

permission; models must be so constructed as to show exactly every part of the invention and its mode of working. In cases where samples of ingredients are required by law, they must be contained in glass bottles properly arranged; but dangerous or explosive substances are not to be sent. Both models and bottles must bear the name of the inventor, the title of the invention, and the date of the application; and must be furnished to the Patent Office free of charge and in good order.

8. All fees required to be paid by law must be transmitted with the application, in current, bankable funds, enclosed in registered letters. Post Office Orders are preferred. In no case should money be sent enclosed with models.

9. An application for a Patent must be proceeded with and perfected within two years after the lodging of the petition, in default of which it will be regarded as abandoned; and all previous proceedings and payment of fees will be held at the expiration of that period to be of no avail.

10. Two or more separate inventions cannot be claimed in one application, or patented in one Patent. But if separate matters are represented to be so dependent on, and connected with each other as to be necessarily taken together, to obtain the end sought for by the inventor, the Commissioner of Patents shall be the judge whether or not the pretensions of the applicant in such respect can be entertained.

11. The fying of a protest against the issuing of a Patent shall not be taken in itself as sufficient reason to withhold the granting of such Patent to an applicant.

12. A Caveat shall be composed of a specification (and drawings), certified on oath [see form No. 24] and the fyler thereof may lodge with it additional papers during its currency, provided they are relevant exclusively to the same invention. The person fying a Caveat will not be entitled to notice of any application pending at the time of fying his Caveat.

13. All drawings must be made on one or more sheets in tracing linen (eight by thirteen inches), neatly executed, without colours.

14. In the matter of a re-issue, under Section 19 of the Act, whatever is really embraced in the original application and so described or shown
