and Unprecedented

the steamer Nord-

STARTS HOME

Treatment That He d in New York. il 14.-Disappointe

Peary refused to the Arctic regions that Director Bumive him his father's on exhibition in the iral History, Mene, who was reported Skimo boy had made me time. The letter "I don't see any ork and I don't want th. I am homesick ofessor Bumpus of that I could bury it led and gun, which I you taught me, was ple are more human am going home. Your dong nothing but

ES FOR JAPAN tor Will Build Boats

the United States. ril 14.-John P. Holange, inventor of sub-ated at his home last n to construct subment two years as refused. The Jand they are to build ad an attack on an can accompany a the ocean and will invention and will battle. The Jap wrote me six weeks accept their offer as better health." ent Makers Strike.

14.-A hundred and of the Western Company went on Immediately they went to the ere a meeting was morning. To date no announcement of gainst the company. is in progress this other factories are

The cause of the d to be the comconduct an open 9

n Armenia. Despatches received Lokal Anzeiger report

SHOCKING MURDER OF DEPUTY WARDEN BY A LIFE CONVICT

Gary R. Barrett Without Known a prime necessity to discipline in an Provocation Takes the Life of Deputy Warden Stedman With an Axe.

PENITENTIARY CARPENTER SHOP

Murderer Sinks Axe Into Skull of His Victim, Who Dies Within a Few Minutes-Head Almost Severed.

Murderer is Man Who Was Convict-Other Convicts Came to Assistance of Officials.

capable prison officials in Canada, now lies cold in death in the hospital convicts, named, Gary R. Barrett, sentenced togy the murder of his stepson at North Battleford, almost half sulted in the commutation of the death sentence to imprisonment for the deputy warden, who was taken the death sentence to imprisonment for been due to hemorrhage. The defence made by the murder ployees of the said companies, as reing covered with blood and the body bloodless, death having apparently been due to hemorrhage. The doctor began his evidence.

I found the body of Deputy Warden
Stedman lying on a cot with his clothing covered with blood and the shooting was accidental bloodless, death having apparently been due to hemorrhage. The doctor began his evidence.

The defence made by the murderer ployees of the said companies, as reing covered with blood and the shooting was accidental bloodless, death having apparently been due to hemorrhage. The doctor began his evidence.

who was still in his office at the front of the main building. In the coward," said Warden McCauley, in meantime two of the convicts picked his evidence, "and I often told the up the dying man and one of the Deputy Warden to look out for that the convicts I were taken to their No Provocation for Deed, life convict. There had been no morning of the 15th on his regular Dr. Hislop on the post-mortem and quarrel with the deputy warden and rounds.

which I had taken from the matron's were all brought from their cells to give their story of the affair.

The only possible explanation for his awful act was a fancied grievance which he had against the deputy warden of the deputy warden were all pooling the beauty warden were all prought from their cells to give their story of the affair.

The only possible explanation for his awful act was a fancied grievance which he had against the deputy warden were warden because he would not let him see the penitentiary physician withsee the penitentiary physician withsee the penitentiary physician with and the converted to the replacement of the triple deed. The blow was struck.

Mould you recognize the axe?" asked the coroner.

"Would you recognize the axe?" was the terriple deed. The blow was struck. and hand to prevent the act.

Witness then gave a detailed degree of the same and the coroner were all brought from their cells to give their story of the affair.

Not one of the four saw Barrett in blow, but all saw him interes' committee met Messays. Stockett of the Operators' Association with the bloody axe in his hand, which he laid on a working table some distance from the matron's were all brought from their cells to give their story of the affair.

Not one of the four saw Barrett the blow, but all saw him immediately attent the bloody axe in his hand, which he laid on a working table some distance from the spot.

"All in the room saw the Deputy warden bears with a working table some distance from the spot.

"All in the room saw the Deputy warden were:

"Would you recognize the axe?" was the reply. "He ladded the word and before any of those standing by could raise any of the series of the first of Hosmer, Whiteside of Coleman, Nasmith of Lethbridge, and Aldridge of Fernie, B. C., April 15.—President minters committee met Menute as wh any of those standing by could raise a hand to prevent the act.

Deceased was an Old Official.

The late Richard Stedman had occupied the position of deputy warden taked for my hand. Then he felt for like with the men by a pla nbefore him on the table.

"I tried to catch the deputy warden of the saylum and previously of the reform, where he was deputy warden of the in the Central prison in Toronto.

He was regarded as a most capable official and the excellent record of and the excellent records of and the excellent records of an and the excellent records of an and the excellent records of an anotal appeal and the excellent records of an a it became apparent that strictness was oner Forin.

institution of this kind. The late deputy resided in the building with his wife, who is prostrated twice. over the affair. He leaves also two sons, one of whom, John, was form-

The Record of the Murderer.

The convict Barrett was sent to lead you to think he was a dangerous HE CLAIMS THAT serve a life sentence for the murder The carpenter shop of Edmonton of his step-son, near Frince have neglected between A quarrel had taken place between Barrett and his wife and the youth stepped in to intervene with the reo'clock. The deputy warden of the institution, Richard H. Stedman, recognized as one of the most of the most in Canada. or other person at his cell Eventuward with a frightful gaping wound ally he received key. Mr. Go.die, and with a frightful gaping wound Anglican clergyman of Prince Albert ally he received Rev. Mr. Goldie, an which was inflicted with an axe in the hands of one of the three life the idea that the step-son's death was convicts, named, Gary R. Barrett, not murder in the first degree that he idea that the step-son's death was a life on the arternoon of the idea that the step-son's death was a life on a contact of his step-son's death was a life on a contact with his clothminister became so impressed with James Biggar on the afternoon of house."

The deputy warden had left the office of Warden McCauley about twenty-five minutes after ten o'clock, for a tour of the buildings. He wenty direct to the carpenter shop, which is in part of a new building recently erected at the rear of the yard. Entering the shop in which were the instructor, A. Pope, and six convicts, who were in the carpenter shop at the carpenter shop at the carpenter shop at the same that the carpenter shop at the carpenter shop at the same that the carpenter shop at the same that the rear of the yard. Entering the shop in which were the instructor, A. Pope, and six convicts, who were in the carpenter shop at the carpenter shop at the head inflicted with an axe in tront of the arctical line drawn in front of the avertical line drawn in front of the avertical line drawn in the head inflicted with an axe in tront of the ear, extending 4.34 inches see a clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman at the viser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman at the same may not be modified or after the same may not be seen a clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman at the same may not be seen a clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman at the same may not be modified or after the same may not be seen a clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman are all the same may not be seen a clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman or other spiritual adviser, but eventually Rev. Mr. Goldie, then Anglican clergyman or other spiritual advis instructor, A. Pope, and six convicts, who were in the carpenter shop at including Barrett, who is known the time of the murderous assault, among the officials as No. 135, engaged showed that there was no provocation further description of Wound.

the unsuspecting man, struck him a fearful blow with the sharp end of the instrument. The axe struck the instrument. The axe struck the back of the head at the base of the which Barrett bore to the Deputy Warden. Evidence was given that the trunk.

Convicts Assist Officials.

The difference was given the upper two inches of the wound the area of depression the which Barrett bore to the Deputy Warden, ball an inch in diameter, having been completely broken loose was drawn down upon the brain substance. On removing the words, "Warden," Stedman sank to the floor. The five other convicts at once came to the assistance of the instructor. When summoned the guard, and then would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the would the area of depression the would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the would not let him see the dector. As far as is known, this is the only possible cause for the malice the would the area of depression. The life convictives always morose and frequently expressed the thought that he had not received a fair trial at Prince Albert. He was not contained and support the upper two inches of the would the area of depression. The world in diameter, half an inch in diameter, to the assistance of the instructor, who summoned the guard, and then hastened to notify Warden McCauley. He seemed to have more of a grudge against his keepers than hastened to notify Warden McCauley.

prisoners tore up his shirt and endeavored to stop the flow of blood.

When the warden reached the spot.

When the warden reached the spot.

E. Goode (foreman), Len. Goodridge, W. Gouin, R. Dewar, J. Dewar and expiring man looked at him with glazed eyes and again mummured "War-led yesterday afternoon and at three den," but could say no more. In a minute or two later, before anything could be done, life was extinct.

The body was at once removed to

According to Wurden McCauley only five on April 15th. It was custine Coroner, exhibiting the axe. there appears to have been absolutely tomary for the deputy warden to visit reason for the awful act of the his department and he did so on the warning or provocation. The murderer, who is about fifty-five years of age, was taken to the penitentiary about a year ago. He has never been about a year ago. He has never been broposition of an agreement, along The deputy warden entered the car- tirety. He had nothing additional a troublesome prisoner, but was con- and was laying down a case chain Eachern, who were in the carpenter proposition of an agreement, along sociation. stantly complaining about his health which I had taken from the matron's shop on the morning of April 15th, the same lines as those of the agreement on April 14th. I had put were all brought from their cells to ment that experience March 31. The largely due to his experience of over a quarter of a century in that line quainted the warden of the facts and of work.

"N telephoned for the doctor."

"None whatever," was the reply. "Any complaining?" "I heard him complain once or

"No not at all.

"Did the actions of No. 135 even Seemed Perfectly Sane. "Did you consider him perfectly "I should think he was perfectly sane; he never acted otherwise.'

"No it belonged to No. 44's desk. Dr. Hislop, sworn, said he held lower jaw, then backwards and erer in charge while he was incarcerownward to the posterior foramen, ated in Prince Albert jail. then backwards to the end of the incision caused by the blow. This line of fracture freed the portion of bone referred to. The incision from the blow severed the internal carotid

"On examining the body, a belladona phaster was found over the point of the left shoulder and on the the hospital ward and Dr. Form, the prison physician, summoned. Barrett was taken to a cell by a guard and locked up and a few minutes later all the convicts I were taken to their the session this morning, the prison physician, summoned. Barrett was taken to a cell by a guard and locked up and a few minutes later all the convicts I were taken to their the convicts I were taken to their the session this morning, and one plaster was found over the middle of the left shoulder and on the middle of the back. The body showed no marks of violence except the wound above described. I am satisfied death was the result of the Instructor Pope's Evidence.

Instructor Pope was the first witness called. He said he generally had 6 to 8 men under his charge, but flict the wound on the body?" asked "Yes, quite easily," was the reply said the witness. "Why not?" gave evidence as to what followed the Spokane tonight.

present whent the deputy warden died and McDougall had spoken to erators decide to meet the scale combine a few minutes before he entered mittee and discuss a new agreement.

Officials Declare That It is Impossible to Keep Them Closed. the carpenter shop. Both witnesses and it is felt that they will not do had been summoned by the word that twice."

"Of what."

"He complained on the morning of April 15 of being tight in the chest. him over to Keeper Cummings, who I told him he was to report himself locked him in the cell.

"District."

shop clause. They have stated their position to the operators, and President of Attorney Jerome, of New York, apposition to the operators, and President of New York, a

EDMONTON BULLETIN, MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1909.

DEED WAS DONE

(Continued from Page One.)

"Where did he put the axe?"
"On the shelf, I think." went in and nursed the boy.
"I sent my own team to Prince Albert for the police and the doctor. and at seven o'clock went on with Barat the back of his head. The blow. Anglican clergyman of Prince Albert. post mortem examination on the body rett's team, leaving neighbors, nam- Co., Ltd., the Leitch Collieries, Ltd. of the deceased in company with Dr. ed Graham and Viggets, at the the Western Canada Collieries, part of the skull it was found the wound completely severed the lateral yesterday when he said:—

sinus and broken free a portion of the skull bone."

"I considered him a low, sneaking to the surface of the mine to the time of return to the surface of the mine, based upon the skull bone." "The line of fracture ran from the warden to look out for that man. apper extremity of the depressed Yesterday a correspondent of the racture about an inch forward and Bulletin interviewed Warden Jones. lownward to the articulation of the of Prince Albert, who had the murd-

"He never showed any sign of wantalways under a guard, but he was day, my instructions prevent anything most surely a brue, though he was

THE MINERS WITH HIM locals. There is a meeting of the association at Macleod Friday aft committing of the crime. Thre were Matters are still where they were had been summoned by the word that the section of the liquor tax there was trouble in the carpenter shop.

Hosmer, B.C., April 15—The miners ask for an agreement similar to that which expired on March 31st with the addition of a closed last, with the addition of a closed these men are subjected. District these men are subjected.

erators' Association. The Miners' Reply. To Lewis Stockett.

President Western Coal Operators' Association, Hosmer, ng to accept the following agreement Athabasca and Rev. J. N. Anderson of baby in the cradle, and Barrett then in order that the mines may resume tween the Western Coal Operators association, consisting of the Pacific Coal Co., Lta., the W. H. McNeill the Hillerest Coal and Coke Co., Ltd. completely unawares, sank to the floor; and in ten minutes was life.

floor; and in ten minutes was life.

That Richard H. Stedman met his death at the Alberta Penitentiary on quietly surrendered, and was locked

Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow on the parties here
Thursday, April 15, 1909, by a blow including Barrett, who is known among the officials as No. 135, ergaged in carpenter work, he leaned over the bench with his back to the convicts to speak to the instructor.

In an instant Barrett had picked up a short carpenter's axe that was lying nearby and advancing a step towards the unsuspecting man, struck him a the unsuspecting man, struck him a doctor. As far as is known, this is > urer District 18, U. M. W. of A. Stockett's Answer.

"Hosmer Mines, B.C., April 15. A. J. Carter, Seev. U.M.W. of A., Fernie, B.C. "Referring to your telegram of to but a completion of the work for 31st, namely, the exclusion of the Macleod agreement, which was rati ied by a referendum vote of your rnoon and if your convention fee isposed to make a settlement upo International Board Member Morgan the lines of my letter and telegram of April 14th, I suggest your telegraph for Interference on His Part—Min- ing me and having your representa-ers and Operators in Same Posi- tives at Macleod Saturday morning ers and Operators in Same Positives at Macleod Saturday morning tion os Before Conference Was with authority to execute the agree Held-Neither Side Will Yield. ment. I make this latter suggestion

Operators Ask for Conference. Fernie, B. C., April 15.—President Lewis Stockett of the Operators' Asso-

Warden McCauley speaks in the highest terms of his late deputy, whom he appreciated more and more as he say the good effects of his meanages only criticism that has ever been offered of his work has been that he was too strict, but as time went on the bear of his work has been that he was too strict, but as time went on the bear of his late deputy, whom he appreciated more and more as he say the good effects of his meanages only criticism that has ever been offered of his work has been that he was too strict, but as time went on made by convict Barrett?" asked Corant Stockett and the other operations was too strict, but as time went on made by convict Barrett?" asked Corant Stockett and the other operations was almost dead. Chief Trade languages we did not want to rouse Barrett to anger, but not in any way of the extenuating circumstances, the sentences were computed to ten years of the extenuating circumstances, the sentences were computed to ten years of the extenuating circumstances, the blow was struck by Barrett.

Inquire for "The Waterloo" from your town agent and if he cannot give the corant structures was oner Foria.

Inquire for "The Waterloo" from your town agent and if he cannot give the corant structures was soner rouse. The discussions at the begining. The discussions at the sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands, but in view sentenced to death for having sure rendered their commands of the extenuation of the extenuation of the extenuation of the committee of the work and the witness

N.Y. SALOONS OPEN SUNDAYS. MURDERED BEFORE THE

Albany, N.Y., April 14 .- Declaring that the section of the liquor tax law prohibiting saloons from opening Winnipeg, April 15-The House Association, Hosmer. day, the principal business being the "Answering your telegram without election of two missionary bishops. Rev. prejudice the United Mine Workers George Holmes former misssionary Bishf America, District No. 18, are wil- op of Moosonee, was elected Bishop of

PAGE THREE

EYES OF 4,000 PEOPLE

Andrea Gambino, an Italian, Who Killed a Man Three Years Ago, Himself Meets a Similar Fate-Murder

Took Place in Broad Daylight on

Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn. sons, one of whom, John, was formered in the fire department, and is now in the R. N. W. M. P. at Regina, and the other, Thomas, who is prother, Harry Steeman, who conducts a birother, Harry Steeman, who conducts a birother of inspector at Ottawa the details of the case and will await instructions as to future appointments, etc. He has, to future appointments, etc. He has to future appointment and will keep to future appointments and thit will be a flew at the future and the working miners and it will be a flick to the deputy was asked. The lim over to Keeper Cummings, who locked him in the cell.

Thinking it over I saw convict. He said he would permit the working miners and it will be a flick to the miners. The limins the cell.

Thinking it over I saw convict to the beguty was the reply. We have to take the would not have the finteral.

What will be done with the mured of Murder of Step-Son at Prince Alberta a Year Ago, and Sentenced to Death, Which Was Subsequently Commuted to Lim
Imprisonment—After Killing Deputy Warden He Surrendered Himself Without a Striggle—
Other Convicts Came to Assist—

The Record of the Murderer.

The sant tools. It was not out of the ordinary for him to have an axe."

The definition of the crime. At 10.25 over the time of the crime. At 10.25 over the convicts of the morning of the crime. At 10.25 over the time finiteral to me this morning to renew negotiations. We beg to inform you that we will be glad to meet you for the purpose of preparing and enacting a clause as a the finite body of her husband, caressing it and crying out: "Andrea come, back to > Calgary Favors Daylight Saving. Calgary, April 14-The question of setting the clocks on an hour will be

EDISON PHONOGRAPH

Come in and hear the new things and get our terms or send for free catalogue. Ours are the lowest possible price in Canada. Same on installment as fo

JAS. J. GOURLAY, 501 Jasper Ave. E., Edmonton, Alta.

DREADNOUGHT

The result-If you purchase your seed supplies from Reliable Seed Houses, who make a business of these lines and who have a Reputation to choice selection of Seed Wheat, English Abundance Oats, Six Rowed Barley and the best sample of Flax ever offered in Alberta. We are, also, in a position to give you the best value on Timothy Seed. Give us a Call at 80 MacDougall Ave., Edmonton.

> Edmonton Seed House POTTER & McDOUGALL

D. R. FRASER & CO., Limited

Lumber Lath Shingles

Doors, windows, and everything in the building line. Our prices are the lowest, and material of the best quality. Call and inspect our stock and get our

D.R. FRASER CO., Ltd.

Yard and Offices 1630.

201 NAMAYO AVENUE Edmonton.

Edmonton, Alta.

Butter Wrappers

Your Butter will bring you a higher price and will also find a ready buyer if properly done up in nicely printed wrappers. We quote the above at the following prices:

1000 Wrappers $2.50 Extra 1000's $1.75

Cash must accompany order. Prompt delivery guaranteed.

THE BULLETIN,

tory for Frank Sherman, who has conducted the whole affair thus far practically along the lines he laid down at the begining. The discussions at the begining. The discussions at the begining. The discussions at leased from the fortress of St. Peter The Waterloo Manufacturing Company