B. A.—Dear Sir and Bro.,—Death has claimed his first victim from the ranks of the C. M. B. A. here, in the person of our late Bro. Patrick Dinahan. A fatal attack of inflammation of the bowels carried him oft after a brief illness of twenty-four hours. Mr. Dinahan had been engaged in commercial pursuits in been engaged in commercial pursuits in Montreal during the last twenty years, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of a very large circle of friends. He was a brother to the Rev. Father Dinahan of Memphis, Tennessee, who came here to take charge of the funeral and convey the remains to London, Ont., his native city. The funeral took place on Thursday from the late residence of the deceased, on Bonaventure St., to St. Patrick's church, where a grand requiem high mass was celebrated, thence to Bonaventure Depot. The C. M. B. A. attended in full force and a large number of citizens was also present. A magnificent wreath with the letters C. M. B. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO A MEMBER OF BRANCH THIRTY.

Quite a pleasing incident occurred in connection with the proceedings of Branch 30, C. M. B. A., Peterborough, at their regular meeting held on Monday, the 1st inst. The members had heard that trustee John Donegan was about to leave for Cornwall, and they determined leave for Cornwall, and they determined not to let him go without manifesting towards him their sentiments of good will. Accordingly they procured from Mr. J. P. Tansey, jeweller, Montreal, a very beautiful gold pin, on which appropriate Catholic emblems were engraved. When the proper moment arrived the members arose, and the President, turning to Mr. Donegan, presented him the pin in the name of the members, and also the following address:—Dear Sir and Brother,—We, the members of Branch No 30, Peterborough, of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Associa—but persons who comply with the requirements of our constitution are admitted as members of our society.

As a friend and brother we have always found you true and sincere and the sentiments of friendly feeling and brotherly love which you have always testified towards us, have found a strong responsive echo in our own hearts, but particularly so on this occasion, when going as you are to new fields of labor, some of us at all events can not hope to again clasp your hand in the warm grasp of friendship.

Such being our feelings toward you,

Such being our feelings toward you, you cannot therefore be surprised if we take advantage of your last evening with us to give expression in a more tangible form to our sentiments of regard.

We present you, therefore, with this pin, not, indeed, for its intrinsic value, which is but slight, but with the hope that whenever you wear it you will rest content with the earnest assurance now given that it is the tribute of that warm feeling which animates us towards yourself, and that you will be able to give a kind thought to the members of this branch.

When you gaze upon the emblems with which it is adorned, emblems typical of the Catholic faith, you will be able to reflect that in our prayers you and yours

To yourself and family we wish continued and increasing prosperity and happiness, and we feel confident that your well-known business capacity and integrity will always ensure for you those desirable ends.

Signed on behalf of the members of Branch No. 30. JOHN O'MEARA, President.

M. SULLIVAN,

Rec. Sec'y.

Mr. Donegan, who was completely taken by surprise, said he had not expected to receive from the branch such pected to receive from the branch such a flattering testimonial. It was impossible for him to express fully the gratitude he felt for the kind sentiments contained in the address he had just listened to. He assured the members that though he felt that the regret expressed by them at his departure was great, it was not greater than his own in being obliged to go. He had found warm-hearted and affectionate friends in Peterborough, and had derived great benefit from his association with them. Were it not for the fact that he had been offered a position which, in a pecuniary point of view, would tend greatly to his advantage, he would not think of leaving. He would still remain a member of Branch 30, at all events until the organization of a branch at Cornwall. He had heard that a branch was being formed there. He hoped this at Cornwall. He had heard that a branch was being formed there. He hoped this was true, and he would be glad to give to the persons who had the work in hand the benefit of his own experience and to assist them in completing the good work. He would never forget branch 30, and hoped to hear of its continued advancement. Were the principles which guided its actions and the actions of its sister branches more thoroughly understood the C. M. B. A. would become Catholic in a broad sense indeed, in the sense of being universal. He was overjoyed to learn that their venerable and much loved Bishop had looked into its rules and found that they were in accordance with the teachthey were in accordance with the teachings of the Catholic Church. Nothing indeed could be more in accordance with such teaching than the objects of their society, which was to promote in their society, which was to promote in its members sobriety, integrity and frugality, and to provide a fund for the widows and orphans of deceased members. Their good Bishop had expressed himself in sentiments of approval of such objects, and he expected to find that his approbation would result not only in an increased membership in branch 30, but in the formation of branches in all the parishes of his Lordship's diocese. He space of one month.

Our beloved Order is surely and steadily gaining ground in this city. Earnest enquiries are received by some of usevery day in regard to our aim, benefits. these efforts would not fail through the apathy or indifference of parties addressed. The allusions to his own efforts to ed. The allusions to his own efforts to promote the growth of the present branch he felt were hardly deserved, inasmuch as he had only done his share and others had worked equally hard, nevertheless he was pleased to know that his efforts had not been overlooked. He reciprocated the kind and friendly feelings contained in the address and would always look back with pleasure to the happy days he had spent in Peterborough.

The business of the meeting was then concluded.

THE BOTHWELL PICNIC.

London Free Press.

Bothwell, Sept. 4-(Special) To-day Father McKeon's four congregations of Bothwell, Alvinston, Thamesville and Wardsville held their annual picnic here in the beautiful grounds of Mr. Wm. Regan. About 2,000 people attended and the picnic has been a grand success. Invitations were sent to Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John Carling and Mr. Blake, and letters were received regretting their inability to be present. The following priests were in attendance:—Fathers williams, of Chatham; Hodgkinson, of Maidstone; Dickson and McKeon; Hon. This regret is, however, to some extent modified by the agreeable intelligence that such departure is occasioned, not by any dislike to our thriving town, but by the fact that your abilities in your own sphere of life have received a well-deserved recognition at the hands of an enterprising manufacturing firm in Cornwall, who, we learn, have offered and from whom you have accepted a situation much more lucrative and more in keeping with your merits than your present one.

We desire, however, before you go, to place upon record the fact that since the formation of Branch 30 you have been second to none in your efforts to promote its growth and to facilitate the performance of business at meetings of our branch.

As a trustee of our branch you have been indefatigable in seeing that none the picnic has been a grand success. Invitations were sent to Sir John Macdonald,
