

Rough, red hands made smooth and white

The reason your hands do not look like you want them to look is because you have neglected them. Proper care will soon restore the natural beauty of their skin.

Begin this treatment tonight

Just before retiring, soak your hands for at least five minutes in hot water and a lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Then rub them briskly for a few minutes with a rough washeloth or stiff brush. Rinse in very cold water and dry thoroughly.

This treatment, continued regularly, softens the rough dead skin and soon causes it to disappear. In its place will be a new skin of delicate texture, formed with the aid of the beneficial properties of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c a cake. No one hesitates at the price after their first cake.

THE WESTERN HOME MONTHLY

Published Monthly

By the Home Publishing Co., McDermot and Arthur Sts., Winnipeg, Canada.

The Subscription Price of The Western Home Monthly is $1 a year or three years for $2 to any address in Canada, or British Isles. The subscription price to foreign countries is $1,50 a year, and within the City of Winnipeg limits and in the United States $1.25a year.

REMITTANCES of small sums may be made with safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more it would be well to send by registered letter or Money Order.

POSTAGE STAMPS will be received the same as cash or the fractional parts or a dollar, and in any amount when it is impossible for patrons to procure bills. We prefer those of the one cent or two-cent denomination.

WE ALWAYS STOP THE PAPER at the expiration of the time paid for unless a renewal of subscription is received. Those whose subscriptions have expired must not expect to continue to receive the paper unless they send the money to pay for it another year.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—Subscribers wishing their addresses changed must state their former as well as new address. All communications relative to change of address must be received by us not later than the 20th of the preceding month, WHEN YOU RENEW be sure to sign your name exactly the same as it appears on the label of your paper. If this is not done it leads to confusion. If you have recently changed your address and the paper has been forwarded to you, be sure to let us know the address on your label.

A Chat with our Readers

Our Christmas Issue

S YOU read these lines, the whole staff is busy getting our big Christmas issue under way. And how you will enjoy that number! For some time past we have been busy commissioning prominent writers from all parts to send us seasonable articles and stories and we believe that we can safely guarantee an unexcelled pot-pourri of Christmas cheer. Getting together a Christmas number is not such easy work as many people think. Some publications are content to merely insert a few Yuletide verses here and there and an occasional sprig of mistletoe at the end of a story, but The Western Home Monthly has always endeavored to make its Christmas number seasonable from cover to cover, and seldom can you find an item—be it an article, story, illustration or verse—that is out of harmony with the all-prevailing spirit of Noel. No attempt is made to publish any matter of the "heavy" variety, neither do we resort to the frivolous, for we know by experience that our readers' idea of a Christmas number is one which is BRIGHT, first, foremost and all the time—not sad in tone but just sufficiently reminiscent to cause us to remember and dwell upon former Christmases spent with the Old Folks in the days of our youth.

Contents

Under the following headings many matters are dealt with in the November

This issue will be found exceedingly interesting and instructive, as all the departments are dealt with by specialists. The aim of the publishers will be to make every issue eclipse its predecessor in interest.

Editorial—"Signs of Culture"; Story Department, twelve pages; Correspondence; Temperance Talk; Sunday Reading; Woman's Quiet Hour; Music; General Information; The Philosopher; The Young Man and His Problem; The Young Woman and Her Problem; The Young Man and His Problem; The Young Woman and Her Problem; What the World is Saying; What to Wear and How to Wear it; Fashions and Patterns; Work for Busy Fingers; Woman's Realm; About the Farm; The Home Doctor; Household Suggestions; Round the Evening Lamp; The Young People; The Children; The Home Beautiful; In Lighter Vein; all Departments brightened by fine Western illustrations. The Articles

We hope our fiction-loving readers, after devouring the stories, do not fail to peruse the articles. To be quite candid, we are more proud of the articles than of any other department in our magazine. Every woman in the land should take to heart the valuable advice given in those sterling features, "The Woman's Quiet Hour" and "The Young Woman and Her Problem". We daily receive letters from young girls—many of them strangers in a strange land—who recognizing the sympathetic interest taken in their welfare, as manifested in these two monthly articles, write to us for assistance in surmounting the battles of life, and we are glad to say that every letter receives individual attention and the desired information is always

Then we have "The Young Man and His Problem" and "The Philosopher"both written in a trenchant manner by two of our most able writers, who take a veritable pride in knowing of their popularity and of the good work they have been able to accomplish among Western readers. Don't think that our articles are heavy and monotonous like others you may have read. We pride ourselves on all Western Home Monthly reading matter being in a field by itself.

Oakland, Aug. 14th, 1913.

I am a subscriber to your very valuable paper. I received the August number, but as I have a large family who read it, it has got soiled, and as I wish to send one to Scotland, I would feel greatly obliged if you would forward the August copy to the address enclosed. My brother-in-law is a member of the Ayrshire Constabulary Force, and was also in the British Army, and I know he will be greatly pleased to Yours faithfully, get the August copy.

THOMAS ROY. Atchelitz, B. C.

Please find enclosed fifty cents and coupon for The Western Home Monthly. Dear Sir: I have been getting it from a neighbor to read and was so interested in it that I am subscribing to get father interested, so he will send in a longer subscription.

Yours truly,
MISS P. IRWIN,

A Word from a Great Advertising Agency

"You most certainly must be pleasing your constituency, or your circulation would not be increasing as it is, and we believe you are bringing results to your advertisers or they would not be staying with you and new ones constantly entering the field.

"We may add that the October issue is a pleasant surprise, and since its receipt we have had the opportunity of mentioning it to several advertisers as the best issue we have yet seen of The Western Home Monthly and a credit not only to the West, but to Canada as a whole." That Renewal

This is the time of the year when most people fill in a subscription blank and forward it to the office. This means you. We do not claim to be a purely philanthropic institution, and we feel sure that our readers do not expect us to be. A dollar is a mighty small sum to pay for all the pleasure you derive from reading twelve big issues of The Western Home Monthly, and we know you readily admit it.

So send us, that dollar to-day. And if you are proud of the magazine, enclose another dollar as a year's subscription for a friend. Incidentally we might remark that a year's subscription to The Western Home Monthly would make an excellent Christmas present for some one in Eastern Canada or beyond the Seas. Send it to your mother, father, sister, brother or sweetheart, or better still to all of them. You will be well repaid by their enthusiasm for what will become their favorite publication also.

"Don't Monkey

Your Teeth!"
