ABSOLUTE

Cenuine

Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

See Pac-Simile Wrapper Below.

CIJRE SICK HEADACHE.

CHAPTER I.

moonlight, for Diana is at the threequarters, and instead of flooding hill and dale, land and stream, just pours down from between her fingers as it turns the earth to fairyland, and makes every tree and bush and twinkling star ing us — or me, at any rate? seem weird and phantasmal.

Just the night for a poet to walk abroad in, and let his soul take wings and soar into the unfathomable; just the night for love and lyrics, for softly uttered vows and hidden embraces: the is full of unseen Cupid, flying up and down, seeking for victims at whom they may let fly the fatal arrow. In this moonlight mist, vague yet not dark, poetical, yet rather dangerous in I give my ears to be in your place!

the way of sore throats and influenza, village of Hampden Powis, wrapped as in a fleecy transparent pall.

and open to the balmy breeze of the south.'

It was like many a hundred other villages in England, pretty, picturesque and most excruciatingly dead and

In the center of the village, just sion-but if you will open any history count of Powis Court than I could before him.

At present there were no Powises at Powis Court, for the simple reason that half of amusement, "Take off those the Powises had long since managed to of all the money and lands they possessed, and if there had been anything else they had owned, they would have got rid of that also. The Powises had a great talent for getting rid of things. On this June night, Powis Court was owned by Mr. Houndell Palmer. The dated from Henry the Eighth; Mr. Palmer's grandfather-but there were people who asserted that he never had one. At any rate, he must have had a father, for it was Mr. Houndell Palmer's father who started the sugar factory, out of which the present owner of the Court had made a fortune large enough to enable him to buy the court and figure as a county "swell." Besides the Court, there was no house of any great importance in Hampden Powis: there was the vicarage, course, and equally of course, the doctor's house. The next in importance to these was Myrtle Cottage. Myrtle Cottage was a pretty little boots. "They are your size; I bought place, a mere box of one story, with them. They are all right. Now, then the lower windows opening on to a what are you going to do now?' for he terrace roofed by a veranda, over which trailed a wild rose that bloomed in the summer, and a jasmine that "I was just going to have a pipe." flowered in the winter.

Myrtle Cottage stood on the very sure not to be a chance all the even of the Court grounds, almost inside the fence indeed, and had once be-

This night in June there were lights in the many windows of the Court, there were lights also in the small windows of Myrtle Cottage, and at the doctor's and the vicarage there were similar evidences of stir and movement, for tonight there was a party at the Court in honor of the coming of queries. and heir, Stancy de Palmer.

Why Stancy and why "de" it would on the inference that Mr. Palmer had, at the birth of his son, chanced to make itopen an old-fashioned novel, and dropping on the name, been so smitten with it as to bestow it on his offspring. It was a very high-sounding name for the son of a sugar baker, but then Mr. Houndell Palmer was rather fond of the high-sounding, and proud of the aristocracy. As he said himself, he was one of "nature's noblemen," and doubtless felt himself justified in be-

It was a quarter to nine, carriages were driving up to the great red brick entrance to the Court, the guests were do. The arriving, much to the delight of a crowd young." of vokels gathered at the gates, when the door of Myrtle Cottage was open- | the reason! It's something to do with ed, and the figure of a young girl the togs!" was a very graceful figure, tall and slim, and girlish and slim, and girlish, and as it stood, with are, Bob! Togs!" the light of the window at its back accentuating its every outline, it would voice. "I suppose it wouldn't run to have made a very pretty picture in black and white, more than pretty,

She stood with one hand raised to her forehead, the other resting on her torted, pushing him before her. "Alice lap, her head thrown back, her left is the eldest, and—and the show one, foot a little advanced; youth, health, and it is all right and proper. and the natural grace of a young sav- you are," and she pushes him into his age in the very attitude. her eyes from the moon, and peering into the misty light, called out

"Bob!" not in the soft, hesitating tone of a boarding-school young lady who has been told that it is vulgar to speak above her breath, but with a clear, resorrant voice, that cleaved the mist and echoed faintly amongst the Court

There was no answer, and with a touch of impatience the girl called out again, "Bob! Bob! Where are you?" This time there came a response.
"Hallo!" shouted a voice from the light mist; and the answering voice was, like the girl's, clear and ringing, but deeper, as a man's should be. 'What's the matter? Is that you,

"Of course it is!" retorted the girl, with a fine disregard of grammar. "Who else should it be? Why on earth don't you come in, instead of dawdling about "Well, I'm coming," is the rather

"Yes, so is next Sunday. Do come on and get dressed. What are you doing there? Do you know what time it to the Windy City nine. Yesterday, the matter with your lungs, Paula."

"My sweet child!"—she is a little more than a year younger than he—this is nothing to the row there will also making a slight gain. By their large making a slight gain. By their large was however, the Pirates have wants the merest breeze to rouse a A lovely night in June; not full storm in the gentle Alice's breast. Come "Wait a minute," he says, with a youth's obstinacy. "I'm getting the St. Loui mud off my boots; that's part of the Detroited were, a soft misty moon-twilight that way to dressing, you know. Why can't old Palmer give a hop without bothercan't Alice go alone?"

"There is nothing more ungrateful on the face of the earth than a boy!" exclaims Paula. "You ought to be very proud, sir-"I dare say!" sarcastically. "Proud! Isn't this the Palmer's swell ball that they've been talking about for the last three months! Isn't half the county going to be there, and-wouldn't And there you stand grumbling as if you were going to-to a missionary meeting! Besides, Alice go alone! As and looking, as most things-from a if she could. Someone must take her, bride in her veil to a bun under green and who has she got to take her but gauze in a pastry cook's window—do you—you ungrateful, sulky—" Then when they are half-concealed—very she burst out laughing. "What will when they are half-concealed—very beautiful.

But even by daylight it was not a bad-looking place. It had, as the proprietor of the academy for young gentlemen said in his advertisement, "every advantage, being sheltered from the north winds by the Wolmshire Hills, and open to the helmy breeze of the You've knocked all the mud off those You've knocked all the mud off those there's Alice's voice" and she runs in shouting as she does so, "All right! Bob's going to dress! He won't be

He follows her into the parlor; it screened by some tall trees, stood Powis | not a dining-room, and drops into a Court; Powis Court was an old man- chair, with a yawn that displays a set of excellent teeth, regular and white of the county of Wolmshire you will as ivory, and threatens, also, to swalfind a more eloquent and graphic ac- low the girl as she stands impatiently

'Now, then," she says, looking down at him with a smile, half of impatience, boots, I've got your things, and"-she rid of it. They had also got rid whisks a dress suit and clean shirt from a chair-"here they are, and very pretty you'll look."
"Very," he says, eyeing the black

"Ah. very like evening suit ruefully. a waiter, or an undertaker anxious for a job. Why on earth can't a fellow go out to spend the evening without making such an idiot of himself? Give them "No, I'll take them up for you," she says, snatching them back. drop half of them on the stairs. There - there are your shoes" and she touches a pair of dancing-pumps with the point of her small foot. He takes them up and stares at them with an air of disgust and con-"I shall never get into these," he of says; "they're a mile too small." "No, they're not! You didn't expect them to look like these-these-cances, did you?" and she kicks the thick he says, rather shamefacedly. "There's impatience, to the end of the room. "Don't I tell you that there time? Alice is nearly dressed already! You are half an hour late as it is. But you are enough to drive a saint wild age of Mr. Houndell Palmer's only son Whever mind what I call 'myself,' she retorts, with a stamp of the foot. "Alice will call us both something if be rather hard to explain, excepting you don't be quick, Now, Bob, to please You know how wretched she'll "All right, very well," he retorted, yielding to the tone of laughing en-"Don't make a fuss. It won't treaty. take me ten minutes.' "Go on then," she says, and she pushes him before her out of

But at the foot of the stairs he turns "I say, Paula, why aren't you going, A faint flush rose to the girl's face stowing the Norman "de" on a nobletoo? and she laughed. "Oh, for a hundred reasons! Two will do. There wasn't room and I'm too Ernest Deihl, Pittsburg's Right

"What rot! Now, look here! I know "What an appallingly vulgar boy you "But it's true, isn't it?" in a lower more than one get up, and, of course

-I say, of course-Alice must have that. room. "I've lit a couple of candles for

Her face, of course, was in the dark: you. Stop! Don't go without your but you will see it directly. She stood thus for a minute, then she lowered the collar as if it were a piece of tape! There, be quick-[To be Continued.]

Turning Gray? Why not have the early, dark, rich color restored? It's easily done with Ayer's Hair Vigor. Ask your own friends. Probably they know how it always restores color. Louis and

OF FIRST PLACE IN TEAM BATTING

League—Pittsburg Pirates Are Coming Up.

For the first time this season, the Boston nine is today out of the top place in the American League race. The slump which the team has been taking of late has more than once threatened it with being ousted from He is a youth of some nineteen sum- by Chicago would place Chicago at the playing a steady game during the past heavily. The figures follow:

ed. Alice has been at it for the last hour, and I've just put the last finishing touches to her war-paint. And here war-paint. And here war-paint. And here war-paint hour, and I've just put the last finishing touches to her war-paint. And here war-paint. And here war-paint hour stond in those heart of the last finishing touches to her war-paint. And here war-paint has been at it for the last finishing touches to her war-paint. And here war-paint has been at it for the last finishing touches to her war-paint. And here war-paint has been at it for the last stepped into third place over the heads of Chicago. you stand, in those horrid farm labor- have a lead which it does not appear er's clothes, with your hands in your possible to overcome, except by a long pockets, as if it didn't matter. But continued slump in their work, which there will be a great row if you keep does not at all seem probable.

her waiting very long; she's not in the

THE AMERICAN best of tempers now-something went wrong with the wreath, and it only Chicago

> THE NATIONAL. Won. Lost New York Chicago Pittsburg THE EASTERN. Won. Lost.

Baltimore

AN UMPIRE GETS ROUGH HANDLING

Is Given a Ducking—Taken Out Half-Strangled.

Washington, Pa., Aug. 4.--At the close of a ball game between local liam Hayes, was seized by members Gallagher, the Canadian pacer, that of both nines and given a ducking in failed to win at Detroit. Gallagher, af-Pike run. The ducking has caused the greatest excitement and numerous suits are threatened. According to the time There was much betting on that Scholes mus players the decisions of Hayes were the race, John M., being the favorite extremely unfair both teams suffering. The game was a close one and interest great, the championship of the towna decision of Hayes, who attempted to he did not run far away from the mark. do under the same circumstances. When "You'll eject several players from the game, He was paced by a runner and his asked yesterday if he would give Greer seized him and carrying him, fighting and the mile in 2:01%. In the 2:13 pace hesitation, that he would not, and that and struggling to Pike run, which the winner turned up in Ecstatic, he had already told him so. along one side of the baseball field, they threw him into the water and held him there for several minutes. Hayes put up a game fight and trot, John Mc., favorite on about even to break records to win all my laurels. succeeded in pulling James Copeland, a player, into the water with him. Several times he was pushed beneath the surface of the water and was against time, and a cup race for trotfinally taken out in a half-strangled ters to wagon, in which Mr. Smathers for the Diamond sculls to win. condition. Hayes attempted to retaliate by throwing stones, but he was held securely and finally taken to his home with an admonition never to umpire a ball game again. He promised that it would be his last offense. BASEBALL HOLDS SWAY. She snatched the pipe out of his hands and threw it, with a laugh of the baseball fever, which raged among T. E. N., b. h. (Moore) A dispatch from the south says: Last the baseball lever, which raged among the negroes of Mississippi, particularly in the Yazoo delta. This craze, it was urged, greatly interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it interfered with the picking of the cotton crop, and an appeal was made to the legislature so to regulate baseball as to prevent it inerfering with cotton picking or cutting down the leaf. $5,000:

This year it is complained that Gallagher, b. g. (James). politics also is seriously handicapped by baseball. In the sixth Mississippi district, where E. J. Bowers, the senior member, and Stone Deavours are campaigning for the Democratic nomination, they have found it almost impossible to get audiences because of the competing baseball games.

PIRATES' RANKS HOW THE C. A.A. U.

Fielder, Has Any Amount of the Long Green.

New Yorkers who attended the game the other day between the Brooklyn and Pittsburg teams were treated to U., and didn't know we were doing an opportunity of seeing the work in any wrong playing against the wicked the field of a millionaire ballplayer. For the past few years it has been the an excuse for you. (An added thought.) custom of major league magnates to Are you paid to play lacrosse? look for recruits in the ranks of the college teams, and both leagues today have well-known collegians playing all know absolutely that you are profesbaseball ranks a millionaire. Ernest Deihl, the millionaire Cincinnati disiller, is the man. He has been playing in Sebring's place at right field and Percentage in the American League.

Statistics compiled up to the close "No; what time is it?" says the voice, nearer now; and the next instant the owner steps on to the veranda.

He is a youth of some nineteen sum—

The Boston and Chicago teams were so the game to close that the loss of the game He is a youth of some nineteen summers, as the novelists say—as if no one lived in the winter!—and a glance would prove him the brother of the girl beside him. There is the same tall, graceful figure, the same supple, self-reliant form, the same proud poise of the head and straightness of limb.

"What a row you do kick up," he by Chicago would place Chicago at the top of the list. And that was exactly make most of its games close, but lack of hitting has kept it from winning many of them. Boston is sixth in hitting, but it has not batted hard, has got its hits when the men were on the bases, and when hits therefore counted large in the scoring, and in the winning of the head and straightness of limb.

"What a row you do kick up," he says, knocking the clean country mud from his thick boots against the edge of the terrace. "Anybody would think but two points to the rear of Chicago. the house was on fire. There's nothing the representatives have been the mean of the mean were counted large in the scoring, and in the winning of games. Chicago, the dangerous club just now, has hit fairly well, and has but two points to the rear of Chicago. The speed of the Sox has made the team's batting count the mean were counted large in the scoring, and in the winning of games. Chicago, the dangerous club just now, has hit fairly well, and has but two points to the rear of Chicago. The speed of the Sox has made the team's batting count provided by the growth of the base, and the second of the C. A. A. U. who attended the counter of the second of the counter of the second of the second of the counter of the base, and in the winning of games. Chicago, the dangerous club just now, has hit fairly well, and has correctly an organization, and had no intention of joining forces with the C. A. A. U. In playing a steady game during the payly. The figures follow:

> Pittsburg team wants my services they allowing Shamrocks to play Brantford, allowing Shamrocks to play Brantford, and Mr. Dickson had expressed the opinion that Capitals should also be at game was amply demonstrated when he displayed his injured ankle, which given them no authority to do so. was easily triple its normal size. Se-bring asserted he would finish the sea-son with either Altoona or Williams-port when his injury would permit his ed in Youngstown last month, when right field.

DEFEATED THE TOURISTS. Strathroy defeated the touring St. Mr. Molson that in view of the state-Thomas Pastimes yesterday by a score ment made by Mr. Brown, the Capital of 19 to 4. The home team's stick- club be suspended pending investiga-

GALLAGHER TOOK

pire State Purse of $5,000 at Buffalo.

The large crowd of Canadians who which, although selling in the field at the start, won two straight heats, Doc- champion. I have gone the limit, and tor H., was the favorite. In the 2:16 intend to remain where I am. I had terms with the field, took two straight I broke the record at Worcester a year heats without much trouble. were several minor features, exhibitions I set up a record at St. Catharines, and

Highwood First race, 2:13 pace; purse $1,000:

Third race, the Empire State; purse Morning Star, b. g. (McDonald)...1
John M., b. g (Speer) ................2 | Red Bird, b. s. (Michael) | 611 8 | Eudora, b. m. (Snow) | 11 10 9 | Strathline, b. g. (Burns) | 4 ds | Bob Hughes, b. s. (Highit) | 8 8 ds | Bob, b. g. (Wilson) | 12 ds | Dry Monople, br. s., formerly Dick | Wilson (Curry) | *9 ds | *Placed on account of accident | Time-2:06¼, 2:04¾, 2:04½.

DOES BUSINESS

Toronto Star: "Stand up, C. L. A. players!" "All right, all right." "Do you receive pay for your services on the lacrosse field?" 'Every Monday morning.' "Shocking, dreadful! Then you must be professionalized. Consider yourselves Tecumsehs. "Ahem, ahem! Poor fellows, there's positions. But it has been left for sionals. You will be suspended pending the national pennant, to enroll in the an investigation—with the whitewash Adjournment for drinks at the Windthier, is the man. He has been playing in Sebring's place at right field and will likely finish the season with the Pirates. Deihl, while playing with the Pirates. Deihl, while playing with the Pirates. Deihl, while playing with the Pittsburgs, does not care about signing a contract. He feels that owing to his business interests he could not at this business interests he could not at the medicine that never falls to effect a ford to tie himself up with a contract. He is in the game for pastime and is a reliable and heady player. Side some discussions of the pastime and is a side and heady player. Side some discussions of the pastime and is a reliable and heady player. Side some discussions of the pastime and is a side and heady player. Side some discussions of the pastime and is a side of the pastime and it is a sid

"We are the Capitals of the N. A. L.

Iron Mit Professionalizes C. L. A. Teams.

Montreal, Aug. 5. - The governors of the eastern trip, including the games of the C. A. A. U. held an important of Saturday, show that Detroit is sev- meeting here Wednesday night, under enth in team batting in the American the presidency of Mr. Ayling, to take League, only Washington having a action regarding the western lacrosse lower percentage, and that the club teams. It will be remembered that at leads in team fielding with Chicago and a previous meeting of the C. A. A. U. Boston close behind. The fielding fig- members of a club in the C. L. A. were view of this it was decided by the governors of the C. A. A. U. to profession-953 alize the senior clubs of the C. L. A. clubs so professionalized Brantford, Tecumseh, Chippewa, Orillia, Fergus and St. Catharines.

The status of the Capital lacrosse A motion was then presented by Mr return to the game.

It has been no secret with those on the "inside" that Sebring and the club management have been on the outs for some time. The trouble started in an exhibition game which the Pirates played in Youngstown last month when previous to the Toronto conference. previous to the Toronto conference Wagner, who was in charge of the club Mr. Foran had made the public statethat day, charged Sebring with having ment Mr. Thiney withdrew as seconder loafed while going after a ball hit into for their services. In view of this statement Mr. Trihey withdrew as seconder of the motion, which thus fell to the ground, and a motion made by

tion, was adopted. SCHOLES THROUGH WITH SCULLING

Decisions Were Poor and He Canadian Horse Captured Em- Champion's Answer to Empty Boasts of Frank Greer, Who Says He Is Afraid.

A special to a Canadian attended at Kenilworth Park, Buffalo, change from St. Louis states that the were elated over the victory in the Em- most regrettable fact about the Canavalued at $5,000, of dian Henley, which commences on Fri ter finishing seventh in the first heat, sculls, has refused to compete in the went out and took the last two heats, singles. And Frank Greer, of Boston, which were done in remarkably low that Scholes must row him or admit It is true that Scholes will not be at the start. Another feature of the afternoon was the special against time row. The reason given for this is that by Prince Alert. The great pacer was he could not get in condition for scullship being at stake. A protest was driven by Jack Curry in the effort to ing. This is only reasonable, and is just made in the seventh inning against reach two minutes, and while he failed what any other man in his place would whereupon members of the two nines time by quarters follows: 30½, 1:01, 1:30 a race, Scholes said, without the least

"I have finished sculling,' said the There ago when I won the senior association. this season I had to break the record finished first in two heats, with his Ida think that I have done my share. Green was not so anxious to meet me last those that wanted to see me stay out Batteries—Hahn and Schlel; Corridon of the senior singles after I had won and Roth. Umpires, Zimmer and Moran. the association. "Will you defend the sculls at Henley next year?" was asked.

"No," was the answer. "I have won all that any oarsman can win, and am satisfied. Besides that, I will not have Attendance, 2,591. the time in the future that I have had in the past." BASEBALL.

THE VETERANS WON OUT. An exciting game of baseball was played on the St. John's A. C. grounds last evening, between the London West 'Vets" and the West London Grays, resulting in favor of the former by score of 7 to 5. The features of the game were the Star pitching of Mc-Causland, allowing the Grays but one Batteries—Weimer and Kling; McGin-hit, and the one-hand catch of Jones, nity and Warner. Umpires, Emslie and of the Vets. Batteries-McCausland and, Daniels; Clarke and Jeffries.

Lands Event on an American Track-Day's Scores in Big Leagues.

Dover, N. H., Aug. 4. - Favorites showed in front in every race today at the Granite State Park light har-at the Granite State Park light har-at St. Louis-St. Louis-Philadelphia ness races. The Canadian mare, Liz- game postponed; rain zie McChord, won the 2:17 pace in straight heats. Before the last heat of Buffalo .............000102000-3 this race was started Art Boy reared Montreal up and then dropped to the track dead. Shaw: McCarthy and McManus. At Heart trouble was the cause. The tendance, 2,100. Umpire, Egan, gelding was owned and driven by Wm. At Newark (first game)-ued at $2,500. Summaries: 2:22 pace, purse $500-Fussy won in straight heats. 2:12 trot, purse $500-El Milargo won in straight heats. 2:17 pace, purse $500-Lizzie McChord

PUT UNDER BAN WOODS' FAIR.

Chicago Now Leads American Washington Alone Has a Lower That Saucy C. A. A. U. of the New Dinner Sets

AT SPECIAL REDUCED PRICES THIS WEEK.

100 more new Dinner Sets, just received, very fine goods, assorted patterns, all the newest designs, bought from the best English manufacturers. We are direct importers and can therefore offer you these goods much less than you can buy them elsewhere. On sale in the Fruit Jars In buying here you get no damaged Jars. All Jars are delivered in perfect condition.

VISIT OUR BASEMENT

for Graniteware, Tinware, Brooms, Brushes, Sponges, Glassware, and all kinds of Tableware. Special values just now in Heavy White Iron-

The Balance of Our Screen Doors Reduced to Clear.

******************

Fuel economy is an important feature in a range. Almost as important as good cooking facilities. Every housewife wants to do good cooking but she doesn't want it to cost her too much in fuel. The good cooking qualities are enhanced by its great fuel economy. The big scuttle of coal of other style ranges is replaced in Imperial Oxford homes by a smaller scuttle less often used.

Imperial Oxford Range

The fire-box is evenly proportioned to the size of the oven, so there is no more fire needed than the size of range demands -no waste heat. The arrangement of flues and drafts concentrate the heat in the stove - it doesn't lose itself up the chimney.

The Gurney Foundry CO. Limited

Toronto Montreal Winnipeg Vancouver

FOR SALE BY GURNEY OXFORD STOVE STORE W. C. WOOD, Manager, 382 Richmond Street.

At Chicago-St. Dennis, 13 to 2; Dalyay, 9 to 20; John Smulski, 15 to 1: Huzzah, 9 to 5; Irene Lindsey, 11 to Girdles, 12 to 1; Almadupour, 6 to 5. At St. Louis-R. Q. Smith. 8 to 1; Fruit, 7 to 1; Howling, Dervish, 4 to 1: Red Leaf. 10 to 2: Little Corker, 8 to to 1; Jim Along, 20 to 1.

THE WOODBINE MEET. Toronto, Aug. 4. - Secretary W. P. Fraser, of the Ontario Jockey Club, stated today that the report in New There will be only seven days' racing, years in California, the date being from Saturday, Sept 17, to Saturday, Sept. 24, in-

The stake books have already been received. The stakes close feature of the meeting will be the Ontario Jockey Club cup handicap for 3-year-olds and up, with $1,500 at the two miles and a sixteenth. This is a sixteenth of a mile longer than usual. The Toronto Autumn cup will be 114 miles, with $1,000 added. BASEBALL. IN THE NATIONAL. At Brooklyn-Pittsburg ........000011020-4 6 2 Batteries-Garvin and Ritter; Leever and Carrisch. Umpire, Carpenter. Attendance, 2,400. At Philadelphia (first game)-

> Batteries—Ewing and Schlei; Suthoff and Dooin. Umpires, Zimmer and Moran. At Boston (first game)-Batteries-Willis and Moran; Taylor and McLean. Umpire, Johnstone. At Boston (second game)-

..210000001-4 7 1

At Philadelphia (second game)-

Cincinnati ......... 0 1 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0

Philadelphia

000000000000 er and Needham. Umpire, Johnstone Chicago ... New York,

At New York (second game)- $\begin{array}{c} \dots \dots 00000000000000 5 \\ \dots \dots 2000010* -3 5 \end{array}$ Chicago .... New York... Batteries—Brown and O'Neill; Taylor nd Bowerman. Umpires, Emslie and and Bowerman. O'Day. Attendance, 12,993. IN THE AMERICAN. At Chicago-

Washington Batteries-Smith and McFarland; Pat-At Detroit-..020040000-6 11 Kleinow. Umpires Dwyer and King. Attendance, 2,000

Batteries-Donohue and Buelow: Gibson IN THE EASTERN. Montreal-

Batteries-Wolfe and Shea; Amole and Toft. Umpire, Haskell, Batteries—Burke and Lynch; Viau and Thomas. Umpire, Haskell.

to 2; King B., 15 to 1; Lou Woods. Toronto ............200010301-780 Batteries—Fertsch and Nichols; Applegate and Rai Conahan, Attendance, 547 RING.

McCOY MAY MEET MONROE. Chicago, Aug. 4. - Kid McCoy was Salt Lake City, and gave out the information that he may fight Jack Monroe at the latter place If the Monroe-Jeffries bout falls through, arrangements have been made to put McCoy against the miner in the Utah town, Monroe's manager having made the provisional McCoy says that he will contract.

Los Angeles from Salt Lake, tended to thirteen days, is incorrect, and that he will spend the next two MONROE'S CASH IS UP. San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4. - Harry Pollok, representing the Monroe end of the coming fistic squabble with Champion Jeffries, has posted $2,500, comon Wednesday, the 17th inst. The big pleting his portion of the agreed forfeit of $5,000, Harry Corbett will place once to get the other half of the for-

be no obstacle in the way of the match, which is now slated for either Aug. 26

When that is done there need

**** COWAN'S

feit.

COCOA. CHOCOLATE, CAKE ICINGS, CREAM BARS. CHOCOLATE WAFERS. ETC., ETC.,

Are the PUREST and FINEST goods.

THE COWAN CO.

Limited, TORONTO.

*****

The candy man who puts gluce and terra alba in his goods instead of sugar, tells you he can give you more for your money, and that it is "just as good" Is it? The provision man who makes his butter with an admixture of oleomargarine tells you he can give you more for your money, a that it is "just as good." Is it?

sulphite instead of all rags, tells you it is "just as good."

Is "just as good" printing good enough for you. or do you want the kind which is well made, the cost of which is made up of good paper, good ink and good presswork-the sort that commands attention? It is hardly necessary to add that you need our

Advertiser Job

Phone One-Seven-Five.