KARL K. ALBERT

"The sample of medicinal spring water you submitted to me," said the eminent chemist, "is the best I have ever examined. Its curative properties are wonderful."

"Indeed," exclaimed the proprietor of the spring, delightedly. "Now, if you could only tell me how to doctor up the taste of it."

"The taste? Why, my dear sir, the taste is very pleasant."

"Exactly, and that's why it will never sell. The public will never have faith in a medicinal water that tastes good."—Catholic Standard and Times.

"You contend that oleomargarine is just as good as butter, don't you?"
"It's better," answered the dealer, without hesitation. "It pays several times the profit."—Washington Star.
