

Dates; every Act or Deed, for the transfer or conveyance of such Lands or immoveable Property; and if a Mortgage, a Notarial Copy thereof shall to him be produced, and whereby any conveyance of such Property if made or Mortgage thereon is created, and upon each Act or Deed, or Notarial Copy, as aforesaid, so produced to him, the Registrar shall, respectively, endorse the number thereof and sign a Certificate thereon, mentioning the year, day of the month, and hour or time of the day on which such Act or Deed, or Notarial Copy by him received, and expressing also in what book and folio or folios thereof the same is enregistered, which Act, Deed or Notarial Copy shall then be returned to the person from whom it was received; and all certificates from such Registrars shall be taken and allowed in all the Courts of this Province as evidence of such respective Registries, and there shall be entered on the margin of the Register Book over against the Registry of each Act or Deed, or Notarial Copy, the number thereof and the said year, day of the month, and hour or time of the day when the same come to the hands of the Registrar, and every Registrar shall, in each Book of Registers or in a separate Book, respectively, keep an Alphabetical Index of the names of all Venders and Purchasers of Lands or immoveable Property, and of other parties to conveyances thereof, or to other Acts or Deeds relating thereto, and of all Mortgagers and Mortgagees; and also an Index descriptive of all Lands or immoveable Property held in Free and Common Soccage, sold, conveyed or mortgaged in the said District or Inferior District, with reference to the number of every such Act, Deed, or Notarial Copy respectively so enregistered, and the entry of every Act or Deed, notarial or otherwise, upon the Register Book, shall be signed by the Registrar with his full signature, and every entry on the margin thereof with the initials of his name.

Certificates of such Registrars to be allowed as evidence in all Courts &c.

Mode of enregistering Judgments in other Districts than those in which they have been pronounced &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for the purpose of duly enregistering the Judgments of the Courts of Law in Districts or Inferior Districts other than the District wherein the same shall have been pronounced within the limits of this Province as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Prothonotary or Prothonotaries of each of the Districts