A Famous Sea Captain

Late Commander of the "Empress of France."

The Canadian Pacific recently lost by death in England one of their popular sea captains when
Captain Ebenezer
Cook, R.N.R., late commander of the Canadian Pacific
liner "Empress of France" passed away at his residence at Grand
Camp.

After conveying Mr. A. J. Balfour and other prominent Peace Conference delegates across the Atlantic, Captain
Cook was taken ill on arrival at Quebec. He was lying ill on the steamer on her
return voyage,
and when the steamer reached Liverpool he was removed by ambulance to his home, "but too late to recover."

The late Captain Cook, who was 53 years of age, was a man of fine appearance, and possessed a most courteous and genial disposition. He was looked upon as one of the most capable commanders sailing from the Mersey, and he performed excellent service during the war years.
Captain Cook was born at Tay-port, and joined the Allan Line in 1890 as fourth officer of the "Carthaginian." Within four years he was being attached to Crosby Lodge, 27 St.

At the funeral the Canadian Pacific Steamships Limited were represented by J. A. Martin, Liaison Manager, who also represented Sir Thomas Fisher, general manager; Capt. A. A.
Foster, Liverpool Steamships manager; W. J. Sargent, consulting engineer; Capt. Maxwell, marine surveyor; D. H. Hall, chief entering surveyor; W. Davies, new superintendent; Capt. A. H. Sargent, R.N.
R.; A. C. Wilson, shipping master; J.
McNeil, Liverpool general agent; L.
P. R., who represented Sir George McLaren Brown, European general manager; R. A. Swan, passenger agent; C.P.R. A large number of the officers and staff of the "Empress of France" and "Manitoba" of Britain were present.
Many beautiful floral tributes were laid on the grave.

Decorate Now and Save Money

If the people would decorate the interior of their homes in the late fall and during the winter months the Decorators could give them better satisfaction than if all should wait until a certain few weeks in the spring when each want to be served at the same time. Better plan now to redecorate your rooms. Get in touch with me and see the samples of beautiful Wall Papers and Stencils, and arrange to have your rooms fixed up. I will sell decorating materials at a Discount of 25 to 30 per cent to those who will have me put them on during the fall or winter.
