently if your requirements in woollens are not adequately covered until that time it will pay you and pay you well to lay in your supply at this favorable time.

President Ebert Is Interviewed By Pr

MAIN POINTS OF THE INTERVIEW.

WEIMAR (Thursday)—Count Bernstorff will not go to the Peace conference as German delegate; German plans, for the time being, at least, are based on the basis of general disarmament; Germany will withdraw from complete disarmament; demobilization; and a committee made up of the center-Demo and Socialist parties is now discussing the details of the new Government program.

These points were made by President Ebert, the new President of Germany, in an informal talk with the newspapermen today. They answered the questions asked by American English correspondents. After he read a formal statement, which followed the lines of his speech on Wednesday, in which he emphasized Germany's intention to rehab herself. "Germany would be glad to pay, honorably and uprightly as soon as possible," declared President Ebert, in connection with her debts and future obligations.

Of the fifteen lines comprising system of Chinese Government ways, only one was built by the Chinese themselves.
