

My dear Willie:

Jan. 2nd '33

Yesterday we went to church in the morning. Then I spent the afternoon reading to Grand at the hospital and by evening we had had to do anything but rest on the sofa! Thus, this is the first note I have had to write in the new year and it carries with it our united best wishes to you dear Willie, for all happenings and prosperity in the new year. I hope you will be at the helm when the year closes, and that prosperity will reign in the land.

We have had a very happy Christmas season even though the time has been a bit-steamers spell of anxiety. I always feel how much worse it might have been and what a blessing we have for which to be truly grateful. Harry is getting on splendidly and I think Ronald is safe for the time being, perhaps for always. The other two have had a storm
