C. RAMSAY TO COMMAND

New Body Will Be Known As Canadian Overseas Railway Construction Corps.

The Federal Government recently, in response to the suggestion of the impertal authorities, asked Sir Thoma. Shaughnessy if he would organize and recruit a railway construction corps of five hundred officers and men for immediate service overseas. Sir Thomas, who has aided the imperial cause both by voice and action, responded to the invitation; and after prelimi-naries had been disposed of a plan was formed by which men would be recrufted, not only from the C. P. service itself, but from the general body of citizens. That is to say-the invitation will be made to suitable men in the service; but all others butside the service who present themselves, and who so for the duration of the war; and tion Co will have to perform all the duties of a colonel. field engineering corps, which duties may possibly bring them close to, if not at the firing line.
