Ottawa, September 24th, 1926

Dear Mr. Pawlett:

It is indeed kind of you to write me in the terms of your letter of the 20th September. The result of the elections is very difficult to explain - that is on any basis that one likes to accept. It is indeed discouraging, but the only thing to do is to face the future and take the defeat in the best spirit possible.

Yours very truly,

Joseph Pawlett, Esq.,
Portage la Prairie
Manitoba.
