B., that out of the wayspot in New Brunswick, on the shores of the great ocean, I saw sights that are calculated to make the soul sick indeed. Here are literally immured a score or more of wretches touched with a foulness, which, for no fault of their own, excludes them forever from the world. It is true they are treated with more consideration than the lepers of Scriptural times who dwelt in the open sepulchres about Jerusalem, subsisting on the fragments that accidental charity dropped on the grounds in the wilderness. There is not heard from them that terrible cry as of a lost soul in the Dantean hell "Unclean! Unclean!" No, the lot of these unfortunates is made
