seems to be no orders from outside points; any sales made have been only to supply immediate wants. Offerings have been very small and stocks have run very low, but holders are generally steady and not at all inclined to push sales. The day morning was as follows:—Flour, 1,626 bbls; fall wheat, 13,191 bushels; spring wheat, 75,235 bushels; cats, 14,200 bushels; barley, 38,141 bush.; peas, 9,301 bushels; rye, 400; corn, nil bushels, against corresponding date last year: — Flour, 3,164 bbls; fall wheat, 41,042 bushels; spring wheat, 58,658 bushels; oats, 19,150 bushels; barley, 46,696 bushels; peas, 7,633 bushels; rye, nd; corn, 400 bushels. Crop reports seem to agree in saying that a good crop of fall wheat is assured, fourteen days before that can be certain. The late as torm set in on Friday, and seems to have continued until Menday, destroying the last hope of anything like an average crop. The storm is said to have extended all over the British Islands; torrents of rain fell, flooding the streets in Belfast and the lewelying districts in Down and Antrim. In Yorkshire and Derbyshire orops have been ruined, and the agricultural outlook is said to be very serious every of 1d on white and red winter; of 1d on corn and 2d on peas. Trade seems to have been checked during the last couple of days by enhanced pretensions on the part of holders. The feeling in the latter part of last week was rather easy; but the above facts show that this tendency has since been lost. Supplies of foreign grain were tolerably liberal and trade rather less active than in the preceding week. Further cable advices state that during the west ending on the leth lines, the merce of the more animated than at any time since the spring of 1877. The falling off in deliveries of English wheat having once started an upward movement, buyers responded with a readiness which preved that they were fully aware of the exist accord conditions tending to create a rise. Lakes—Receipts have been large and sufficient and prices easier. First-class dressing from 40 lbs. upwards have been lower at from $3.87 to $5.60 in lots, and $3.62 to $3.75 for picked of choice quality. Second-class dressing from 30 to 40 lbs. have usually sold at $3 to $3.25. Third-class consisting chiefly of culls have been allow of sale at about $2.50.

CALVES—The demand has been slack and offerings quite equal to the supply of it; prices have been weak and declining. First-class, dressing from 120 lbs upwards, have declined to $7 to $9. Second-class, dressing from 75 to 110 lbs, have been slow of sale at $4.00 to $6.00 each. Third-class have not been wanted at any price, but hay be quoted at $2 to $5.50.

HIDES, SKINS AND WOOL. TRADE—Fias been generally quiet.

HIDES—Prices have again advanced fifty centsand now stand at $8, but this is due chiefly if not entirely to local competition. Cured have sold to a small extent during the week at $8, but are now held higher.

OALPSKINS—Quiet and unchanged at former prices both for green and cured with receipts decreasing.
PRICE—Remain unchanged at $5c with fair offerings.

LAMBSHINS—Have been abundant and steady at 55c for the best green offering, with receipts on the 50c for the best green offering, with receipts on the increase.

WOOL—The market has been quiet with buyers holding off, and the tendency of prices downwards. Some few small lots of new fleece have sold at 21c; but holders generally refuse to accept this price, and buyers seem to expect a still further decline. There was a lot of about 4,000 lbs of fleece sold today at 21c; a lottor which 23c is said to have been refused some time since.

TALLOW—Rendered has remained easy, being slow of sale and not likely to bring over 5½c. No sales of ear lots reported. Rough is unchanged.

Quotations stand as follows:—No. 1 inspected, choice, $8.00; No. 2 inspected, $7.00; No. 3 inspected, $6.00; Calfskins, green, 13c; Calfskins, cured, 12½ to 14c; calfskins, green, 13c; Calfskins, cured, 12½ to 14c; calfskins, dry, none; pelts, 25 to 35c; Lambskins, 46 to 56; Wool, fleece, 21 to 22c; Wool, pulled super, 20 to 21c; extra super, none; Wool, pickings, 6 to 7c; Tallow, rough, 3½c; rendered, 5½ to 5½c.

ESTABLISHED, 1874.

The success that these Electric Appliances have met with during the last five years, and their standing now in the estimation of all who have used them, is sufficient evidence of the genuineness of the claim put forth for them that they are a great curative agent—one that stands unequalled. They are a pleasant, safe, efficient and durable remedy which no family should be without, for they are good in all affections of the Lungs, Liver, Bladder, Nerves, Kidneys, Bowels, Heart, Stomach, Womb and Blood; also for Sprains, Bruises, Swellings, Tumours, Sleeplessness, Sea Sickness.

DEAR Sirs,—About three years ago I fell from a ladder about twelve feet, across the bannister of the stairs, and was taken up for dead, since which time I have suffered with severe pain in my back and side, and great weakness, unfitting me for business, and got very little ease until I used one of your Electric Belts and a pair of your Insoles, which have relieved me very much.

Yours Truly, Yours Truly,

A NORMAN, Esq.

Velore, Valuehan, Nov. 8th, 1878.

Dear Sir,—I purchased one of your Electric Belts and Insoles last Spring for my daughter, who had been suffering severely with Rheumatism all over her body, her joints used to swell and her heart was affected; the doctors gave her up some years age, for she had been bed over eight years, but think God she is well now. She began to recover gradually after putting on your Belt, and continued steadily to improve, and in four months she was completely recovered. I recommend them to all my friends.

Gratefully yours,

JOHN HARRISON.

THE BATTLE OF ULUNDI

Lord Chelmsford About to Resign Command. London, July 24.— Despatches fr outh Africa show that Sir Garnet W ley ordered Lord Chelmsford to fall h imself is at Port Durnford, in the ne od of General Crealock's comm

When the troops entered Ulundi even thing of value had been removed to a thing of value had been removed to a niraal built by Cetewayo when the war brout, fifteen miles north of Ulundi and proached only through a long narravine. Cetewayo's chief regiments with him as a body guard. Corresp dents at the seat of war, though all aging that the victory over the Zulus decisive, express at the same time s doubts whether King Cetewayo will mediately come to terms.

A Cape Town correspondent says question whether Cetewayo will surren or not is of little importance, as in event of his proving stubborn, the Bri can place his brother Oham, who surr dered some time ago, in possession of and by assuring Oham of some support at the commencement of his restablished a complete bulwark between Cetewayo and the British continuation of the war would be an ous and fruitless task as beyond the country is a wilderness, where the culties of transportation would e anything vet experienced.

The official return of the British los does not include those amongst the nat contingent. The Zulus were compelle pause by the heavy fire when they arrive within sixty vards in sixty yards of the British Eve witnesses differ greatly as to th sistency with which the Zulus ed the attack. This probably from the various positions from the various positions from they witnessed it.

most circumstantial narrative sh that the Zulus came with a magnific rush in dense masses on the rear of square, and seemed determined to square, and seemed determined to to close quarters. Their attack the left flank was not nearly determined, as that was protect by Gatling guns, which the Zulus greatered. Estimates of the Zulus' los vary so greatly as to show they are p guessing. The highest is 1,500. The dewere seen lying thickly all around square. In the pursuit of the flying ene several officers of the Lancers killed for Zulus each.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMEN Proposed Statue to the Prin

The Irish University Bill Carried-Retion of a Home Rule Amendment. LONDON, July 24. - In the House of C

Mr. JENKINS (Liberal) asked if the G ernment, considering their friendly retions with the present Government France, would not prohibit the erection a statue to the late Prince Imperial Westminster Abbey.
Sir STAFFORD NORTHCOTE replied t

the matter rested solely with Dean Staley, The Government attached no polical significance to it.

Mr. Lowther, Chief Secretary Ireland, on moving the second reading the Government's Irish University Eduction bill, said at a subsequent stage ahould move an amendment, imposing upothe Senate of the proposed Universithe duty of submitting to Parliament scheme for promoting education by annual vote to provide exhibitions, prize scholarships, and fellowships, similar those for which, in England, the London University received a grant of some thou Sands yearly.

LATER.—The Irish University bill he passed its second reading.

LONDON, July 25.—Last night's debain the House of Commons on the Iris University Education Bill shows the Go ernment's proposal so to amend the bill a te provide by annual vote for exhibition prizes, scholarships, and fellowships, similar to those of London University, is generally accepted as calculated to lead to member for County Cork, though movin satisfactory that did not provide increased facilities for Collegiate education, made at exceedingly moderate speech, declaring the enly further concession he asked for was the payment of result fees to Catholicolleges on the principle similar to that of the Intermediate Education Act.

Mr. Goschen, the Liberal member of London, pointed out that this statemen reduced the differences between the Iris members and the Government to so small point that he hoped the golden opportunit for settlement would not be lost. On the or settlement would not be lost. On the isposition to assist in that settlement.

Mr. Shaw's amendment was rejected 257 to 90, but it is generally considered is was merely moved as a matter of form. London, July 29.—Much activity is dis played in selecting candidates for Parliament in view of the expected general election, but the most contradictory opinions are expressed as to its imminence. Mr. Chamberlin, Radical member for Birmingham, speaking in that city last evening thought the dissolution would be postupped.

OLDHAM COTTON TRADE.

LONDON, July 25.—An Oldham cor-espondent says it is generally supposed here will be an endeavour after the annual coliday in August to bring the short time and the co-operation of all will be aght. Even the masters admit it would about to seek a remedy for the depression by calling upon the operatives to subte to a further reduction of wages. Publied accounts of the Oldham limited mpanies show that hardly any have the any profit for the last two years, d with some the adverse balance is so any that even with good trade it would be a subtention of the control of the last two plants. eary that even with good trade it would lmost be impossible for them to make any rofit perhaps for years to come.
