

An Act to detach from the County of Rouville, the tract of land herein described, and to annex the same to the County of Bagot.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation, dated the 18th day of January, <sup>Preamble.</sup> one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, His Excellency the Governor General detached from the Parish of St. Césaire, in the County of Rouville, and annexed to the Parish of St. Pie, in the 5 County of Bagot, for the purposes of the Ordinances and Acts mentioned in the said Proclamation, the tract of land hereinafter described; And whereas the resident freeholders of the said tract of land have, by their Petition, presented to the Legislature of this Province on the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine,
 10 prayed that the said tract of land may also be detached from the said County of Rouville and annexed to the County of Bagot, for all purposes whatsoever; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:

I. From and after the passing of this Act, all that tract of land now in the County of Rouville, containing sixty-four arpents in front by 15 twenty-eight arpents in depth, and bounded as follows, namely: on the west by the line which divides the lands in the Rang St. Ours, from those of the Yamaska River, on the north by the southern line of the lands on the Rang Lesperance, on the east by the western line of the 20 Rang d' Elmire, and on the south by the line which divides the land of André Monty from that of Charles Roy, and the land of Eusèbe Bienvenu from that of Jean Baptiste Codère, shall cease to form a portion of the said County of Rouville, and shall be annexed to and comprised in the County of Bagot, for purposes of representation in the Legislature,
 25 for municipal, judicial, and registration purposes, and for all other purposes whatsoever; and the said tract of land shall form a part of the said County of Bagot, as if it had always been a part thereof.

The tract of land described and detached from Rouville and annexed to Bagot.

II. This Act shall be a public Act, and the Interpretation Act shall <sup>Public Act.</sup> apply to this Act.
