

THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.

HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

The Conference would give expression to its sense of the importance to the interests of our Church, that our Connexional Organ, the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN, be well sustained in its career of usefulness, and earnestly resolves to employ the utmost effort to render this indispensable instrumentality increasingly efficient, by enlarging its sphere as widely as possible in every Circuit, thereby making it more extensively auxiliary in the diffusion of Christian intelligence, and the cultivation of the religious home-life of our people.

We copy the above resolution from the published minutes of our late Conference, held in this city in June last; and we wish to call attention to it as our warrant for the special appeal which we now make on behalf of this paper.

The resolution intimates first, that it was, in the deliberate judgment of the Conference, regarded as a matter of high importance to all the interests of our Church, that our Connexional Organ, the Provincial Wesleyan, should be well sustained in its career of usefulness; and secondly, that the Conference earnestly resolved to employ the utmost effort to render this indispensable instrumentality increasingly efficient by enlarging its sphere as widely as possible in every Circuit.

This it means anything binds, we suppose, every member of the Conference to put forth his utmost effort this year to increase the circulation of the paper; and as one half of the Conference year has already well nigh passed, we take the liberty of reminding our brethren that this utmost effort should be at once made.

An examination of our order book seems to show that this effort has as yet commenced on only a few papers, and it surely has not been completed on any one of one hundred and thirty-eight Circuits and missions of the Conference; for we find that the new names added to the lists of subscribers since the 1st of July have scarcely more than sufficed to fill up the vacancies caused by discontinuance.

We suppose that the early winter is generally regarded as the most favorable time to prosecute successfully thorough canvasses for new subscribers; and that, therefore, most of the members of the Conference have been waiting for the arrival of this most favorable time in which to make the pledged attempt. But this time will now very soon be gone, and the effort should now be commenced and continued until it is certain that there is no possibility of further enlarging the sphere of our Connexional Organ in any Circuit or mission.

If the resolution is faithfully carried out the number of subscribers will undoubtedly be increased on every Circuit. If the solemnly recorded determination is properly embodied in honest, earnest action the number of subscribers on many circuits will be more than doubled.

One of the very few who were beginning the effort last month, as preachers, are laboring on one of our Home Missions, who has already sent the names of six new subscribers with the advance payments for each, says:

"I think I will have other new subscribers soon. I had not the remotest idea when I began the canvass that I could so soon succeed in getting five new subscribers to the Wesleyan; but I have learned that a great deal can be done when faithful efforts are made. I think that the circulation of the paper would be far more extensive if the proper efforts were put forth by its agents. I feel determined to do what I can for it."

There are, we are confident, more than a hundred more promising fields in the Conference for a canvass than the one in which this good brother is making his utmost effort; and if we could hope that all others would do as well as he is doing, we should assuredly count upon adding at least a thousand new names to our lists for the new volume which begins with the new year.

Now that for a general united utmost effort all through the Conference! We will send the members of the Conference for this year published after the advance payment for next year is made, to all new subscribers free.

We will give a copy of FOSTER'S CYCLOPEDIA OF ILLUSTRATIONS, (either prose or poetry), to any person who will send ten dollars as advance payment to new subscribers before the 1st of February next.

Or we will allow to all our agents a premium of twenty-five per cent., payable in Books from general Stock, not including Sabbath-school or Hymn Books or Bibles, made by them for our subscribers before the 1st of March next.

Agents making payments after the 1st of March will be entitled only to Commission as for payments on account of Old Subscribers. We trust that the Brethren, while pressing the canvass for new subscribers, will not neglect the duty of collecting all sums due from old subscribers, both arrears and advance payments. We shall be glad to receive frequent reports from each agent during the ensuing month or two.

Every subscriber making a payment either directly to the Office or indirectly through our Agent, should look for an acknowledgment in the WESLEYAN within a month at the latest after such payment.

All monies sent to the Office by Mail should be in Post Office Money Orders or in Registered Letters. Money sent by other means must be considered at the risk of the person sending it.

Public meetings in connection with the Anniversary of this Society will be held this Wednesday evening in the Kaye Street Church, and to-morrow Thursday evening in the Brunswick Street Church, when addresses will be delivered by a number of gentlemen clerical and lay. Collections will be taken up at both meetings in behalf of the funds of the Society. Chair to be taken at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Y. M. WESLEYAN INSTITUTE. Rev. J. Shenton of Truro will deliver a lecture before the above society in the Basement of Brunswick Street Church on Friday evening 13th inst. Subject, "Paddle your own canoe." Admission free. A collection will be taken in aid of the funds of the Institute. Chair to be taken at 8 o'clock.
