WOLFVILLE, N. S.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., FEB. 19, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

The court of appeal met yesterday. Seventeen appeals from assessment were up for hearing.

The Tennysonian Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Paville on Monday evening, Feb. 22d.

Contributions to the Indian Famine Fund may be left at the People's Bank agency of this town.

A treat is in store for all who attend the lecture by the Presbyterian church next Monday evening. Don't miss it.

An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Kings Co. Co-operative Coal Co. will be held in the Town Hall on Wednesday next, the 24th inst., at 3 p. m. All interested are invited to be present.

Rev. Dr. Sexton is to preach in the Canning Methodist church on Sunday morning and evening next, and will lecture on Monday and Tuesday evenings in the same church, under the auspices of the League.

Clearance and Bargain Sale, Glasgow House. See adv.

Rev. Mr. Gale, the eloquent evangelist who is coming to Wolfville in a few weeks, is at present conducting a series of very successful meetings at Bangor. With the exception of Mr. Moody, he is said to have no superior in his line in America.

On Saturday evening last the Senior class of Acadia were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eaton, of Canard. Mr. Balcom with two four-horse teams, conveyed the students to and from the residence of their entertainers. We understand that a most enjoyable time was had.

That very interesting little newspaper family, the Kentville Advertiser, Wolfville Orchardist and Hantsport Advance, is in future to be under new management. Mr. H. G. Harris, barrister, has purchased the good-will of the said journals, and will shortly remove to Kentville and take charge.

A "James Whitcomb Riley Recital" by pupils of Acadia Seminary is to be given in Alameda Hall on Monday evening, March 1st. Selections will be given from "Green Fields and Running Brooks," "Old Fashioned Roses" and "Pipes O'Pan at Zanesburg." Proceeds are to be given to the Seminary library fund. Admission, twenty-five cents.

Manager Heales announces that a Fancy Dress Carnival will be held in Aberdeen Rink, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 24th. The Kentville Brass Band will furnish the music. A special train will be run from Kentville to Wolfville and return, at one first class fare. Mr. Heales will do his best to make things pleasant for the skaters, and no doubt a large number will take advantage of the opportunity afforded for an evening's sport.

Two of "Company X" members have volunteered for active service. One would like to go to Cuba to assist the insurgents to gain their independence; while the other would prefer joining the expedition that Great Britain is sending up to Khartoum. It is not yet decided whether or not their services will be required. The Cadets are getting along pretty well, and the English soldiers anticipate no very serious difficulty with the savage tribes whom they will come in contact with.

Graduate of Philadelphia Dental College.
Office in Herbin's building, Wolfville.

Personal Mention.

(Contributions to this department will be gladly received.)
Mr. J. D. Keady, of Paradise, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blenkhorn, of Somerset, spent Sunday in town, at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs.
Patricia.

Rev. D. O. Parker visited friends at Berkley last week and was present at the "Roll Call" of the Berwick Baptist church on the 11th inst. Mr. Parker has been engaged to write and publish in pamphlet form, a history of this church.

Mr. E. Blackadder, agent of the Grand Division, who for the past month has been lecturing and organizing in Hants county, came home last Saturday for a few days' rest. He returned to the work on Wednesday afternoon, lecturing at St.
Cecilia on Wednesday evening. He reports the temperance cause more than holding its own in Hants county.

Fraternal Visit.

On Monday evening Wolfville Division, S. of T., was visited by members of Cornwallis Division, of Canard, and Canning Division. The evening was one of the pleasantest of the season, and the roads being in good condition a large number of visitors were present. The hall was filled—every available seat being occupied. The programme of music, readings, speeches, tableaux, etc., which was given was a most excellent one and was greatly enjoyed. Both the visiting societies appear to be in a prosperous condition, and composed of talented and enthusiastic members. After listening to the extended programme given refreshments were passed around and after spending a short time in a social manner the meeting was brought to a close. The order appears to be on the increase in this county, and a good work is no doubt being done.

Mr. R. M. Rand gave a drive whilst party last Tuesday evening. Quite a large number were present. The ladies prize was won by Miss Carrie Hayes, and the gentlemen's by Mr. Frank Chipman. The horses fell to the lot of Miss Chipman and Mr. Kennedy respectively.

The runaway of one of W. Duncan-son's most delivery teams on Main street last Saturday morning, caused quite a little commotion. The pump was completely demolished by coming in contact with a telephone pole, and the horse quite badly bruised. The driver escaped uninjured.

My paper, "The Orchard and Gardens as I saw them fifty years ago," was left on a show-case in the College Hall on night, and in the morning was not there.
The paper has been requested for publication in the annual report, and as I have no duplicate, if it is in the hands of anyone I will esteem it a favor if he will return it to me. D. O. PARKER.

A Farmers' Meeting will be held in "Evangeline Hall," Lower Horton, under the auspices of the Kings Co. Agricultural Society, on Saturday evening, Feb.
20th, at 7.30 p. m., when an address will be delivered by Mr. A. G. Gilbert, superintendent of the Poultry Department,
"Central Experimental Farm," Ottawa.
All welcomed, the farmer's wife especially. Everyone that keeps a hen should be there. This is Mr. Gilbert's first visit to Kings Co.; see that he gets a fair hall.
He is extremely practical, and will be pleased to answer questions after his address pertaining to poultry matters.
