The Honourable W. M. Martin,
Premier of Saskatchewan,
Regina, Sask.

My dear Martin:

Whatever commends itself to your judgment in the carrying out of the request contained in my letter of August 20th, with respect to organization in your Province, will be wholly satisfactory to me. Please proceed as you think best.

I think George McCraney would be excellent as a Provincial Vice-President, and I much hope he will accede to your request to fill that position.

Yours very sincerely,
