MRS. MOCKLER INTERRED IN ST. PETER'S CEMETERY

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Mockler, who died in St. Joseph's hospital on 8:30, from the residence of her son-in-law, Frederick Allen, 396 Glebe street, to St. Mary's church, where a requiem high mass was sung at 10 o'clock by Monsignor M. J. Brady. Interment was made in St. Peter's cemetery, Rev. Father Chisholm conducting the service at the grave.

The parables suggested types of people, the "found and lost," asserted Mr. Hunter. Two persons may be found under the same roof, one may be lost, and the other found. One is experiencing fellowship with God and is happy in it, while the other knows no such joy. He is lost so far as God, or his religious life is concerned. These two types will be found in the next world, in eternity the preacher believed.

It is pointed out that the fact that the grounds could certainly stand many more benches than are used at present and that it has been suggested that planned benches could be placed against suitable buildings as the Crystal Palace, Horticultural Building and Manufacturers' building with the wall used as backs for the benches. This would involve very little expense outside of the cost of the planks and

OLD BOYS ON COAST STRONG FOR REUNION

Plans for London's centennial next summer are going on apace in far distant parts, the mayor related this morning.

tended by 40 former residents of this city, who all declared that they were coming back home next summer. "You can expect us all," writes Mr. Gilbert. "We hear that it will be the biggest and best celebration ever held in the old home town and we will all be there if we have to walk."

Following high mass celebrated by the parish priest, Rev. E. L. Tierney Bishop Fallon confirmed a class of 34 children and five adult converts at St. Michael's church, North London, on Sunday morning.

The names of the children who were confirmed at this, the largest class in the history of the parish, and the first in two years, are as follows: Edward Lynes Dennis, Stillwell

Edward Lyness, 2332 E. 12th St.,
Francis Donnelly, John Donnelly,
James Stillwell, John Traher, Wilfred Traher, Eugene Traher, Michael Rehder, Frederick Garfat, John Mc-Guire, Joseph Traher, Lawrence
Griffin, Rita Knuckle, Mildred Cooke, Caroline Perfect, Phyllis Irvine.

"Our profound political differences tended to develop situations domestic and personal that caused both of us intense suffering and made a continued truce impossible.

"A year ago last summer I asked Mr. Stokes to free me, and I had made several similar requests during the several years preceding that

The eight members present were the president, Rev. A. Burgess, Rev. A. E. M. Thomson, Rev. W. E. Smith, Rev. H. J. Uhren, Rev. Dr. G. N. Hazen, Rev. J. W. Hibbert, Rev. R. J. Murphy, and Rev. W. M. McDonald.

The third Monday of every month at 10:30 a.m. was the unanimous choice of the members as the time for the meeting of the alliance. The executive are trying to secure the Canadian novelist, Ralph Connor (Rev. C. W. Gordon), as the speaker at their next meeting which will be

E. S. LITTLE APPEALS ON HIS GOOD RECORD

Mr. Little also dealt with Mr. Meighen's proposed duty on coal, showing that it would increase the high cost of fuel, which in an ordinary man's salary or wage is already a very large item. The average home used about six or seven tons, and the urgent if government business in this city was to be properly handled. There were so many offices in the postoffice and customs in London that he thought the saving of having them all in one building would go a long way to pay the cost of the new structure. "I am not telling you

"Another thing we must have in this country is a scheme of old age pensions, and I am prepared, when I go to Ottawa, to support such a system. The dole system is all wrong and it should be part of the government.

SILKS FOR NEW YORK.

Hon. Charles S. Hyman will be one of the speakers at a meeting to be held in St. Marys Friday in the interests of Major Fred Sanderson.

The deceased was a married man. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mary, Phyllis and Eutha, all at home. Mr. Collyer was a foreman at Greene-Swift, manufacturing clothiers, and was a member of Clinton Lodge, I. O. O. F., and attended Wesley United church. He was 46 years of age.

ALFRED HERTEL SUED BY TEASDALL ESTATE

The defendant does not deny that such an agreement was made, but alleges that he was induced to enter into it by fraud and misrepresentation. At the time he contracted to purchase the stock, the company was in a condition of bankruptcy, he claims. Certain obligations of the company, which would render insolvency inevitable, were kept from his knowledge and he, therefore, asserts that he is under no obligation to perform his part of the agreement.

Winnett, Moorehead & Neely for the plaintiffs; Menzies & Cluff for the defendant.

An important assemblage of artists, lithographers, advertising men, manufacturers and distribution experts will mark the 35th annual convenexhibit which is being planned in connection with the convention is a huge exhibit showing poster advertising done by newspapers all over the country, together with facts concerning co-operative campaigns conducted by newspapers and poster companies for civic and welfare development. It is expected that some plan will be fashioned which will enable these two important factors in community education to cooperate more closely and effectively.
