Distinguished Dead Accorded National Funeral by the U. S. Government.

Acknowledgement of Friendly Feeling Cherished Towards Great Britain.

Washington, May 28.-The remain of the late Lord Pauncefote, British Ambassador to Washington, to-day were accorded a national funeral, in token of the high esteem set by the American people on the personal worth of the deceased, and an acknowledgement of the friendly feeling which is cherished towards Great Britain. Every department of the national Government was represented, and the numerous diplomatic body, of which for so many years the late Lord Pauncefote was Dean, was present in the persons of the ambassadors, ministers and charges. Besides these, the resident society of the capital was fully represented. The presence of a thousand men in arms was the visible sign of military participation in the funeral. The church of which the deceased was a member did honor to his memory by bringing to Washington to conduct the services the Coadjutor Bishop of Philadelphia, the Rev. Mackay-Smith, under whom he had sat.

e had sat. The funeral escort was composed of the second squadron of the Second Cavalry, and the cavalry band, the latter mounted on white horses; the Fourth Field Battery, the third battalion of the United States Engineers and band, and a battalion of United States marines and band.
The pall-bearers were Herr Von Holleben, the German Ambassador; M. Jules Cambon, the French Jules Cambon, the French Ambassa-dor; Comte Cassini, the Russian Ambassador; Senor Don Manuel de As-piroz, the Mexican Ambassador, and Signor Edmondo Mayor des Planches, Italian Ambassador; Secretary Speaker Henderson and Senator Orville M. Platt, the acting president pro tem of the Senate. With little delay the casket was lifted up on the shoulders of four brawny marines and as many endeposited. Bishops Mackay-and Satterlee, who were to church, were carrialready seated in their carri-age, the mourners and the bonor-ary pall-bearers and the members of the British Embassy took their places in the line of carriages, the signal was given, and at a slow pace the processeated in their sion started down Connecticut avenue towards St. John Church, the soldiers and murines falling in the line of march as the column moved along to

DAY'S DESPATCHES

PREMIER ROUSSEAU RESIGNS.

Paris, May 28.-The resignation of the premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau. was formally communicated to the cabinet at its meeting to-day. Public announcement of the resignation will be made June 3,, when President Loubet returns from his trip to Montelimar (in the department of Drome, the home of the chief magistrate of France). The entire cabinet resigns with M. Waldeck-Rousseau. If publicty announced now, the president would be obliged to remain in Paris and appoint a new ministry. Consequently the public announcement of the resignation of the cabinet is deferred in order to enable M. Loubet to visit his home, after his absence in Russia.

THIS WEEK WILL SEE THE END OF THE WAR

According to To-Day's London Chronicle—Yet There Would Seem to be a Hitch in the Negotiations at Vereeniging.

London, Thursday, May 29 -The | that the questions raised by the Boer Daily Chronicle this morning declares that the negotiations, which will be that the negotiations, which will be practically concluded in the course of the present week, will witness the to the irreconcilable minority includtermination of the war in South Afthat the government has declined to grant the rebels unqualified amnesty or to fix a date for the establishment of self-government, and that English will probably be the official language of the two colonies. nouncement of peace is the decision parliament yesterday to final reply. It is stated in London trade. Charles Wilson, Liberal, said debate the education bill next Monday and to postpone further debate day and to postpone further debate on the budget, which seems to show that affairs in South Africa may re-quire a greater period of time for settlement. It is now regarded as certain that the Chamberlain party will be victorious, and that the gov-ernment has decided to retain the fax ernment has decided to retain the tax on grain. Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial secretary is again indisposed, and some people believe his indisposiition to be diplomatic.

A SET-BACK TO OPTIMISM. London, May 28,-There is a distinct set-back this morning in the recent stacle to peace. The optimism concerning the conclusion of peace. Both the cables from Pretoria and political despatches dealing with the cabinet concur in declaring

BURGLARS' TOOLS

Robert Martin & Sons have claimed the screw-driver, hatchet and sledge hammer found in the vicinity of J. A. Wilson's store last Saturday.
These tools were found by a girknamed Kenny, who lives near by.
On Mr. Wilson being notified, he made an examination and found that an attempt had been made to break into his store. Some slats were pulled off but the remaining barriers couldn't be removed without considerable noise so the thieves had evidently stooped work. The tools were ly stopped work. The tools were taken from Mr. Martin's carriage factory, corner of Adelaide and Wellington streets. They were not missed, however, till yesterday. Some drills were taken at the same time, but have not been found. These may have been the tools used to break open J. H. Bogart's safe last Friday night.
