$1-Farmersville Reporter.—$1 THE REPORTER, now in its fifth year of publication, is the newsy, spicy organ of the rural population of Leeds County. It was first started in only a very little sheet, 12 by 20 inches, with a circulation of only three hundred. Since then it has been twice enlarged, until now it is a 32 column double royal sheet, with a circulation of nearly eight hundred. The inside pages are devoted entirely to local news, while the 24 outside pages are filled with local news and advertisements.
 A few features, introduced a short time ago, is a weekly report of transactions on the Brockville Fair-ground's Board of Trade and at other important local markets. These reports are made up by a man well versed in these matters, and can be relied upon as being reliable business men of the county. The Reporter refuses all advertisements of unreliable character, believing that the space can be better filled by the announcements of live business.
 THE REPORTER Job Rooms are complete in all requisites for turning out a neat-class quality of work. Our presses are run by steam power, and we can comply with all orders promptly and cheaply. We refer with pride to the price lists of the Fair advertisements this sheet, and show them the Largest Stock of Dress Goods, Mantles and Millinery kept in Brockville.

 Interesting Letters from Various Points in the County.

ELGIN.
 MONDAY, Sept. 11.—Mrs. W. Baker and children returned to Brockville on Saturday last by the B. & W., accompanied by Miss McGhie and Mr. Fred Baker.
 The farmers feel quite jubilant over the way their grain is turning out. It is somewhat better than they expected, and in some measure take the place of the short crop of hay.
 As we were coming home from the harvest dinner at Phillipville, last Thursday, we passed a number of teams heavily loaded with wheat, and on inquiring as to their destination, found that they were going to the station with it, having sold it to W. B.
 Phelps, of Phillipville. At the time of voting on the railroad by law, some of our wisest men would not believe that this section of country would ever have any surplus grain to spare, and now they are sending it away by the carload. The wheat bought goes to the Lynn mill.

FRONT OF YONGE.
 TUESDAY, Sept. 4.—The Junetown Blue Mountain baseball club beat the Mallorytown boys last week.
 The bookbinders, harness makers, and are the only crops which are out door-at present.
 The chicken hawkers of Rockport, are collecting all the fowl in this quarter, to supply the American fishermen. Every day loads of cages pass and repass, which have a strong resemblance to the rear guard of Barnum's show.
 A very boisterous load of people passed through here on Friday night, on their way to a social held in Mallorytown. Was there no conductor or board?
 Mr. Henry Torrence, of Howick, is visiting his father in Gaitstown.
 Potter, Cowen & Co. have been making repairs on their country grist mill, and Mr. Jas.
 Towe has also again put in an appearance in the same mill as head sawyer.
 The store has also been replenished with a well assorted stock of new and staple goods.
 [closed out for last issue.]

PHILLIPSVILLE.
 MONDAY, Sept. 3.—Dargavel & Co. have closed their branch store here, Dargavel taking the balance of the stock back to Elgin.
 Mr. Whaley goes to Delta, he having rented the drug store of J. E.
 Brown.
 Mrs. H. M. Brown takes charge of the post and telegraph office again.
 Rev. Mr. Walker paid this place a visit last Sabbath and preached to a large congregation in the Baptist Church Sunday morning. His brother, the Rev. Jas. Walker, was with him.
 The harvest dinner under the auspices of the Ladies Aid was a decided success. The day was all that could be desired, the tables were beautifully spread, and the speeches were to the point. The committee of arrangement should be congratulated.
 The catch of the season was made on Thursday last by Mr. R. L. Booth, of this place, accompanied by Mr. Jas.
 Dano. It appears they went up the river within five miles of Gananoque and then set night traps for bass. On counting out, "somebody" they found a "bouncer" which gave them some trouble. After a long's work they succeeded in getting a stringer, which measured 6 feet 6 inches, and weighed the scale, quickly at 1 1/2 pounds. If any one can beat that record, try.
 "Hatter a cold time to camp, isn't it Dillmer. What do you say, Norman?"
MALLORYTOWN.
 MONDAY, Sept. 3.—The Methodist pulpit was filled last Sunday morning by Rev. L. A. Betts, of Brockville.
 We are pleased to learn that Rev.
 W. Pearson, who has been ill with bilious fever, is in a fair way for recovery.
 It is rumored that a handsome young C. P. R. operator is coming to Mallorytown to visit soon. Do you know him, Minnie?
 The high school pupils from this place are Misses Libbie Thompson, Lena Mallory, Ida Donnelly and Lizzie Tennant. We wish them every success in the pursuit of their studies.
 From the way in which "out boys" are practicing baseball, we judge they are evidently intent to "get there" in the next match.
 Messrs. Ransom & Son were in town Saturday last purchasing and loading live stock. Fair prices were paid, and a goodly number were shipped from three years at the business. The travelling public will find it very convenient and the clerk and proprietor very obliging.

 [closed out last week.]

TOLINO, Sept. 8.—Mr. J. Foster has given his hotel a coat of paint inside and out, which will make it appear more attractive.
 Several of the Toledo brethren of the A. O. U. W. paid Smith's Falls Lodge a visit on Sunday and took part in the burial services of the first member who has died belonging to the Smith's Falls Lodge since it was organized.

Mr. O. L. Kilborn has returned from Montreal and will spend a month with his brother, Dr. R. K. Kilborn, before going to college again.
 The postponed harvest dinner, under the Methodist's, was a grand success. There was something over one hundred dollars as proceeds of the dinner, besides three hundred more obtained by subscription, all of which goes to apply to the Parsons Fund.
 O. L. Kilborn and Mr. W. Hall are spending this week at Charleston Lake.
 Yesterday was Division Court day at Frankville, which called out a large number of people. The case of Cover, The Township of Kitley was adjourned until next court.

We always thought that the male head of every house was the one who was supposed to "run it," but it appears that on Friday night last some one in our fair ville did not think that every person was aware of the fact and quite effectually let it know that he intends to "run his own house."
ADDISON.

SATURDAY, Sept. 8.—Mr. George Langdon is to be congratulated. It's a boy.
 Our King St. blacksmith is turning out some fine carriages. One for Mr.
 Mansell is a dandy.
 One of those interesting events which always cause a flutter of excitement in a community took place at the residence of Mr. Ezra Wilkie, of this place, on Tuesday evening, August 4th, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Minnie to Mr. Ambrose Cole, of Kitley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. C. Souderson, in the presence of a large number of relatives of the contracting parties.
 After the ceremony was completed, and the newly wedded pair had received the congratulations of those present, the company sat down to a splendid supper, which it would be hard to surpass.
 The wedding presents were very numerous, consisting of silverware, glassware, and several other articles, which gladdened the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Cole took the early morning train for New York State, where they intend spending a few days with friends there.
 They have the good wishes of all.

The gypsies struck our town a few days ago, and one of our citizens acquired a fine family horse of the Black Diamond variety.
 We see great preparations for the fair at Unionville. The boys are training their nag-and the track is in first class condition. Come one, come all.
 [From another Correspondent.]

AMHERST, Sept. 10.—This being the order of the day among the farmers. The steamer is doing excellent work this year. The yield of grain is very satisfactory.
 The village is visited weekly by only six butchers, anxious to dispose of meat, particularly beef, and the sagacity of the "cotton" was beautifully exemplified this last week, when one of our houses (better known as J. L. C. formerly owned in this town), whose master had, we presume, become fatigued and worried by business during the day, and who felt rather disposed to retire by the way and altogether the refreshing breezes of Mr.
 McLean's Creek to fan his fevered brow—perhaps knowing a quarter of beef remained unsold, continued his Greenhouse. But as it was during the wee sma hours no one gave him a single penny. Next morning J. L. C. and his musty packages through on their way to Farmersville, somewhat discouraged with results.
 Mr. Isaac Wilson, of Rockport, was united in wedlock to Miss Mary A. Pepper on Wednesday the 5th ult.
 The marriage ceremony was performed at Mr. Styles. We offer hearty congratulations.

Mr. George Cardin, who has been east this summer manufacturing cheese has returned home, half an hour and has purchased from Mr. Joseph Wilken his well known stock raiser.
 His work and gave such general satisfaction that the proprietor wishes to reengage him for next season.
 Messrs. Daniel McVeigh and Cardin have purchased from Mr. Joseph Wilken his well known stock raiser.
 They are now ready to accept any patronage offered, and we think anyone having such work to do ought to encourage the boys in their enterprise by visiting in Gananoque.
 Mr. C. H. Tappin, well known as a merchant and farmer of this place, visited Uncle Sam's domain for a few days this summer, particularly that part known as Iowa, in which his farm is located. Charlie is back in our midst looking well and satisfied with his trip. He reports a moist season there and good crops; particularly corn.

Mr. B. J. Scott, agent at Chatham, is visiting at his sister's, Mrs.
 Moffatt. It is looking heavy and purposes visiting to Fair and taking a the North Shore of our returning home.
 Messrs. Ed. and in paid a fine last week the gypsies perfect good.

Mr. J. J. McCrea, who has served nearly 300.
