

ROCK WAS

Al Tuck showed he's still got it with this gig at the Marquee in September.

Sloan was back in September, attempting to mend bridges in Halifax. But why HMV?

Shown here at the release for "In Need of Medical Attention" - Joel Plaskett set the course for life after Thrush Hermit - in style.

In December THRUH HERMIT put an exclamation mark on the rockiness of music careers with their final show at the Marquee. Begging the question: Where will the Gazette be without the monthly Hermit articles?
