ASKED TO ADDRESS
TORONTO "U" CLASS

London and Other Mothers' Allowance Investigators Honored.

Mrs. R. M. Graham, mothers' allowance investigator for London and London district, had the honor, while in Toronto attending the conference of investigators of the province, of being asked to speak on the subject of the work to the class in child welfare in connection with the social service department of the university. Two other investigators, Miss Kennedy, who has the wide and difficult district surrounding Fort William and Port Arthur, and Miss Abernathy of Kingston, were also chosen to give addresses to the class on the same day by Rev. Peter Bryce, chairman of the mothers' allowance commission for the province, who, as secretary of the Child Welfare Council of Ontario, is conducting the course of child welfare lectures in the University of Toronto.

Mrs. Graham had returned home, filled with greater enthusiasm than ever for her work, under the able assistance of the mothers' allowance investigators, and the service which the commission is rendering.

"As investigators, the seventeen of us who were down for the conference, realized more than ever what a splendid commission we have administering mothers' allowances in this province. The commission as a whole is so sane, far-seeing and sympathetic, as well as just, weighing the smallest circumstance carefully before making final decision. We have seen them confronted by problems to which there seemed no solution. But they deliberated until they found a way, the best way for all concerned."

"Rev. Mr. Bryce and the men and women associated with him are possessed of great heart as well as great ability. Miss Barty and I, coming from London, feel especially proud of Major T. J. Murphy, a most popular member of the commission. It was a great inspiration to hear of the wonderful work that is being done throughout the province, the most remote corners, through the mothers' allowance, to learn of the many families that are kept together who would otherwise be separated, the chance children are receiving, and the relief that has come to mothers bowed down by an intolerable load of responsibility and anxiety."

Home-made, but Has No
Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really effective, and safe, and pleasant to take. Prepared, and sold at 25¢.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with a soreness, throat, tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with a cough, and you want quick help try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any drug-store can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle to the top with granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes 16 ounces of Pinex, which is a really remarkable remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief. You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds. There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for 2½ ounces of Pinex with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

New Spring Hats in Taffeta

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Very small and very bright as to color are the taffeta hats shown for spring.

Brilliant things they are—with, usually, a bit of embroidery, a coquettish pompadour, saucy tassel or an ornament thrust through the crown on one side. Like this Ponch hat, silken headwear very often takes the form of a tam-o'-shanter. The one shown is of light green, embroidered in black silk, shot with silver.

STICK TO YOUR JOB
WE'LL FEEL EFFECTS

Buenos Ayres Speaker Tells London W. C. T. U. Workers.

"We have a wonderful country in the Argentine, but no Christ; a wonderful people in the Argentine, but they have no Christ. That is what is the matter with South America," was the statement made by Prof. Daisy Hudson of Buenos Ayres on Tuesday afternoon, as the summing up of her challenging address delivered in Dundas Center Methodist Church under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and women's missionary organizations of the city.

Daughter of the pioneer woman missionary sent out to South America by the Methodist Church in the United States, and a college professor in Buenos Ayres, formerly the editor of the Methodist organ in the Argentine, Prof. Hudson was born in the capital of the Argentine, educated in the state college, and has been engaged in teaching and a vision of the old-fashioned sense of duty and attention-compelling speaker, it was a colorful, vivid and gripping picture which she presented of the home country she loves, a country of great beauty and culture, a country of appalling vice.

Her plea to Christian Canadians was two-fold. "Send us missionaries to convert our people, convert them to Christ, and then we will have a higher criticism, new thought and theosophy in South America. What we need is missionaries who believe in the Bible from cover to cover, to give us the redeeming Christ, who alone can save people from their sins."

Stick to Your Job. Addressing herself especially to the W. C. T. U. workers, she urged in the second place: "Stick to your own job here of promoting temperance, social purity and good citizenship, and we'll feel the effect down in the Argentine, just as we already have felt the effect of the campaign for years past against the liquor traffic. I am asking you to clean up things in your own country, but for the sake of the whole world. When you get done with your own country, you can't rest satisfied with what you have done. You can't be safe, and your sons and daughters can't be safe until there is worldwide prohibition, world-wide striving for social purity, and good citizenship."

CASSEROLE DISHES

CASSEROLE dishes have a distinct appeal in that they may be served in the same dish in which they were cooked, thereby saving dish washing. There is less waste to foods cooked in a casserole and if the entire meal is carefully planned the food will be used to heat the oven may also cook the dessert.

Hot Pot of Hodge Podge.

One and one-half pounds neck or loin of mutton, 5 potatoes, 1 large onion, 2 tablespoons parsley, salt and pepper. Peel, wash, peel and slice potatoes. Peel and slice onion. Melt fat in frying pan and fry the onion a pale straw color. Remove from fat and lightly brown the potatoes. Remove potatoes and put a layer in casserole.

Trim meat and cut in pieces convenient for serving. Fry a light brown on both sides in the bacon fat. Put a layer of meat on the potatoes, season with salt, pepper and parsley and sprinkle with onions. Add another layer of potatoes and continue layer for layer until all is used.

Add 1 cup boiling water, cover closely and cook two hours in a moderate oven.

Casserole of Veal.

One pound lean veal, ¼ pound of smoked ham, 1 tablespoon bacon fat, 16 tiny onions, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon celery salt, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 3 cups diced potatoes, 3 tablespoons flour. Trim off any fat from the ham and fry out in frying pan. Cut ham in match-like strips and brown in the fat. Mix salt and flour. Cut veal in dice and roll in flour. Brown quickly on all sides in the bacon fat.

Brown the onions in the fat. Put meat, onions, potato cubes in casserole. Put tomatoes, water and celery salt and pepper in the frying pan and bring to the boiling point. Pour this over mixture in casserole.

Cover and cook an hour and one-half in a moderate oven.

Pork Chops and Apples.

Sprinkle pork chops with salt and pepper. Pare and core apples and cut in rings. Put a layer of apples in a lightly buttered casserole, sprinkle very lightly with light brown sugar and a dash of powdered cloves. Add ½ teaspoon minced onion and a layer of pork chops.

Continue layer for layer until the sufficient number of chops are used. The last layer should be of apples. Add just enough water to prevent burning before the juice is drawn out of the apples. Cover tightly and cook in a moderate oven for an hour and a half. Remove cover and lightly brown the top.

Wants Halloween to Write.

Dear Miss Grey,—I wrote to your cozy corner some time ago. I saw in today's paper where Farmer's Son wanted the words of "Let the Rest of the World Go By." I have copied the words for him, and one extra copy for the Mail-Box. If Halloween sees my letter in print, will she kindly write, as I haven't heard from her for a long time?

Miss Grey, have you got the words of "Go Feather Your Nest?" If so, will you please send it to me? I will leave my address with you.

COUNTRY LASS NO. 5.

Thank you, Country Lass, for filling Farmer's Son's request, also for sending us an extra copy. Maybe you owe Halloween a letter. Do you? I am sorry, but I haven't a copy of the words you ask for, but will keep your name on file in case someone sends them in for you.

MISS PUSS NO. 2'S REQUEST.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am a new-comer to the Mail-Box. I came for help. I would like very much to get a book with dialogues and a recitation book. Thank you in advance, MISS PUSS NO. 2. I have placed your name and address in file, Miss Puss, and if the books are sent in for you I shall be pleased to forward them to you.

SAYS SHE KNOWS CYNTHIA GREY.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have come to warm my toes again, as it is cold up here in "The Great North." I wrote to you some time ago and asked for a correspondent. Got my wish. I think it's great to write to a girl you never met.

Oh! Say, Miss Grey, I have a sister who knew you. She knew you when you were in Regina and since coming to London. What do you know about that? She told me all about you, but I won't
