* C.L.B. and Star tied for second place, which on a play off, was won by C.L.B. Score 1-0. The following report of the match is taken from the Evening Herald of Sept. 9th, 1897:

Association Football—Final League Match—The Tie Decided—C.L.B. 1 Goal; Star Nil.

Not a League game this season attracted so much attention as did the "tie" for second place which was played off last night on Llewellyn Place. As was expected one of the best matches of the season rewarded the big crowd of spectators who filled the stand and lined the enclosure. The Stars elected to play down grade shot, but the wind in their favor, but the kick off was a foul, which gave the Lads a free kick. The ball did not remain long in the west, but came bounding down toward C.L.B. goal. Herb Hayward being frequently called on to save, which he did in grand form. For a short period of time, the play ranged from end to end, then the Stars pressed hard securing a corner which proved fruitless. Shortly after Jack Cowan, the stalwart Star half back, essayed a lovely drop shot, but Hayward jumped to it and fisted the ball over the cross bar for an other fruitless corner—Then half time.

In the second half, just after the kick off there was quite a hustle on the C.L.B. custodian who saved brilliantly, and after that the game was with the Lads. By clever passing, after several fruitless corners had been conceded them, one was nicely placed across the centre of goal by Peters and headed in by Joe Long, scoring the one and only goal for the evening, and winning the coveted second place and silver medals for the C.L.B.

It was undoubtedly one of the best games for the season and both teams are to be congratulated, for though losers, few teams can put up as good a game as the Star boys and the match was remarkably free of fouls or efforts to injure an opponent. The players were: Star: Goal: P. Gaul; backs, R. Power, R. English; half backs, Collins, J. Cowan, W. Marshall; forwards, Kelly, E. Power, W. Ryan, W. Graham, J. Congdon. C.L.B.: Goal: T. H. Hayward; backs, Franklin, Garland; half backs, C. Peters, C. Waring Hayward, W. R. Warren; forwards, J. Long, A. John Harvey, J. Richards, J. Hussey, R. Wood; Referee: F. Maynard; Linesmen: F. Mews and J. O. Farrel.

NOTES ON THE GAME.

As a goal keeper, Herb Hayward has no superior and many of the League men should take a lesson from him. The "win" was due to him backed up by young Garland (right back) who is a sure kick.

Waring Hayward, Peters and Warren had much work to do in the first half, performing well—notably Hayward, whilst in the front line Joe Long gave a fine display but was not supported as he ought, and the same applies to his wing mate Wood, who got few opportunities to utilize.

For the Stars, Power and English at back were very often called upon but kicked rather wildly last night conceding frequent corners.

Jack Cowan, too, was not up to his usual standard, having started to play with a strained leg. All the forwards played hard, but the fortunes of war were against them, which, however, should not dishearten them. Better luck next time, boys.
