The University students entertained their friends to an informal dance in the main hall of that institution, Thursday evening, and the young folks present had a very pleasant time. Excellent music was fur nished by Hanlon's orchestra.

The N. B. Telephone Co. have connected Florenceville and Centreville, and express their intention of continuing the line to Hartland, crossing the river to Victoria and thence to Woodstock. They are now connecting Woodstock and Houlton.

A full house greeted the St. Dunstan's amateur dramatic club, Tuesday evening, when they played with remarkable success "More sinned against than sinning," a striking drama from the pen of John L. Carleton, the well known St. John lawyer. The Boys' brigade concert in the city hall, Monday evening, was not largely attended, but it was a pleasing affair. The boys went through the physical drill and fancy marching in fine shape, their singing was fair, and Miss Gilmore's and Mr. Mayes' solos were

During the month ending May 31st, 1894, there was deposited in the Fredericton branch of the government savings bank $14,959, and withdrawn $13,203. The balance due depositors amounts to $599,556, representing about 2400 depositors, the majority of whom are farmers in the vicinity

Over one hundred invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Agnes Wilmot and Dr. Parke next Wednesday. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. E. Dibblee at the Parish church, Oromocto, at 12.30 p.m. The bridesmaids are to be Miss Mina Randolph of Fredericton and Miss Parke of Quebec, and A. B. Wilmot, the bride's brother, will support the bridegroom. Judge Vanwart, on the application of Geo. F. Gregory, has granted an injunction in the suit of Geo. Creighton, v Julius L. Inches, restraining Mr. Inches from erecting a new building on Queen street, immediately adjoining Creighton's wooden building, on the ground that Creighton had previous to 1875 acquired the right to the use of light that the erection of a new building would close up. Mr. Inches will contest the suit. An officer of the R. R.C. I. takes exception to the Farmer's statement that the officers and men of the school do not take sufficient interest in rifle shooting. He says the men are required to fire two hundred rounds each year in target practice, firing at both stationery and movable targets, and adds that one reason why the school does not enter the rifle league matches, is that they consider that crooked work marks

Harry Greenlaw, farmer, of Millville was brought to the city Wednesday night and lodged in jail, having been arrested on the charge of receiving stolen goods from Benj.
