

Secondly,—One shilling currency for searching any deed or other document, provided the year in which the same shall have been executed, be furnished to the Notary; and if the year be not given, one shilling currency for every year over which the 5 search extends.

Thirdly,—Ten shillings currency for each hour of time employed in hearing parties, examining titles and papers, making any inventory or sale of movables, or other duties of his profession, and for the time he shall be away from home, as well in 10 going to any place as in returning, besides the necessary disbursements for travelling expenses and board.

XXX. And be it enacted, That every Board of Notaries may, Appointment of censors.
from time to time, and as often as they shall think proper, elect from among the members thereof, or from among the other Notaries of the District, one or more Notaries not exceeding three;
15 who after having received sufficient notice of their appointment, and after they shall have been sworn at some sitting of a Court of civil jurisdiction, to the faithful and impartial discharge of the duties imposed on them by this Act, and which they shall be bound
20 to perform under a penalty of currency, shall visit the offices, records, minutes and repertories of inculpatcd Notaries, whensuch inculpation shall appear so serious a to deserve to be punished by fine or by suspension or dismissal in cases of forgery, fraud or corruption; to establish whether such inculpatcd Notaries have conformed to the laws of this Province, and the requirements of this Act, and to obtain information on all matters and things mentioned in the instructions which they shall receive from the Board of Notaries, to whom they shall make a faithful and circumstantial report; and every Notary who shall refuse either
30 to permit the visit of the Notary so delegated by the Board of Notaries for his district, or to grant him access to his papers, shall for every refusal incur a penalty of currency, to be recovered in a summary manner before the nearest Justice of Peace: Provided always, that no Notary so delegated to make any 53 such visit shall be required to make more than one visit in three years; and that he shall be entitled to receive, out of the common fund of the Board of Notaries in whose jurisdiction he shall be, such sum as the said Board shall think proper: Provided that Proviso.
such sums shall not exceed for every day usefully 40 employed in making the said visit, including daily expenses and disbursements, and including also the said report.

XXXI. And whereas it is necessary to make more effectual legislative provision with regard to the keeping, transmission and preservation of Notarial Records, Papers, and Registers: Be it 45 therefore enacted: Provisions with regard to keeping of Notarial papers.

First,—That every Notary who shall remove out of the District in which he resides, for the purpose of residing elsewhere, shall, as shall also his heirs or legal representatives, within fifteen days after such change of domicile, transmit to and deposit the Records
50 and Registers of all instruments executed before him during his residence in the district he is above to leave, in the hands of one of the Notaries of the same District.

Secondly,—That in like manner the Records and Registers of any Notary who shall die or shall cease to practice, or who shall 55 have refused to practice and to deliver copies of his Notarial instruments, or who shall have been interdicted, dismissed, or be forever removed from office, or who shall have been absent from the Pro-