Ottawa, February 4, 1925.

Dear Mr. Thomson:

Thanks for your letter of the 19th ultimo with enclosures. I was especially glad to read the editorial in the Morning Post. I am going to try to get this circulated in Canada. It is a very effective answer to the Canadian Prime Minister and the Post has analysed exactly his outlook on matters Imperial. There is an error though in the editorial where it says that the Canadian Senate amended the Halibut Treaty; it was the American Senate.

I will see Tom. Blacklock with reference to the "Sunday Times."

Yours very truly,

Henry B. Thomson, Esq.,
83, Pall Mall,
London, S.W. 1.,
England.
