and the second state and the second state of the second state of the second states THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, DECEMBER 13, 1915-8

Nerve Food

Don't Cough Your Throat Sore "Nerviline" Will Cure You Quickly.

The Annovance of a Bad Cough | In rubbing on Nerviline you something safe, reliable, and sure to Soothed Away in One Day.

Nothing so bad for the throat as way it sinks in through the tissuescoughing, and nothing half so annoy- the way it penetrates to the seat of which had only broken their civilian ing as to have some one near by that the congestion is really a wonder. is hacking, sneezing, or constantly For chronic colds, coughs, or sore clearing the throat. Rub on Nerviline-it will save you family remedy. Its name spells cure tured German guns. The crowd all further pain and distress. Even for any sort of pain in the joints or strained to catch sight of the placards one good rub with this soothing, muscles. Try it for rheumatism, rub which told of the manner of their penetrating remedy will bring the it on for sciatica or lumbago, test it capture, yelling itself hoarse at the finest relief, will take out that rasp- out for neuralgia or headache-in heartening sight. Canada led the ing soreness, will stop that irritating every case you'll find amazing vir- Overseas Forces to the skirl of Canatickle that makes you want to cough tue and curative power in Nerviline. dian pipes. Practically every Colony Most families keep the large 50c. so much. Nerviline isn't something new. It bottle always handy on the shelf; has a record of forty years of won- trial size 25c., at all dealers in mediderful success behind it.

LONDON, Nov. 16th, 1915. | comparatively small in bulk. Many manufacturers indeed report a short THE KING'S RECOVERY. age of work for their employees, and Everyone in any way connected as a result contracts recently have with the Court is delighted, not only been tendered for at prices barely as loval subjects but on intimate covering the cost of production in or personal grounds, at the King's reder to keep the factory running and covery. The King is said to have the staff intact. The clothing indusbeen both the best and the worst of try has risen well to . the national patients. He showed admirable couremergency, and is now in the position age and endurance under pain and of waiting for business. On the basis treatment, and was kindness itself to of three million recruits-a generally his nurses, but, on the other hand, his accepted estimate-and allowing only energy made him rather a restless two uniforms and one great coat for patient. It was sometimes difficult each man, this means the handling of to induce him to submit to all the well over 15,000 miles of khaki cloth. care and rest that he required. It In regard to headwear, according to a was said that nothing gave him more cap manufacturer, five millions of the satisfaction than the fact that he re- stiff-fronted Service dress caps have turned from abroad in just the same been supplied, though none of these way as any other wounded or disabled have been ordered for some months; but deliveries of a further half-million (making one and a half million

case. THE HEIR-APPARENT'S ESTATE.

in all) of soft winter caps, with flaps It is understood that the Prince of and chin-strap, are now being made.

Wales, in the course of his latest vis-SCIENTIFIC WARFARE. it to London, made a general survey of the arrangements carried out in his Many unpleasant surprises may ye absence for the administration of his be sprung upon the Germans in the estate. The principles on which the matter of scientific warfare, as pracaffairs of the Duchy of Cornwall are tically every scientific society in being governed have now been estab- Great Britian has now mobilized its lished, and preparations are being members for the purposes of study the front. The idea of a General made for the developments that will and research in connection with probat the end of the war. The Hein Apparent is being relieved as discoveries and inventions have been out in detail all the practical prob- March 3rd for the heavyweight chammuch as possible of administrative made. These of course cannot be detail, and he has given ample powspecified, but in due time their effect in other matters of personal concern. bodies are also, a newspaper corres-elow the muzzles. Behind was earchlight, that, too, mounted on otor and in charge of efficient lookig naval officers. The military side of the pageant was necessarily on a much larger scale. Each of London's regiments sent its detachment, all cure. Its action is marvellous. The fit, fine troops, of whom it was hard to say which were veterans and careers for a few months to rally to the call of King and Empire. With throat ou can't beat this trusty old them rolled a proud collection of capwas represented in the line. Big, broad, smiling men, the Colonials were obviously pleased with the warmth of their reception, none more o than the splendid detachment of legroes from the West Indies, whose presence took the crowd by surprise The Royal Flying Corps was well advertised by an aeroplane, and the emnants of a bomber motor car to give a grim touch to the picture. Like a true artist, the imaginative maker of the pageant left his finest effort to the last. Bringing up the rear of the procession was a Motor Army Engineering Shop in full blast, followed by a varied collection of transport wag-ons, and finally one of London's fa-miliar 'buses disguised in its un-familiar war paint with a full cargo of reinforcements for the firing line, eering Shop in full blast, followed by an aeroplane all wearing sheepskin winter coats and with the muzzles of their rifles bristling above the rail. As the 'bus load disappeared one almost listened thick of the fighting ever since. He for the crack of the musketry, so viv id was the impression.

GENERAL STAFF CHANGES. an auto ccurier on the firing line, and There would seem to be some mis then was assigned to, the Aviation understanding in the statement of a Corps in May last.

London newspaper on November 1st that a new General Staff has been tic achievement was to win from Gun created to supervise the prosecution boat Smith on a foul in London in six of the war. The British army has had rounds on July 16th, 1914.

a General Staff ever since 1906 when Lord Haldane began his reorganisation by creating it, and of course there has been a General Staff (duly ecorded in the Army List) all through the present war. What happened at the beginning of the war ing used for war service in Russia. was that the best officers on the General Staff who had been specially TWO FIGHTS FOR WORLD'S CHAM-PIONSHIPS. trained for that work were sent to New Orleans, Dec. 2.+ Jess Willard Staff is that it is a special depart- will meet Fred. Fulton, of Rochester, lems of war. Already many valuable ment, specially trained for working Minn., in a twenty round bout here on lems of war. Its business is quite pionship.

distinct from that of generalship in Willard signed articles here several ers to his executive staff in this, as in the field will be felt. Scientific the field. It should be as much an weeks ago to meet any white fighter expert department with an expert the promoters might name by Decem-It is pleasant to know that his per- pondent here points out, rendering staff as, for instance, the Post Office ber 10. Efforts were made to arrange sonal health is admirable, and that the Government every assistance in or the railways. The dissipation of an elimination bout between Fulton he has derived full physical benefit carrying out their scheme for from his varied experiences during the past year.

BUSTLING THE BACHELOR.

The publication of the official dewith the Committee of the Privy men do not come forward voluntarily will be to submit (1) proposals for in response to the great recruiting instituting specific researches; (2) proposals for establishing or developappeal before the end of this month compulsory measures will be adopt- ing special institutions for the sciened is not specially a surprise, but to tific study of problems affecting parmany it will be a relief as ending an ticular industries and trades; (3) uncertainty which was painful, and the establishment and award of research studentships and fellowships. even dangerous. It is plainly declared that "whether a man is indis- In this work every scientist in the pensable or not to his business will country is being asked to help. be decided not by the man or his em-

A PAGEANT OF WAR. ployer, but by competent authorities There has been no Lord Mayor's nd tribunals which are being set up consider such cases;" but the ques- Show like that on November 9th in n already is being put, "quis cus- the memory of the oldest . Londoner. et custodes?"-or, in other words, In place of roystering clowns and es this provision apply to the tawdry tableaux we had a pageant of ernment offices?" On the face of war-the most inspiring and stimulangs it does not, for the official ting spectacle that has been seen ment adds: "The instructions since the war began. Even grey skies ich will be issued to the local tri- and a drenching rain hardly lessened als will make adequate provision its effectiveness, and the crowd, far for dealing with special or exception- larger and by reason of the numerous al cases." Are these, however, to be groups of nurses and maimed soldiers only local tribunals, and, if so, before much more interesting than usual, which of them could a Government cheered delightedly, as the Londoner Department be brought? This is not knows how to cheer when he is realan academical, but a very practical, ly moved. The two-mile procession question, for grave dissatisfaction epitomised the Empire. On the naval will be caused if business firms are side there was a strong, steady coldenuded of the services of all their umn of men from H.M.S. Crystal Palyoung men while officials are allow- ace, representative of the men who

ed to go on doing as they please. have immortalised the desert wastes of Gallipoli; a splendid contingent of UNIFORMS FOR RECRUITS.

Royal Marine Artillery in picturesque There seems no fear of any reecruit white helmets, and a sturdy band of in connection with the new scheme Warspite boys telling of the Navy being kept waiting for his uniform, as that will come. But most heartening the War Office is understood to hold and welcome of all from the point of large reserves of the necessary tun- view of the crowd were four motor ics, trousers, great coats and caps. mounted guns of the Naval Anti-Air-Clothing contractors are finding Gov- craft Corps, grim-looking, rakish ernment orders few in number and beauties, with resolute officers seated Does Catarrh Bother You? Are Your Nostrils Stuffed?

Why not give up that snuff and prompt, cure is quick with this pow-stop dosing your stomach? The one erful remedy, which is guaranteed to Guards, the famous corps d'elite that chief of the 1st Prussian Dragoon sure treatment is "Catarrhozone," cure Catarrh in any part of the nose, suffered so severely at our hands in throat, bronchial tubes or lungs. To the fighting round Ypres in November sure to cure because it goes where the be really cured, use only Catarrho- last.

disease really is. Certain to cure in zone and beware of dangerous sub- The Empress of Russia, again, is in your case because it has restored tens stitutes meant to deceive you from nominal command of no fewer than 4 of thousands worse than you are. Ca- genuine Catarrhozone which is sold regiments of cavalry, while most other me is a thorough cure because everywhere, large size contains two European queens and queen-consorts it destroys the causes as well as the months treatment, costs $1.00; small hold similar positions in c effects of the disease. Relief is size 50c.; sample size 25c. 1 with one or more corps.

the personnel of the General Staff at and Frank Moran, but according to organization and development of the beginning of the war and the re- the promoters Moran refused to meet placement of it by men new to Gener- the Minnesota pugilist, and was notiscientific and industrial research. An Advisory Council has just been al Staff work has, I believe, been fied that if he did not agree by Decem appointed-to work in conjunction found a source of weakness, and it is ber 1 to do so the match would be quite likely that the original General given to Fulton. Fulton had previous termination that if young unmarried Council-whose primary functions Staff, or a considerable nucleus of it, ly signed articles, to meet Willard, in will be recalled from the front and the event of Moran refusing the elireinstated. A sign of that was the mination bout.

appointment of Sir, Archibald Mur-Willard's contract calls for $32,000 ray to be head of the General Staff win, lose or draw. Terms arranged about six weeks ago. He is himself with Fulton were not announced. one of the old General Staff, thor-New York, December 2.-Fredi oughly trained and experienced in its Welsh, of England, and Charlie White, work, and it would be natural for him, of Chicago, through their managers as far as he could, to get his old cal- singed an agreement here to-day to leagues and subordinates together meet in a 20-round bout within six again on his Staff. I imagine that it weeks for the lightweight champion must be this process that is describ- ship of the world.

ed as the new General Staff:

FREE TO ALL SUFFERERS these diseases and wondenvul cures effected by THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, Not No.2 N.3 THE REPORT AND A CONTRACT OF THE STATE OF THE STATE

Lady Colonels.

The proposal recently put forward that Princess Mary, who is now officially of "full age," should be made an honoury colonel in the British Army, is a reminder that there are quite a number of Royal lady commanders, develops into the Cough that you are of regiments, each of whom is tech- not able to throw off. a number of Royal lady commanders, of regiments, each of whom is teen hot and to ride at its head of her corps, and to ride at its head of her corps, and to ride at its head of her corps, and to ride at its head upon occasion, should she desire to a few days. This is just where you are making one of the biggest mistakes in your life. Try a bottle of Staf-ford's Phoratone Cough and Cold Cure Thus, Queen Alexandra is colonelin-chief of the 19th Hussars, while the and watch results. Price 25c. Post Princess Royal and Queen Mary hold age 5c. extra. similar honorary commands "in connection with the 7th Dragoon Guards and the 18th Hussars respectively. ment and apply to the chest on a piece of thick flannel. The above are, of course, unpaid, but in the German Army there are no few-er than eight women colonels who Prepared only by draw small swords occasionally, and

Manufacturers of "3 Specialties" Stafford's Liniment. large salaries regularly; and in this connection it may be of interest to note that the late Queen Victoria was, at the time of her death, colonel-in-

of fur.

gowns

GET IN COWS

