

LANSDON'S MOTION WILL CARRY

Large Majority Predicted

SPEECHES THIS WEEK

Asquith to Take Drastic Step Day Lords Vote on Motion

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The coming week will be memorable in the parliamentary annals of Great Britain. A majority of the Lords despite the warnings of such experienced politicians as Lord Rosebery and Lord Bunsick, have decided to withhold their consent to the budget, and it is a foregone conclusion that Lord Lansdown's motion to reject the finance measure will be carried by a large majority. But while the result is foreseen interest in the debate remains undiminished and the speeches to be delivered on Monday and Tuesday, preceding the division, are eagerly anticipated. Viscount Morley, Secretary of State for India, will reopen the discussion when the House of Lords convenes Monday and he will be followed by Lord Curzon, former Viceroy of India, providing the latter has recovered from the illness which has rendered him unable to attend. Lord Rothchild speaking on behalf of the Unionists and Lord Swythlington for the Liberals. Earl Cawdor and the Earl of Cromartie will make the principal speeches on Tuesday.

LEADERS OUT OF TOWN

With all the leaders out of town for the week-end there have been no further developments on the financial situation and the opinions about town are confined to conjectures as to what course the government will take. It is certain that Premier Asquith on the day after the Lords have divided the question will give notice of a motion affirming the uncontrolled right of the House of Commons in respect to financial matters. There is a possibility that Lord Balfour of Burleigh will refer to this with an amendment proposing that a change in the system of taxation of such importance should be referred to the people. The Premier's motion, of course, will prevail and then it will be up to the House to decide whether the House shall be progressed or merely adjourned. The decision of the government is of the greatest importance so far as the finances of the country are concerned, as the only authority now existing for the collection of income tax, the duty on tea and the increased duties on spirits and tobacco rests on the resolutions passed in the Budget of the introduction of the Budget.

WILL COME TO AN END

If parliament is adjourned these resolutions will come to an end and the collection of taxes will have to stop. It is adjourned only as a determined opposition will continue to be maintained in earnest as soon as the chambers have been adjourned. Great meetings of both parties have been arranged at all the big centres and thousands of speakers and canvassers are prepared to begin their work which will be continued during an interval for the Christmas holidays until the last vote has been polled.
