Coverpoint's Philosophy

Some millionaire in Seattle wants to have J. Johnson and J. Jeffries fight aboard a steamer for $100,000. This would have been a merry spot for a bout with T. Sharkey, the rough sea dog, as one of the principals. J. J. will probably prefer the land.

T. Burns wants Arnet, the champion sculler, to become a pugilist, as he stands over six feet, weighs 210 pounds, and is a regular demerol athlete. We cannot quite get it from here, but the financial nexus looks pretty strong.

My, what lovely weather for baseball and all the nice summer sports! Somebody has sure got the seasons mixed.

J. Johnson, the Senegambian, is reported to have taken out himself a wife in England, one of the dear little bachelors who have been in the news. He states that Shirub will be in good shape in two weeks and will beat the Redskin to death. As the Indian shows no sign of behaving or doing anything, in fact, it is to be hoped that the Britisher beats his head off, so that he will be chased back to the reservation, to be heard of no more.

There is probably no truth in the story that Alie Shirub is suffering from the foot and mouth disease. Had it happened a month or so ago, there might have been suspicions.

Glad Graney, the St. Thomas pitcher, who was with the Cleveland team, has been sold to the Portland, Ore. team, and will play in the west the coming season.

With the frost of last evening, we are sure the strawberry crop has been frost-killed, and the peach crop is ruined. Then there is the curling game, that is ruined beyond question.

The Detroit Americans have got rid of a pitcher named Cross, fearing that perhaps he would give them a pain this summer.

Bookmakers have been sent to jail in New Orleans. We remember the day when only young men who took money to give the bookmakers were sent down, but somehow the thing has changed somewhat.

This hockey business has not got far enough into the series so that we could do up where the possible winners might be. Nor has there been any scandal about which to talk. It's something here.

With all this trouble about Longboat, it is not likely that T. Flanagan or any other promoter will grab up these aboriginal wonders, which seem to be as common as hares in St. Petersburg.

We do not like to be unkind, but there seems to be more opinion about the exact condition of Shirub and Longboat than on any similar event for years. Every man contradicts the other. It is a good thing that it cannot last forever.

We have all along claimed there would come a time when Tom Longboat would rue the day he quit the friendly roof of his former boss, Master Flanagan, and that moment has just about made its appearance. Like other redskins, Longboat does not relish being spoken to harshly, and to be made to do something against his will is an abomination to the flesh.

Consequently, he rebels at being made to step to town and take the word of command from Pat Powers. For ye gentleman who know not the little round magnate must know he would rather die than be made to fold from any philanthropic purpose.

A Wise Mother's Story

LET ALL MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS READ CAREFULLY AND PROFIT BY IT.

"I am convinced," writes Mrs. A. B. Hopeford, from St. John, "that a majority of young girls who die of consumption do so because their mothers neglected their health at the critical time when carefulness insures vigor and sound health. If a girl's health is neglected from her eleventh to sixteenth year her body will be weak and she becomes a ready victim of typhoid, pneumonia and in many cases, consumption. In her sixteenth year my youngest daughter showed signs of falling strength. Some dyspeptic troubles developed, her heart became weak and palpitation frightened her dreadfully. She was irregular in the important bodily functions and rapid loss in weight and a ruddy complexion pointed to a rapid decline.

"She disliked making her troubles known to our doctor, a feeling I felt I should respect, and so by good fortune I was led to use Ferronze with most gratifying results. My neighbor next door, Mrs. Woods, had found Ferronze so good for nervousness that she persuaded me that it would restore Flossie's health, and from the time the second box was commenced her improvement was constant. She is now a big, strong girl, ruddy and plump, able to study hard and to take her share of household duties. I am an earnest advocate of Ferronze. We all use it now as a tonic, as it is certainly woman's best friend."

All dealers sell Ferronze, 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50; procure a supply today.

Pat Powers signed up Longboat because he thought it would add to the already big bank account of P. Powers, Esq. And so, quite rightly, he demands a run for his money. This, however, is not to the liking of Longboat, who has fast developed the proud spirit of a Pullman porter. Flanagan asked, more than demanded, things of the Indian, and got what he wanted. With Powers, matters are reversed.

Say what you may, Tom Longboat would be glad to return to Flanagan, and if he could break his contract, probably would—you may take this as a certainty. In the meantime someone is at the east of the Onondaga, whispering words of near wisdom, as they did prior to the Indian quitting the Flanagan hearthstone.

Longboat has not run his race against Shirub, and there's many a slip 'twixt the redskin and the tan-bark. Powers will find out there is quite a difference between bossing a lot of six-day bicycle riders and making an Onondaga Indian do what he doesn't wish to, especially if the latter has ever hit the high spots of town life.—Toronto Telegram.

LAST NIGHT'S HOCKEY SCORES

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Berlin once more struck into their stride by defeating the hitherto invincible Brantfordites here tonight by a score of 16 to 4. The game was Berlin's all the way, Brantford being distinctly outclassed.

There were several changes in Berlin's line-up. Gross took Rowley Young's place at cover, Schmidt going to left in place of Lewis.

Dubeau played a wonderful game, the whole game, too, was good, considering the heavy condition of the ice.

Throop had his ankle badly gashed by a skate and had to retire at the end of the first half. The second half was played with six men a side.

There were a number of penalties handed out by Referee Layden, chiefly for tripping. The teams were: Berlin—Latham, goal; Dubeau, point; Gross, cover; Seibert, rover; Edmunds, centre; Schmidt, left; Dumart, rover; Brantford—Mead, goal; Sanford, point; McDonald, cover; Ward, rover; Smith, centre; Throop, left; Mercer, rover.

Referee—Layden.

Paris Defeated. Paris, Jan. 26.—Shimco proved too much for the Paris Intermediates in the game played here tonight, when the home team were defeated by a score of 13 goals to 7.

Can't Finish Season. Toronto, Jan. 26.—The O. A. C. team has been playing in the Intermediate O. H. A. have notified the secretary of the O. H. A. that they will be unable to finish the season. The O. A. C. team has not been particularly successful this year and this fact probably accounts for their action.

A Close Game. Toronto, Jan. 26.—A close game was played here tonight between the Toronto Rowing Club and the Parkdale Club, in which the former won out by a score of 6 goals to 5.

Hanover Wins. Hanover, Jan. 26.—The Northern Hockey League game played here tonight between Hanover and Mildmay resulted in a decisive victory for the home team by a score of 10 to 2.

Tie Game Play-Off. Brantford, Jan. 26.—To decide the tie game between Brantford and Galt played in the early part of the season, it has been decided to play home and home games, at Brantford on Thursday, and at Galt on the following Tuesday. The victory will be decided on the majority of goals scored in the two games.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—The defaulting of Guelph and St. Catharines has necessitated the drawing up of a new schedule, and the Ontario Professional Hockey League will meet at Galt tomorrow for this purpose.

The Wanderers, Cobalt and Renfrew have written Toronto asking for exhibition games, and it is likely that they will be accommodated.

TONIGHT'S HOCKEY
DECLARED OFF

The game between the London and Ingersoll intermediates, which was to have been played at the Princess Rink tonight, has had to be withdrawn. The ice is not in a fit condition to allow of good hockey, and the management wants to give both teams a chance to play the game, and the spectators an opportunity to witness a good brand of hockey.

The game will be played some time next week instead.

BARRACKS BOYS
TO PLAY HAMILTON

The report that the basketball team from Walsley Barracks were going to Hamilton this week to play the champions of that city is creating not a little interest here. The soldier boys play great basketball. For three years they have won the championship of the Military League, and are now owners of the trophy. Their play is characterized by a dash and brilliancy that is refreshing. There is little here to test their real merit. If they are in good form on Saturday night, as it is expected they will be, they should give the Ambitious City team a great battle for honors. Scott Gilmore is in charge of the boys, and he reports them in great shape. They have carefully trained for this event, and it would not be at all surprising if they came through with a win. They deserve it.

LONGBOAT NOT UP TO THE MARKFlanagan Says Shirub Ought
To Win on February 5th.

Toronto, Jan. 27.—Tom Flanagan returned this morning from New York. Tom says that Alf Shirub will greatly benefit by his enforced rest. He was practically all in, and would never have gone the distance at the kind of clip that Alf Shirub forces. He was overtrained, and would undoubtedly have collapsed if carried along. The little Englishman is in deadly earnest in this running game. It is his business, and he takes it seriously.

As a result, he was all but broken down, as Tom stated, and his sore toe probably saved him from being forced to quit in the race.

Too Will Help. Tom says that Shirub's sore toe will force him to rest and keep away from all worries and troubles incident to training. He worked too hard, and worried worse, with the result as stated. Now that his foot positively refuses to let him do anything but rest for a few days, it may, and probably does mean, that he will modify his work for the race on Feb. 5.

"Shirub, carried along at any pace, or even let go at his own stride, would without question have collapsed, had he run tonight. Shirub, with two weeks' rest, ought to build up sufficiently to win.

"If the great little runner had trained as he had always done he would have done much better."

Longboat Not at Best. While Flanagan does not care to say anything about Longboat and his condition, one can gather between his speeches that the Indian has not been doing his best, and that there is something wrong down there in the Indian camp—but there is always something wrong wherever the redskin camps.

He acknowledged that Longboat and his wife wanted to get back under his management, but that that was out of the question. Pat Powers was looking after him and the Indian had made his own choice.

Something Wrong. Though he does not say so, it is gathered from Flanagan's conversation with the Indian that will make him a losing proposition on Feb. 5. What it is must be left for the wise ones to guess. At any rate, Flanagan goes this far that he expresses it as his opinion that Shirub will win on that date. It appears that Longboat has made his stay in New York a thing of joy rather than one of strenuous work, though Tom doesn't say so in as many words.

Longboat is billed to run a three-cornered race at Chicago on Feb. 17, with Doran and John. The Indian has expressed his willingness to take part, and the deal is now on.

TILBURY TOWN OPENS
NEW BOWLING ALLEY

Tilbury, Jan. 26.—A large crowd gathered at Laplante's new bowling alleys when the alleys were formally opened last night. There was a large crowd in attendance, and the citizens' band contributed music during the evening. The opening game on the alleys was a match between the O. H. team and the Town team, when the latter won by 57 pins. E. Argue, of the O. H. team, carried off the high individual score with 236, and high aggregate with 581.

After the game the players and a number of prominent citizens were given an oyster supper at Laplante's restaurant parlor.

The scores for the evening were as follows:

ELBERFELD WILL AGAIN
PLAY WITH YANKEES

New York, Jan. 27.—Norman Elberfeld, former manager of the Yankees, will undoubtedly play on the Hilltop this year. The announcement was made by Manager George T. Stallings yesterday afternoon, on his return from Georgia. Stallings will remain in New York for a week or ten days, during which time he will decide on the return to Journey south. Some 30 men, at least, will be taken to the cotton belt. This means that about a score will have to be looted from the list. Stallings will immediately get busy on the contracts, which will be mailed out this week.

RECEIVED ORAL BET

New York Court of Appeals Dismisses Charge Against Collins.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Without passing on the constitutionality of the anti-race track gambling laws, the court of appeals today dismissed the appeal in the case of the people against Melville Collins, who was arrested on a charge of receiving $5 as an oral bet on a horse race at Gravesend race track last summer.

BIG "JIM JEFF"
TALKING FIGHTBig Purse Offered for Bout
Begins To Look Good to Former Champion.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—Jeffries will fight Jack Johnson at the end of his theatrical tour of the country, unless the big fellow changes his mind, which is not probable. Ralph Pincus, the manager of his theatrical interests, is responsible for the statement.

"Jeffries has told me he would take on Johnson if he could get into condition," said Pincus today. "He has said this trip will put him into condition if anything will, and he thinks, like everybody else, he is getting better every day. Next week he will get down to real hard work. Every week he will increase his work until he becomes hardened. He has told me of his intentions often, and each time he is more eager to get back. I am certain when this theatrical engagement is ended Jeffries will climb back into the ring and wind up his public career by whipping Johnson."

If Jeff has made up his mind to come back there is little chance of his changing plans. He is as stubborn as mule, and those who knew him thought his retirement would be forever. But now that he has begun to talk of getting back, he will be just as stubbornly inclined the other way.

Jeffries has no great sum of money saved. In fact, it is said he has little more than when he went into the ring for the first time. He has been talking over prospects of the big house the Jeffries-Johnson match would draw, and money looks better to him every day. Besides, he is angued at the negro holding the title, and he is just as certain he can whip Johnson now as he was when he offered to fight him in a cellar here.

SOX SELL "SCHRECK"

Chicago's Substitute Catcher Goes to Columbus, Ohio.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—"Ossie" Schreckengost, substitute catcher for the Chicago American League team, was sold yesterday to the Columbus, Ohio, team of the American Association. Schreck was formerly with the Philadelphia team of the American League.

CHAMPION JOHNSON
WEDS A BARMAID

And Buys a Residence for Her Near the English Capital.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Tom Cahill, the St. Louis soccer football promoter, has just returned from abroad, where he went to sign an English team for an American tour, says he can throw some light on the plans of Jack Johnson, world's champion pugilist.

According to Cahill, Johnson has married an English barmaid, and ordered the purchase of a fine residence near London, in which he intends to live with her when he returns to England to fight Langford. Cahill says Johnson has no intention to return to the United States, which seems convincing from the fact that Johnson's wife is in this country only this week had her suit against him for non-support in court.

This case was set for trial before Johnson went to England, and when he failed to show up she asked that he be declared a fugitive from justice.

WEATHER WRECKS
O. H. A. SCHEDULE

The persistent mild weather is causing endless inconvenience in the O. H. A. and other hockey circles. There are still a large number of games to be played in the first round, while it is time that the second round was starting. This will necessitate a good deal of crowding when the cold weather comes to the list of games that have had to be postponed to await more favorable weather. The intermediate return game with Paris was off on that account, and now the game with Ingersoll, which was scheduled for tonight, has had to be called off also. In the junior schedule the long-looked-for game with Stratford, which was billed for last Monday, had to be withdrawn, to be played this Friday, but unless the weather changes more than a little it will be impossible to play the game, even then. The protracted mild weather has left several holes in the ice, and it will take some fairly cold weather to put it in good shape again.

COBALT TRIMS
THE WANDERERSThe World's Champions Lose an Exhibition Game in the Wilds.

Cobalt, Jan. 27.—Before a crowd of over three thousand spectators in Cobalt's new rink last night the Cobalters trimmed the Wanderers by a score of 6 to 4.

The game was by far the fastest witnessed this season, and was a series of clean combination and individual rushes throughout. Very little roughness was resorted to, but what did take place did not escape Referee R. A. Lockery, of Cobalt.

For mixing it up, Harry Smith, of Wanderers, was penalized, as was Fred Toms, of Cobalt. The latter's brother, "Chas," was the only player who was marked, he being hit in the mouth in the first and second halves. In the first half he was laid off for some time, and Smith, of the Wanderers, went off to even up.

Good Work of Forwards. To sum up from a spectator's point of view, if the Wanderers took it any way easy in the first half with Tommy Hare's aggregation, and many of the onlookers who paid the average price of $1.50 to see the game think they did, they learned in the second half that they did too much fooling.

They found Ryan a formidable defence man. Jones was too much between the sticks for the Wanderers' terrific "wrists," and the last half all the Cobalt forwards to a man were brilliant.

Clark Scores Twice. After seventeen minutes of play Gardner, of the Wanderers, scored. Chad Toms two minutes afterwards put one in past Harn after a hot scrimmage in front of the Wanderers' goal. A few minutes before half-time Clark, for long shot, put Cobalt one in the lead. Seven minutes of play elapsed, when Ross, of the Wanderers, in the spectacular rush of the evening, took the puck the length of the ice, evening up for the Wanderers.

Referee—R. A. Lockery, of Cobalt.

BOXER JIMMY BRITT
GIVES PINK TEAS

London, Jan. 27.—Jimmy Britt is butting in the English society. The Beau Brummel Native Son has set a new fashion among the craft of prize-ring artists. Every afternoon at Wembley, where Jeems is training for his Washington's birthday tilt with Johnny Summers, he gives a pink tea to his English admirers. But he will go this one better the Sunday before the fight.

A ladies' day attraction is the scheme. No gentlemen will be admitted unless accompanied by a lady. James will cavort about for a couple of hours through his indoor stunts, and will then act as host at a big dinner to his guests. He has made all arrangements for a band and vaudeville talent as side attractions.

Britt's new scheme is a winner from the standpoint of gaining publicity. His admirers have tripled since he inaugurated the teas. Whether they go out to see Jimmy or get in on the feast the Native Son has been unable to determine.

It has saved many lives that otherwise would have yielded to consumption... we keep Scott's Emulsion in the house all the time and all the family use it."—MR. C. J. BUDLONG, Box 158, Washington, R. HORSEMEN SECURE
LAND IN MEXICORacing Interests Lease 250 Acres
Just Across Line, Near Tia Juana.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 27.—Real estate men today confirmed the report that certain racing interests have leased 250 acres of land just across the Mexican line, near Tia Juana. They refused, however, to disclose the names of the purchasers.

The race track interests feeling sure that the Legislature will pass the anti-racing bill are taking time by the forelock in leasing the property. Plans have been drawn for stables, and a clubhouse, where, it is said, all kinds of gambling games will be run.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 26.—The racing at Emeryville Tuesday was marked by several close finishes. In the two-year-old event Rezon and Penn fought it out in the last sixteenth, the former getting the decision by a nose. No rain fell, but the track was muddy.
