STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, April 20.—Noon.—Feature of the bear work, April 20.—Noon.—Feature of the sales were made at $1 15 per gallon.

H. C. Becher, broker, Bank of Commerce with the sales were made at $1 15 per gallon. H. C. Becher, broker, Bank of Comidvances, presumably on the information that the mayor would sign the Hemstern bill. There was a little more activity in the first hour today than yesterday, but the market is apathetic. The Traction shares have been firm and Metropolitan made a substantial gain in the early dealings. B. R. T. has acted well and Southern Pacific is being liberally tipped for a rise, but the inspira-tion of the builishness on that stock is carefully concealed. Pennsylvania and St. Paul have been steady. The opening market was relatively steady, but heavy. and it eased off in a short time. At the end of the first hour a rally took place, but it was not of particular moment. Traders are inclined to get bearish, but they are not disposed to be aggressive. The announcement of gold engaged had

Mr. Hyslop left London for St Thomas on Tuesday night. From there he went to Detroit in a car with a pacing horse, which had been bought by a man in Northern Michigan. was found lying unconscious and alone in the freight car. The horse was tied and how Hyslop was injured by the animal is unknown. His friends suppose that he was kicked by the Medical aid was summoned, and he was taken to a Detroit hospital, still inconscious. It has not been heard since what his chances are for re Mr. Hyslop's father and wife left for Detroit on the 11 o'clock train this morning, as the telegram urged that his relatives come at once. It is understood that the Detroit police are investigating the matter, as they consider it mysterious.

WOMAN'S PROTEST

"You will have to go somewhere else to be appreciated," answered the magis-

"I don't think some people have high enough minds around here to see right from wrong," was Mrs. Case's final remark.

"Perhaps not," said Mr. Love, who went on to tell the woman that she would have to follow her daughter and leave the city. If she did, sentence would be suspended, but if she failed, more drastic measures would be taken.

Mrs. Hobbs, who was charged with being an inmate of a disorderly house kept by George Mage, was reluctant to kept by George Magee, was reluctant to accept the offer of her husband and go back to be a dutiful wife. He stated that he would do his part, but the woman wanted her children (who are being kept by the Children's Aid Society), than her husband. She was told the alternative would be a term in the Mercer Reformatory, and omplied readily enough. Sentence was uspended, and Mrs. Hobbs went away with her husband. A man who dumped ashes at the foot of Carling street was fined $1.

Western Fair May Get a Lift in Provincial Supplementary Estimates.

When the supplementary estimates of visit has been fairly successful, and the Provincial Legislature are placed on has shown an increased interest in the table of the House, it will be found that they will contain a substantial grant towards the Western Fair—the only exhibition of any importance in the Dominion that has during its long existence been solely self-sustaining. Efforts have been made in the past to have a grant made to the Western, as well as the Toronto and other exhibitions, but for various reasons none of them bore The markets held during the past six days were not as well attended as on the previous week. Consequently the amount of business transacted was not up to the average. The tone of the market was steady to firmer. There was a good demand in all of the lines represented.

Local Interest in the Big Toronto Fire Was Keen

Crowds Read the Bulletins, and of the steamer and equipment on their return trip. The chief and his men left the Telephones Were Kept Busy-Firemen's Regret.

Local interest in the big Toronto fire was very great. In the hotels of this city were many travelers for Toronto wholesale houses, and, with local business men, who dealt with Toronto concerns, they rang up the newspaper offices frequently last night to know what progress the flames were making. The long-distance 'phones and the telegraph offices also did a land office business between here and the Queen City.
