

INDEX TO CONTENTS.

	PAGE
A Mineralized Zone in Nova Scotia, by H. S. Poole, M.A. A.R.S.M., Stellarton	221-231
A Newfoundland Iron Deposit, by R.E. Chambers, B.A.M.E., New Glasgow	41-52
A Novelty in Mine Ventilation, by A. Dick, C. & M. E., Halifax	165-173
Canadian Pig Iron Industry, by Geo. E. Drummond, Montreal	145-158
Capacities of Coal Cutting Machines, by Wm. Blakemore, M.E., Glace Bay	231-238
Comparisons between Southern and Nova Scotia Iron Meth- ods, by C. A. Meissner, Londonderry	243-255
Compressed Air at Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, by R. H. Brown, M.E., Sydney, C.B.	53-55
Experience with Air Compressing at Drummond Colliery, by Chas. Fergie, M.E. Westville	58-61
Exploring with the Government Diamond Drill, by T. W. Gibson, Toronto	197-213
Financial Aspect of Mining, by J. H. Chewett, B.A. Sc., C.E., Toronto	17-20
Gold Deposits of the Eastern Townships of Quebec, by Dr. R. Ells, Ottawa	109-126
How an Abandoned Mine became a Paying One, by W. L. Libbey, Brookfield, N. S.	63-66
Improvements in the Dressing of Gold Ores, by F. Hille, M.E., Port Arthur, Ont.	21-35
Is there an Economic Limit to the output of a Coal Mine? by Wm. Blakemore, M.E., Glace Bay, C.B.	257-262
Manufacture and Uses of Wire Rope, by F. H. Hopkins, Montreal	185-191