TO STRIKE A BLOW

Now is Said to be General Buller's Opportunity.

The Boer Forces Around Ladysmith Have Been Drawn Upon to Assist at Kimberley.

London, Friday, Dec. 15, 1445 a. m.—The War Office is still without news from Ladysmith other than that already published. The general belief is that the large Boer forces Lord Methuen encountered at Magersfontein were partly drawn from Natal, and that Gen. Buller will strike a blow before these have time to return.

BRIDGE DESTROYED.

A special despatch received here from Natal, Natal, Tuesday, Dec. 12, states that the Ladysmith railway bridge made a sortie and destroyed the Modderspruit bridge. Reports are current that Gen. Cley has succeeded in getting the north of Ladysmith, and is entrenching his forces behind the Boer position. If this is true, it means that Cley succeeded in crossing the Tugela by flanking the Boers, while Buller kept them at Colenso by threatening their front with his army at Frere.

TAKEN UNPREPARED.

London, Friday, Dec. 15.—The correspondent of the Standard at Modder River, describing the fight at Magersfontein, says:—"Six miles had to be covered before the British Brigade could reach the Boer stronghold. It is not yet clear through what mischance the force, which was led by guides, came upon the Boer trenches so unexpectedly and so suddenly. Beyond question the Boers were aware of the approach of the British and had prepared to receive them. According to one version, two Highlanders through nervousness or clumsiness discharged their rifles prematurely, but it is equally probable that the advance Boer scouts conveyed the intelligence. Our men were totally unprepared. They had not even fixed bayonets. The disaster was all the more exasperating because of the consciousness that they were thus unprepared, and with bayonets fixed the trenches might have been successfully rushed, with far less sacrifice of life. While the Guards were advancing on the plain, which the Boers were shelling from the adjoining ridges, they encountered and cut up a strong picket posted on a hill for purposes of observation. All the members of the picket were either killed, wounded or taken prisoners.

THE SAD SIDE OF WAR.
The scenes at the war office when Gen. Methuen's casualties were posted was highly dramatic. There was a steady incursion of anxious inquirers from the moment the doors opened, and there was intense excitement when an official bearing the ominously long list of names. The women present crowded eagerly forward and begged for copies of the lists. The supply was not sufficient, so the official read out the lists. Intense feeling was evident on all the faces and the pitiable anguish of the bereaved was extreme. It was a memorable scene. Some of the women were so overcome that they had to be assisted from the room.

Gen. French reports that in a skirmish near Nauport, he had eight casualties and the Boers 40. The enemy retreated.

DRESDEN.

BLISTERED BY DOCTORS.

For Heart Disease without Heart Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart—Relieves in Fifteen Minutes.

Mrs. O. Ward, of Niagara, Que., was a great sufferer for years from heart disease. Physicians blistered her and gave her other treatments without relief. She read in the papers of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. She procured a bottle of it. Fifteen minutes after the first dose she had relief. Before taking this remedy, she had constant spells of suffocation and fluttering, and severe pains about the heart, and was so weak that the act of sweeping the floor caused her to faint. She continued using the remedy until she had taken six bottles, and to-day she is as well as ever she was.
