partiality and fairness in conducting the proceedings of the assembly. I love all my brethren, and have no cherished prejudice against any; so have no temptation to partiality. And I have observed that where there are more than ordinary pretensions to virtue there has been in fact lower morality. And it is usually so where much is said of impartiality and fairness. One need I know I shall have—that is, your aid to save the time of the Conference against unnecessary speaking. I have so strong an abhorrence of official masterfulness; and have such an inherent objection to interruptions of anyone in stating fully his own views and opinions, that my danger I know will be on the side of forbearance, and not on the side of interruption. Pity my weakness in this respect. Do not argue everything out at length. Give some credit to others for being able to think and conclude on matters without full argument and persuasion. In a word, let us in the old Methodist way do all things as in the presence and fear of the Lord. Let us speak freely what is in our mind while conferring together on the work of God; and let us earnestly pray that He may give us a good and blessed Conference.

DEPARTURE OF PRINCE ARTHUR.—His Royal Highness Prince Arthur left Halifax by a special train at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, for Pictou. He was accompanied to the railway by Sir John Young, Sir Hastings Doyle, and other prominent personages. At various points along the route large crowds of people assembled to greet him. At Truro an address was presented to him, and also at Pictou. He embarked at Pictou in H. M. S. 'Dart,' which sailed for Charlottetown.

PRINCE ARTHUR IN P. E. ISLAND.

[Special Despatch to Morning Chronicle.]

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., 28th August, 10 P. M.

Great excitement here this afternoon, preparing for arrival of H. R. H. Prince Arthur. The Queen's wharf and Queen street were decorated with arches, and there was a liberal display of bunting from shops and private residences.

H M S Dart being a slow boat, did not reach here till eight o'clock to-night, causing much disappointment in consequence of delay.

A salute was fired from St. George's battery on arrival of the Dart, and a peal of welcome was rung from all the church and other bells in the city.

Sir Robert Hodgson, Administrator of the Government, and sides-de-camp, went immediately on board, and returned intimating that the Prince would follow in a few minutes.

His Royal Highness, accompanied by suite, landed on the Queen's wharf at 8.30 P. M. amid enthusiastic cheers. He was received on the wharf by the Mayor of the city and the Administrator of Government, and conducted by latter to his carriage who took a seat beside him.

The hour being late, the procession did not form in the order intended, but the Prince's carriage, preceded by that of provincial aides de camp, and followed by others, with his suite, and by gentlemen in public positions on foot, proceeded to Government House.

Queen and Kent streets, along which the procession passed, were lined with thousands of people, who cheered heartily. The windows of houses on both sides of the streets, were crowded with ladies who waved handkerchiefs enthusiastically. The Prince bowed gracefully at every new outburst of cheering, and seemed highly amused at the excessive demonstrations of some of the people.

On reaching Government House, His Royal Highness received the address of the City Council, to which he replied in the usual complimentary terms, stating that though his stay was short in the maritime colonies, yet he was instructed by his mother not to omit visiting Prince Edward Island.

It was expected the Prince would arrive at 6 o'clock and land during day light, so no preparation for a general illumination had been made; but the City Hall, St. Patrick's Hall, and several shops were finely lighted. On the whole, the reception was a grand ovation.

Monday next will be a general holiday. The Prince will hold a Levee at Government House, at twelve o'clock; drive out in the afternoon, and attend a grand ball at the Province Building in the evening.

On Tuesday morning he will leave for Halifax.

The Yarmouth Tribune says:—As an illustration of the difficulty of procuring "hands" at the present time in Yarmouth, it may be mentioned that a tradesman of our acquaintance has orders for work to the extent of $2000, which he is unable to execute for want of skilled assistants. There are indications that the business prospects of Yarmouth, so long "under a cloud," are gradually and steadily reviving; that the lessons of the past have been taken to heart; and that trade will hereafter be conducted on a more solid and satisfactory basis than we have been accustomed to see. The same paper adds:—"Local news in this County is scarce and unimportant just now. The Bankers and Bay-men are getting home with full fares; and the elation of their owners and crews is increased on account of the high prices their products are realizing in the markets. This will prove the best year they have had for the last four or five seasons. I visited Locke's Island some days since, and was surprised at the amount of business done in the place. I heard nothing of "Annexation or starvation, here."

The Bridgetown Free Press of a late date says:—It is just twenty-four years ago since the Potato Blight came down upon our fields like a destroying angel, especially commissioned "to cut off the hopes of the husbandman."—Ever since it has been an annual calamity, its severity varied by the state of the weather or other circumstances that were beyond the reach of human ken. This year, up till last week, there was no symptom of its appearance. It has within a few days, however, left its withering impress on several fields in the surrounding country. It is by no means general yet, and it may be that its ravages this year will be less destructive than formerly.

After a short fight, the rebels were dispersed with a loss of ten killed. A detachment of troops accompanying a train of provisions along the south coast to Crego Avila was attacked on the road by insurgents, and compelled to fall back, suffering some loss, but saving the train. Reinforcements arriving, the troops again advanced, attacked the insurgents, and succeeded in reaching Cregon with the corivoy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Advices from Port au Prince to the 9th inst, have been received. Salnave was still encamped before Aux Cayes and had the place completely surrounded. Its surrender is daily expected. Jacmel has been taken by Salnave's troops without resistance.—The steamers Quaker City and Florida both flying the Haytien repel flag, forced the Port au Prince away from Gonaives, to which port she was bound. They refused all communication with the shore not even allowing her to take off the American Consul.

Editor's and Book Steward's Notices, &c

Two or three communications from esteemed Correspondents which had been placed in the Printer's hands have been crowded out of this week's paper. They will appear in the next number.

☞ We have completed the task of sending out to all the Circuits the Lists of Subscribers to the Provincial Wesleyan; according to these there are large amounts in the aggregate due from some of the Circuits. We hope to receive money returns and particular reports from the several ministers as early as possible this month. We wish to revise the general list and to drop therefrom the names of all subscribers who will not promptly pay for the paper as the business of the Office is not in such a condition as to justify a large gratuitous distribution. We hope the Brethren on the various Circuits will also make an earnest general canvass for new advance paying Subscribers; so that our weekly issue may be greatly increased and not diminished by this month's proposed revisal of our Lists.

☞ Two or three of the ministers who had not complied with the Order of the Conference, requiring an advance payment of $1 from each Minister for the Wesleyan, have written expressing surprise, not to say vexation, because we have not continued to send the paper to them notwithstanding. We delayed the application of the rule for several weeks after the Conference, in order that every one who wished might have an opportunity of securing the continuance of the paper; and we have continued to send it in all cases where we had heard that it was wished and that payment would be made.

☞ We and some of our friends have been somewhat annoyed by the blunders which have been made in printing the 3rd page of each of the two or three last numbers of our paper. In the communication from the Nashwaak Circuit in the paper of the 18th ult. "McGarran Settlement" should have been McLaggan Settlement; "the Rev Mr. Foge," the Rev Mr. Fogo; and "John Laggan, Esq," Jas McLaggan, Esq.

☞ Wesleyan Bazaar, St. Johns, Newfl'd. The Rev. E. Botterell has received a box of valuable articles for this Bazaar from Messrs. E. Bent, Rev Jos. Gaetz, and Mrs. S. Sprague, and contributions from Mrs E. Jost, Miss F. Coleman, and others. These have been forwarded to members of the Committee in St. Johns.

THE AGE OF RAILROADS AND THE TELEGRAPH.

Gives rise to fast living, and increases the desire for making rapid fortunes—some wishing o outstrid, and others to be at least equal to their neighbours. In order to keep up with this eager and unequal contest, the brain is taxed to its utmost power, while humanity is rendered an easy prey to disease. The Heart, Liver, Stomach, Lungs, or Nervous System become afflicted, and sickness in the form of Heart Disease, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Consumption, Paralysis, or Mania is the result. The use of FELLOW'S COMPOUND SYRUP will enable the mind to sustain a greater strain unfettered by conflicting thoughts and unwearied by continued study. It imparts power of consecration. What before seemed difficult solution becomes comparatively easy, and the body is physically stronger under its use.

Sold by Apothecaries—price $1 50 per bottle or 6 for $7.50. On the receipt of $7.50 the proprietor will forward 6 to any part of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick free.

RING'S

Vegetable Ambrosia

FOR

GRAY HAIR.

This is the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Man who was bald and gray,
Who now has raven locks, they say.
He used the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Maiden, handsome and gay,
Who married the man once bald and gray,
Who now has raven locks, they say.
He used the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Parson, who, by the way,
Married the maiden, handsome and gay,
To the man once bald and gray,
But who now has raven locks, they say,
Because he used the Cure that lay
In the AMBROSIA that Ring made.

This is the Bell that rings away
To arouse the people sad and gay
Unto this fact, which here does lay—
If you would not be bald or gray,
Use the AMBROSIA that Ring made.
