METHODIST CONFERENCE NAMES DISTRICT HEADS

Last Session of London Conference Concluded
Yesterday.

WILL RAISE $20,000

United Campaign Will Be Held in 1926 To Aid
New Church.

With the election of chairmen for 11 districts, the final work of the London Methodist conference was completed Tuesday afternoon. Many pastors will at once prepare to move to new charges assigned to them by the conference, for, by ruling, all moving pastors must take over their new duties on June 28.

The chairmen elected to the districts were: St. Thomas, Rev. Robert Hicks; Ridgetown, Rev. A. E. Doan; Chatham, Rev. A. E. Jones; Windsor, Rev. (Capt.) John Garbutt; Sarnia, Rev. C. E. Cragg; Stratford, Rev. S. J. Thompson; Exeter, Rev. G. W. Rivers; Goderich, Rev. C. F. Clarke; Wingham, Rev. Dr. G. N. Hazen; Stratford, Rev. W. L. Hiles; London, Rev. A. E. M. Thomson.

The conference closed with a brief message from Rev. A. E. M. Thomson, president, who voiced the hope that the Methodist church would carry into the United church its splendid evangelism and its high ideals of citizenship. He thought the last Methodist conference had been a most successful one from every viewpoint, and especially from the spiritual. The messages of Rev. Dr. C. L. Goodell of New York had inspired the conference, Mr. Thomson was certain.

The conference went on record as favoring a united campaign next year to raise $20,000 in this conference towards the general fund of the United church.

The allocation by districts follows: London, $4,200; Stratford, $2,200; Wingham, $1,300; Exeter, $1,250; Goderich, $1,250; Stratford, $950; Sarnia, $1,050; Windsor, $3,100; Chatham, $1,675; Ridgetown, $825; St. Thomas, $2,200.

The total amount required of the Methodist church is $150,000, of which London conference agrees to accept $20,000. Rev. W. L. Hiles was named secretary of the educational committee at its meeting, and J. W. Hedley chairman. The matter was discussed with conference a few days ago by Rev. Dr. J. W. Graham of the church's educational department at Toronto.

Rev. D. N. McCamus, who has been

REV. ROBERT MARTIN, D.D., for twenty years minister of Knox Presbyterian church, Stratford, who was made pastor of First Methodist church, St. Thomas, by the London conference. He resigned at Stratford when Knox church voted against union.

Wheeler Calls New Beer Fraud

Says Plan Is To Destroy Prohibition.

Associated Press Despatch.

Washington, May 26.—Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the anti-alcohol league, who has just returned from Toronto today, denounced Ontario's 44 per cent beer as a "fraud." He said it is about 2.5 per cent by volume and 2 per cent by weight alcoholic content.

He declared the plan is "to destroy prohibition entirely by getting the weaker beer first, and then securing the real stuff."

acting as chairman of committee for the matter, read a lengthy special message which is to be given from all Methodist pulpits on June 7, the Sunday before union is consummated. With deep feeling, Mr. McCamus read the resolution and called upon the Methodists, while sorrowing to lose their church, to look to the great new United church with optimism. "Let us cease to look on each other as Methodists, Presbyterians, or Congregationalists; let us be one in Jesus Christ, the object of our journey being one."

DR. BICE MENTIONED AS LIBERAL NOMINEE

Delaware Physician Is Well Known and Popular in West Middlesex.

A large number of candidates are available for the Liberal nomination in West Middlesex, for the coming federal election. The convention will be held in Stratford on June 3. Among the most likely of the candidates is Dr. James G. Bice, of Delaware. Dr. Bice has always been active in the Liberal interests. Having an extensive medical practice, he has gained a real knowledge of the people of his community, and would make a fitting representative for them in the House of Commons. Dr. Bice was born and raised in Windsor, May 26.—Believed to have become intoxicated while visiting blind pigs in search of evidence, Arthur Coughlin, 28, one of the special officers recently detailed from the license department at Toronto to aid in the enforcement of the liquor laws in Windsor, was arrested late tonight by Patrolman Arthur Thompson, and charged with being drunk while driving an automobile. His companion, Arthur Gillis, 20, also a special officer, was taken to headquarters on a formal drunk charge. According to police, Coughlin drove the automobile along Wyandotte street, at a furious rate of speed before being overtaken by Thompson on his motorcycle. Police state the men carried credentials to prove their identity. Both gave their local address as 31 London street west, and stated they arrived in Windsor a few days ago to secure evidence against blind pig owners. Gillis owns the car, police state.
