WILL, CONSTRUCTION OF.

1. A testator in a will containing inconsistent provisions devised certain real estate, after the death of his daughter, to his grandsons J. and F., "to hold as joint tenants, and not as tenants in common. To have and to hold the same to them during their joint lives, and to the survivor of them, and to their male heirs after their or either of their decease, and to their heirs and assigns for ever," and in case of the death of F. without leaving lawful issue, then the portion that would have belonged to him if living, the testator gave to another grandson H., for his life, and after his death to his heirs and assigns for ever.

Held, that the remainder after the death of the daughter went to J. and F. as joint tenants for life, with several inheritances in tail male, and with remainder in fee as to F.'s part to H.

Hellem v. Severs, 320.

2. A will contained the following devise: "My will is, that after the decease of my daughter Bridget, and after the decease of all my sons-in-law, James Esmond, John Emery and John Severs, and not before they are all deceased, then my will is, that the money and mortgages belonging to my estate is to be divided into equal parts and paid to my grandchildren, equally amongst all my grandchildren; but in case of the death of any of my grandchildren before the death of my daughter Bridget, and before the death of all my sons-in-law leaving lawful issue, then the share
