

DRUNKARDS' PHOTOS FOR BAR ROOMS.

Milwaukee Woman Left $400,000 by Man Who Fell in Love With Her Picture.

The Magill Murder Trial Reaches An Important Stage.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The Hyde Park Liquor Dealers' Association, as a matter of self protection, has started a crusade against those who overbibe.

These pictures then are to be pasted on the mirror behind the bar, so that the dispenser of drinks may see at a glance if he is selling liquor to a drunkard.

Two members of the association have been prosecuted by indignant wives for having sold intoxicating drinks to their husbands.

Face Was Her Fortune. Chicago, Oct. 14.—A despatch from Milwaukee says Mrs. Lydia Paeschke, of this city, has been left a fortune of $400,000 by her husband.

The state senator saw a photograph of Mrs. Paeschke, and fell in love with it. He wrote a letter to the young woman ardently expressing his love, but she did not respond. Soon afterward he died, and when his will was opened it was found that his entire fortune was left to the woman of the picture whom he had never seen.

Magill Murder Trial. Chicago, Oct. 14.—A despatch from Decatur, Ill., says: The Magill murder trial enters its most important stage to-day, when the heavy guns of the State will be turned on Fred H. Magill and his wife, and the question of their guilt or innocence will be largely determined.

State's Attorney Miller sent a telegram to Miss Ida Candy, of Dayton, O., yesterday saying that important developments required her presence here at once.

Miss Gandy is a sister of Mrs. Pete Magill, the first wife of Magill, whom he is accused of murdering in 1905.

LONG BRIDAL TRIP OF FORMER HAMILTON MAN'S DAUGHTER.

Miss Amy McMillan Will Spend Honeymoon With Sir John Harrington in Abyssinia.

Manchester by the Sea, Mass., Oct. 14.—Of all American girls who have married well known foreigners few have had such interesting journeys as that planned for Miss Amy McMillan, of Detroit, who will to-morrow become the bride of Sir John Lane Harrington.

Miss McMillan is the daughter of the late United States Senator James McMillan, of Michigan, and for several seasons has spent her summers at Eagle Head, her mother's summer home here.

Sir John will take his bride from the conventional life of the north shore to the wildest country laying claim to a place in the family of Christian nations—Abyssinia—and to the court of King Menelik, to which he is accredited as Great Britain's Minister Plenipotentiary.

From a home of wealth and the most exclusive society of Washington and Manchester to this distant country is a far cry, but Miss McMillan is said by her friends to be very happy at the prospect of a honeymoon jaunt of more than seven thousand miles to the wild interior of Africa. This journey will take the bridal couple more than seven thousand miles by sea and then about six hundred miles from the coast to the city of Addis Ababa, on the wild uplands of Ethiopia, a vast, almost undeveloped land lying south of the Sudan, to the east of the upper waters of the Nile.

There are no railroads to King Menelik's capital as yet, although one has been started by the French from the Gulf of Arabia and is now completed about 185 miles inland.

Beyond that point the American bride of Sir John must ride on a horse, mule or camel. An expedition sent into the country by the United States in 1902 to negotiate a commercial treaty with King Menelik was twenty days on the march after leaving the railroad.

Miss McMillan is a daughter of the late Senator James McMillan, of Detroit, who was a native of Hamilton, and moved to Detroit while a young man.

VISITED THE U. E. BANK.

MR. WILLES CHITTY, K. C., OF LONDON, ENG., HERE.

Greatly Pleased With the Progress of the Bank, and Delighted With Beauty and Cleanliness of Hamilton.

Mr. T. Willes Chitty, K. C., a relative of the late Lord Justice Chitty, of London, England, was in this city on Saturday, his primary object being to visit the Hamilton branch of the United Empire Bank. Mr. Chitty had a very large practice at the bar in London, but his health became impaired, owing to overwork, and he was induced to accept the position of Master of the High Court of Justice of London, England, which office he now holds. He is one of the English directors of the United Empire Bank, and is now on a hurried visit to Canada, particularly with a view to a visit to the bank.

He is highly pleased with the progress the bank has made and with the general prosperity of the country. Mr. Chitty was also greatly impressed with Hamilton. He commented especially upon its beauty of situation, the attractiveness of its streets, houses and lawns, and the general cleanliness which prevailed.

SCOTLAND FOREVER.

Will Renounce King of Britain But Not of Scotland.

Chillitheo, O., Oct. 13.—George Goudion, a young Scotchman, has been denied papers which would make him a citizen because he refuses to renounce King Edward as King of Scotland. He says he is willing to renounce allegiance to him as King of England, but not as King of Great Britain and Ireland, as forms call for.

BIG CHANNEL

Of St. Mary's River Two Miles Long and 300 Feet Wide.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 14.—Water was turned into the new channel of the St. Mary's River at the West Neeshish yesterday, marking the completion of one of the biggest projects undertaken on the great lakes since the building of the Poe lock. The new channel is over two miles in length, 9,000 feet of which is cut through solid rock.

The channel is 300 feet in width, with a depth at minimum stage of water of twenty-two feet. It is located eighteen miles below the Soo and lies to the west of Neeshish Island, the present channel being to the east of the Island. This old channel will hereafter be used solely for up-bound boats, the heavily laden down-bound craft using the new waterway, which has none of the sharp turns which are embarrassing to the modern 600 foot freighter. The new channel will not be formally opened to navigation until spring. The project has cost upwards of three million dollars.

TOO MUCH POMP.

Fair Clerks Spend Too Much Time Fixing Their Hair.

Pittsburg, Oct. 14.—Managers of Pittsburg big stores have declared war on the lip pompadours and scores of girls who insisted on wearing their hair this way have been discharged, one of the leading stores letting twenty girls go at once, without recommendations. The claim is made that too much time is taken by the girls in taking care of this high mass of hair, and some time ago several of the stores served notice that the high "pomp" must go. Either that or the wearer must go. Many of the girls insisted, and last evening in their pay envelopes the blue slip of discharge was found.

LOST A LEG.

DROPPED DEAD.

Windsor Man Falls Dead Returning From Detroit Church.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 14.—(Special)—While returning from the dedicatory services of a new Danish Lutheran Church in Detroit, Edward Nelson, of Walkerville, fell dead. He was a devoted attendant of the church, and during worship he apparently returned thanks for being permitted to witness the completion of a work so dear to his heart. He deceased was 79 years of age. His body was removed to the city without a coroner being notified and permission secured from the Board of Health, as provided in Michigan State law, and complications may arise.

LATE F. E. WALKER.

Funeral Yesterday Was One of the Largest in Years.

The remains of the late Frank E. Walker were placed in their last resting place yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place from his late residence, corner of Queen and Main streets, at 3 o'clock. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in this city, the cortege reaching from the corner of Main and Queen streets down Queen street and well up York street. The simple service of the Anglican Church was read at the house by Rev. E. J. Etherington, who also officiated at the grave. At the cemetery the crowd was very large. Floral tributes filled two cars and were very beautiful. The horses attached to the hearse were velvet pallid. The License Commissioners and the Parks Board attended in a body. The bearers were: Honorary—Samuel Barker, M. P.; Mayor Stewart, John Milne, E. D. Cahill, W. Bell, J. Orr Callaghan, J. W. Lamoreaux, A. Pain, F. C. Bireley and W. R. Fish. Active bearers—John Hoop, A. W. Peene, Fred Kellond, Frank Quinn, George Allan, H. Spencer Case, A. G. Bain and C. H. Peebles.

CHOIR PRESENT.

Miss Annie Burton Honored by St. Thomas' Church Choir.

Miss Annie Burton, a popular member of the choir of the Church of St. Thomas, was the recipient of a very beautiful token of esteem from the members on Saturday evening. After the regular practice all the members were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Browne at their home, 25 Ontario avenue, where the evening was delightfully spent. Rev. E. J. Etherington, the rector, on behalf of the members, presented Miss Burton with a beautiful cut glass vase and pedestal, and a dozen lovely crimson roses. Mr. Etherington made an appropriate speech, as did also Mr. W. E. Robinson, the choir-master. Miss Burton is to be married to-morrow to Mr. Carley, of Chicago.

FOUND THE LEAK.

But Gas Explored and Set Fire to House.

Saturday night about supper time H. Dallyn and his family, 80 Wentworth street south, began to feel sick, and as the house was being piped for natural gas, Mr. Dallyn started in to look for leaks. He found one that almost blew the house up. The stove supply pipe through the kitchen floor had not been capped, and it caught fire instantly, and set all the wainscoting on fire. The blaze was smothered by Mr. Dallyn with a wet cloth before the fire department arrived, and the loss is given as small.

THE MAN In Overalls

Wow, wow, wow! Perhaps we were getting too cheery and needed to lose a game. "Rockefeller's Boy" should stick. Defeated but not dishonored. There are a few morals, lessons and warnings in this Sunfield case. How much did you drop on the game? Some of the city chauffeurs are always in too blamed a hurry. There will be an inquest some of these days, and there will be no recommendation to mercy, either, in the verdict. Perhaps the Tigers were off their feed. The boozers were whooping it up again on Saturday night. Are there any speakies in town? A football game is about as uncertain as a horse race. To tell the truth, this city ought to be ashamed to look the mountain in the face. A special Providence may watch over drunken men, but drunkenness is no excuse for crime. That $50,000 which a Hamilton gentleman proposes to give to Victoria College would provide an up-to-date Hamilton art gallery. The Montrealers treated the Tigers just as if they were the yellow peril. Girls shouldn't be walking up and down King and James streets on a Saturday night after 10 o'clock for the mere sake of walking. Even the young fellows make remarks. There was very little politics in the City Council and no overdrafts when the city was governed by ward-elected aldermen. But many people will die before the 25th of November. Is Beattie Nesbitt a traitor or usurper or a sort of a Mad Mullah fanatic? This practice of carrying "guns" should be discouraged. It's the man who carries one who usually gets into trouble. It's natural that there should be a lot of kicking about a football game. As a newspaper theme the perversion of Brockville should be about worn out. Wait till next year. It was a Toronto man who said that he wondered people didn't keep a cow so that they could have lots of nice fresh eggs to their breakfast every morning. The new Collegiate clock is a Black Hand affair. Times advertisers are doing such a rushing business you would think Christmas was here already. The Board of Works, having no visible means of support, should be run in for vagrancy. Women are still getting off street cars the wrong way. Perhaps a fine would help them to face forward. LITTLE ODDITIES. Besides the wreck of the Steamer Cyprus on Lake Superior, in which twenty-two lives were lost, there have been a number of railway accidents, more or less serious within about forty-eight hours. A Toronto hold-up man caught a bullet last night while trying to rob a hotel man in Chicago. Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria at the age of 77 is very low, and his recovery is hardly expected. The G. T. P. and C. N. R. will have a union depot at Winnipeg. P. T. Barnum's widow will take a fourth husband, Count Jacques de Brily. New York Local Union of Telegraphers voted to continue the strike, although President Small informed them that the General Assembly could not further finance it. The Executive met at Chicago and deposed Small, declaring that it wanted "men who have red blood." It is said that owing to a late start De Wolf Hopper's play at London encoached on Sunday morning, and prosecution may follow. Centre Bruce Tories want to run Hugh Clark for the Commons in one of the Bruce ridings. TO BISHOP LOFTUS. Canadian Club to Tender Him a Luncheon. It is altogether likely that a complimentary luncheon will be tendered to Bishop Loftus, of Keewatin, by the Canadian Club on Thursday of this week. There is no man living who knows so much about the country surrounding Hudson Bay and none so familiar with the inhabitants of the great lone land as this self-sacrificing man. The growing importance of the great inland sea makes it necessary that eastern Canada should know more of the territory in the far north, which borders on the bay. JOHN MITCHELL In Hospital to be Operated on for Appendicitis. Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—John Mitchell, President of the United Workers of America, has entered the hospital at Leasale, Ill., and it is said that he will submit to an operation for appendicitis when his condition becomes more favorable.

TYPEWRITER GIRL

May Have to Go if This Machine is a Success.

New York, Oct. 14.—Typewriter girls may find their occupation gone is what is said if a new invention turns out to be true. It is exhibited at the Business Show now in progress in Madison Square Garden, and is an automatic typewriter run by compressed air and capable, it is said, of writing from 5,000 to 10,000 words an hour for twenty-four hours at a stretch. The inventor is A. McCall, of Columbus, O.

JOHN DILLON

Back to Political Life and Supporting Redmond.

Dublin, Oct. 14.—John Dillon, member of Parliament from East Mayo, has returned to political activity, and in a letter addressed to the Tyrone nationalists declares himself thoroughly in sympathy with John Redmond and his party. He declared the criticism of Redmond was without foundation and said that Redmond acted with the greatest possible dependence, courage and judgment and that the Irish cause had made more progress in the last two years than in any two years during the thirty years of his political life. When the facts about the council bill become fully known he declared that Redmond and his party would be triumphantly vindicated.

MAY LOSE BALLARD.

Urgent Business May Take Him to Sudbury at Once.

It was reported this morning that Mr. Geo. Ballard, the captain of the Tiger football team, had been called to Sudbury in connection with his position with the M. Brennen Lumber Co., and that he would leave the city at noon for the north, and would not likely be back here for several weeks. A committee of the club waited on the company, asking if it was not possible to arrange for Mr. Ballard to remain here till the close of the football season, he being much needed by the team just now. Mr. Brennen was not able to give a definite reply, but gave the deputation some encouragement, by instructing Mr. Ballard not to go north to-day. The followers of the game here are hoping strongly that arrangements can be made to fill Mr. Ballard's place at Sudbury till the football season is over.

WHAT WILL IT COST TO APPEAL CASE?

Brother of Jake Sunfield Makes Enquiries of Mr. J. L. Counsell.

Prisoner Would Like to Have One Good Time Before He Dies.

A brother of Jake Sunfield, a Chicago street car conductor, has asked Mr. J. L. Counsell, solicitor for the man who was on Friday night sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Andrew Radeyk, to inform him as to the cost of carrying the case to the Court of Appeal, and for other information as to the case, the object being to secure a new trial. The prisoner's mother, who has been here for some days, but who did not attend the trial, is anxious that no stone be left unturned to save her son from death on the gallows, but it is stated she has not means to go to much expense. Although the trial judge refused to grant a retrial case, Mr. Counsell may apply, just the same, for leave to appeal, and the request would no doubt be granted. Whether an appeal will be entered or not will not be known until word is received from the prisoner's brother in Chicago. Sunfield has not given the officials at the jail any trouble since he has been placed in the cell of condemned prisoners. He has been guarded day and night, two county constables taking turns at watching, but he has done nothing to alarm them. He has some hopes that the jury's recommendation will be acted upon, and that he will not be hanged on Nov. 23. He was in better spirits on Saturday than he was on Friday night, when taken back from the court house. When he arrived at the jail Governor Ogilvie said "Well, Jake, have you come back?" "Yes, I've come back to die; but I want to have one good time in the meantime," replied Sunfield. One of the jurors who tried Sunfield said most of the ten men who first declared him guilty of the charge did so on the evidence of the prisoner. The part of the prisoner's testimony that impressed them with his guilt was that in regard to seeing just a little wound in Radeyk's head and no blood. They were under the impression that Sunfield looked at his victim just after firing the shot and fled, as the medical testimony was that an artery was severed, and the wound would bleed freely, and one witness swore the room was "like a slaughter house"—there was a great quantity of blood around. When Budimar Protich, the court interpreter, shook hands with Sunfield after the trial, and said he was very sorry for him, Sunfield replied: "Sorry, eh? If you were really sorry for me you could have helped me a little in the evidence."

HELD COPE RESPONSIBLE FOR RED HILL ACCIDENT.

He Sued for $1,000, Gets Nothing, and Has to Pay the Costs.

The Winter Assizes were continued this morning, Chief Justice Falconbridge presiding. In the damage action of Mrs. White-man vs. The Hamilton Steel & Iron Company, to recover $10,000 for the death of her husband, who was run over and killed in the company's yards, Mr. George Lynch-Staunton asked Chief Justice Falconbridge for a non-suit. His Lordship agreed to the non-suit, but decided to let the case go to the jury for the purpose of assessing the damages, if any, so as to avoid a new trial in case the non-suit is upset in case of appeal. The jury returned a verdict of $3,700. Mr. A. M. Lewis, counsel for the plaintiff, will appeal. The next case to be taken up on Saturday afternoon was that of Cope vs. H. G. & B., for $1,000 damages for injuries received. The evidence of the plaintiff was that he was a motorman in charge of a train going to the gravel pit on the 20th of November, 1905. He had received orders at Stoney Creek to meet the regular car from Hamilton at the gravel pit. On reaching the Red Hill, where the accident took place, Cope found he was unable to control the train after leaving the top of the hill. He was unable to stop the car on reaching the pit, and crashed into another car, which was filled with passengers. Cope sustained injuries which kept him out of work for three months. The H. G. & B. Railway denied the charges of negligence, and said that it was his own negligence that caused the accident. Mr. J. W. Nesbitt, counsel for the H. G. & B., said he considered that Cope had colossal gall in appealing to a jury for damages. Cope should be on trial himself as being the whole cause of the accident, which cost the company in the neighborhood of $20,000. Mr. Lewis, in his address to the jury, argued that the conductor was the one who was responsible for the accident. His Lordship said that the Red Hill was only a two per cent. grade, on which any car might be controlled. Evidence had been given by one of the witnesses to the effect that he had seen Cope and another man in an hotel at Stoney Creek. His Lordship said that while the plaintiff might deny that statement, it was not right to have a drinking man on any car at any time, thus endangering the lives of those who travel. The jury retired at 12.30. The Judge submitted a series of questions to the jury, which after being out about an hour, answered every question in favor of the defendant, holding the plaintiff responsible for the accident. The action was accordingly dismissed, with costs.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET A SCENE OF EXCITEMENT.

Buyers Go Miles Into Country to Meet Loads--Wheat Up to $1.07.

John street south looked like the Chicago grain market this morning, and great excitement prevailed in all the grain offices. Wheat went up to $1.07 and oats were as high as 65c. The grain buyers laid for farmers with loads of grain all the way out on the country roads, and the majority of the grain was sold before it reached the city limits. Barley and rye soared in price also. Barley was as high as 75c, while some dealers claim to have paid higher. Hay and straw are both up in price, but very little is offered for sale, as the winter feeding has started, and the farmers are afraid they will not be able to feed their young cattle over the winter.

WANTS ALIMONY. MR. C. A. BIRGE

Bride of Only Four Weeks is Suing Her Husband. Is the Generous Donor to Victoria University.

This morning the sheriff's officer served an alimony writ on Geo. Hummel, of 38 Chestnut avenue, on behalf of his wife, Mrs. Mary Hummel. The case promises to be one of more than ordinary interest when it goes to trial. To begin with, Mr. and Mrs. Hummel have been married only the short space of four weeks, and in that time Mrs. Hummel alleges that things were pretty interesting. Mr. Hummel is 55 years of age, while Mrs. Hummel is only 50 years old. The husband has been to the hymeneal altar three times, while Mrs. Hummel has been in the matrimonial tangle twice. It seems that everything was to be as merry as a wedding bell, and it was for just one day. The second day after the marriage, Mrs. Hummel alleges, her husband beat her. From that time till now there has been "something doing all the time," in which she generally got the worst of it, she says. She applied to her solicitor, Mr. M. J. O'Reilly, and is asking for interim alimony of $8 a week till the time of trial. Rev. Joseph H. Rylance, D. D., for many years, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in New York, on a "strait" well-known pulpit orator in his day, died in Liverpool, England, on the 24th inst. He was in his 81st year. He was born near Manchester, England.
