

and six-pence for each licence so to be granted and no more.

II. And be it further enacted, That every person so licensed as aforesaid, shall at the time of taking such licence, enter into recognizance with two good and sufficient sureties to his Majesty in such sum as the said Justices or the major part of them then and there assembled shall direct, to keep an orderly house, and obey such rules and regulations as the said Justices in their General Sessions, or the major part of them, then and there assembled, shall from time to time make and ordain to be observed by Tavern-keepers and retailers, respectively in such county, which rules and regulations the said Justices in their General Sessions as aforesaid, are hereby authorized and empowered to make and ordain.

Persons licensed, to enter into recognizance with sureties, for keeping an orderly house, and to obey rules and orders of the sessions.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall sell any wine, brandy, rum, beer, ale, or any strong liquors whatsoever, by retail or the small measure under the quantity of five gallons without licence, first had and obtained for that purpose as aforesaid, and entering into recognizance as aforesaid, he, she or they, so offending shall for every offence forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds to be recovered upon complaint made to any one of his Majesty's Justices of the peace, in the county where such offence shall be committed, upon the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, and levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offenders goods, under the hand and seal of such Justice, directed to any constable of the town or parish where such offence shall be committed, rendering the overplus if any, after deducting the costs and charges of such distress and sale to the offender, and if no goods shall be found, whereon to levy such distress, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice by warrant under his hand and seal, to commit such offender to the common goal of the county where such offence shall be committed without bail or main-prize for such time not exceeding three months, nor less than one month, as such Justice shall in his discretion think fit, unless such penalty and forfeiture together with the costs and charges shall be sooner paid, one half of all which penalties and forfeitures shall be paid into the hands of the overseers of the poor of the town or parish where such offence shall be committed, for the use of the poor of such town or parish, the other half to him or them who shall make complaint and sue for the same.

Persons selling by retail, without licence, forfeit £ 5, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace, and levied by warrant of distress.

If no goods found, the offender to be committed.
