SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

QUOITING, BOXING,
FOOTBALL, GOLF, CRICKETJENNINGS' TIGERS
INCREASE LEADTake Opening Game From Washington, With Killian in the Box.

Detroit, Sept. 28.—Against the Tigers won, adding materially to their lead, with Cleveland standing still and Chicago, fighting a tie with Boston. Continuing their fast, sure play, the champions defeated Washington 4 to 1. A double-header was scheduled, but owing to the rain and the bitter cold wind but one was attempted.

This victory gives the Tigers the same number of games to play as the two rivals. All three now have eight contests remaining. The Tigers have out to win as many games as their two opponents to win the flag.

Today, barring rain, will probably be the biggest game of the American League. The Tigers play a double-header with the Senators and Cleveland takes on Philadelphia for two, while Chicago does the same with Boston.

Jennings sent Killian to the mound yesterday and the southpaw got away well. He was given the fastest of support, Jerry Downs and Bush especially starting in the fielding line, while Schmidt put up an article of catching that showed him to be still working at his best.

Tom Hughes was Cantillon's offering. Tom put up a good game, but found the Tigers in no mood to be trifled with. They bunched their hits well, showed their fastest speed again on the bases, and for the most part let their hits go for extra bags. Bush got on twice and was scored twice, once by Crawford's double and again by Rossman's single. Downs was the star of the day at bat, scoring Schaefer after the German had doubled and sending in Schmidt with a double after Charlie had tripped.

Several times it looked as though Washington would get to Killian, but the southpaw always managed to pull himself out of the hole. They got but five hits off him, and but once did they get more than one in an inning. That was when Hughes singled and Unglaub doubled.

Fans Turn Out.
Cantillon used Deleahanty at second, out Del did nothing startling. He had Unglaub at third and the former Boston first sacker played a star game. He looks like a valuable man as a third sacker.

Despite the cold, which made one think far more of football than the national pastime, a little over 2,000 of the faithful were out to cheer the Tigers on. While they lacked in numbers they made up in enthusiasm, trying to keep themselves warm. Despite the cold the game was fast and clean.

Detroit took the lead when Bush walked. He worked the hit and run play with Crawford and was at second when Sam nailed the ball to left. As he kept right on going at top speed he scored on the Wahoo man's two-bagger. In the next inning Schaefer slapped one to center to open the inning. Schmidt sacrificed and Downs hit cleanly to left for a base, sending Herman home.

Fast Base Work.
In the fourth, Schaefer, with two out, sent a bouncer to Hughes and stole second. Schmidt walked. Charlie led off first and Hughes threw to nail him, while Schaefer stole third. They kept right at it. Schmidt again led off first for a double steal. Hughes took Street's throw and returned the ball to the catcher in time to nail Herman trying to score. He was out, but it showed the way the Tigers are trying.

In the sixth the visitors made their only score. Hughes singled, Edmundson fouled out to Schmidt, but Gaffney walked. Unglaub hit to left for two sacks and Hughes scored, while Gaffney made third. Then Killian fanned Deleahanty and Clymer popped to Downs.

They did not trouble the Tigers southpaw for the rest of the day.

Add to Lead.
In their half of the sixth the Tigers added their third score. Bush hit cleanly over Deleahanty's head, and made third when Crawford and Cobb grounded out. Rossman scratched hit to second and Bush made the plate. Their fourth and last run came when Schmidt tripled to right in the next round and scored on Downs' two-base drive to left.

Today's double-header will start at 1:30. Jennings will use Summers and Willett. Summers will most likely go in against Walter Johnson.

BATTLE TEN LONG INNINGS TO TIEWhite Sox and Boston Unable to Decide Game Before Darkness.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Chicago and Boston played 10 long innings to a 2 to 2 tie, the game being called on account of darkness. Chicago took the lead in the opening inning, but Boston came back in the fourth and tied it, and forged ahead again in the seventh, only to be overtaken by the locals in their half. Vice-President Candidate Sherman occupied a box at the game. Score:

SNAPSHOTS AT SPORT

Matty Mathewson wants to pitch six of the seven remaining games with the Phillies. The Tigers would be glad to let him do it. His effectiveness would be spoiled for the big show.

Tommy Burns, our own Thomas, is being voted the man whom the French woman would prefer to be loved by, in a contest being carried on by a Parisian newspaper. He Thomas.

Rube Marquard, who threw $11,000 worth of disappointment into John McGraw the other day, will get a slice of the world's series money if the Giants come through. Rube is there with the commercial viewpoint.

Ed Geers, the great reinsman, has not had a good season, but he threatens to close it with a blaze of glory. The Harvester is a great trotter and looks good to pull down some of the future.

T. Burns is going to retire when he has whipped Jack Johnson. Thomas is wise to the idea that he is getting down the line to the has-been class.

The Toronto Telegram and the Toronto News are having an awful time settling the race question. Honors are easy but the Telegram has the idea. Somebody is going to queer the racing game in Canada pretty soon, and unless something is done quickly there will be trouble.

The Cleveland team is showing one of those great spurts that make it a most dangerous point. The idea of Louis out of it. Detroit will have to beat that team and the Sox to a pulp to come through.

The Tigers are now in the lead and going strong. Looks like some chance for the Tigers yet.
