The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

This wonderful instrument brings the world of music into your home; re-created by the world's greatest artist. No matter where you live, your children can have the same musical advantages as though living in the great cities during the height of the musical season.

The New Edison does not merely imitate. It re-creates. No human ear can distinguish artist from phonograph. The famous Edison tone tests have proved this, not once, but more than 1500 times.

Start the Children's musical education to-day, by bringing them here, and letting us play a program of charming music that will be as enjoyable for you as it will be delightful for the little ones.

pagne, qui d'habitude employait des centaines d'hommes pendant l'été a depuis de la pres de 4 ou cinq ans fermé les portes de ses scieries, et le bois de la petite Rivière Cascapédia est transporté, comme celui de la Rivière Bonaventure, à Bathurst, dans la Province du Nouveau Brunswick, pour y être manufacturé.

Considérant qu'à Shoolbred, dans le dit Comté, nous avons la PQ Lumber Co., successeurs de Messieurs Donat & Miland, dont nous avons eu si longtemps à déplorer l'inactivité. Depuis deux ou trois ans seulement cette Compagnie est installée à Shoolbred, on exploite les limites de la Rivière Shoolbred; en hiver on emploie un bon nombre de gens, mais en été, comme aux autres places on est obligé de chaumer. La dite Compagnie est à bâtir une scierie à Dainhouse, dans la Province de Nouveau Brunswick, et on est à faire les préparatifs pour transporter le bois dans cette Province;

Considérant qu'il résulte de tout ceci, que notre principal industrie qui est appelée à faire prospérer la Partie Est de la Province de Québec, est sur le seuil de la ruine;

Considérant que sous l'état actuel des choses, outre les salaires qu'on payerait à nos journaliers, nos marchands sont, par ces faits, considérablement atteints, nos municipalités qui tiraient un bon revenu de ces compagnies, se voient privées des impôts que reçoit une autre Province; nos journaliers qui n'ont de l'ouvrage qu'en hiver sont privés du salaire nécessaire pour donner aux enfants l'instruction si enviable chez nous; on est privé du nécessaire et on voit même la misère sur le seuil des braves familles, espérant que cette anomalie des choses va disparaître, et dans cette vaine attente on puise les emmises au fait que nos revenus sont enlevés par une autre Province, qui, en nous enlevant nos industries, nous ôte aussi notre marché.

Considérant que le cultivateur du Comté de Bonaventure possède de bonnes terres fertiles, cependant il devra les négliger, et pour cette raison que pour vendre son produit, il lui faut donner son profit pour le transporter au Nouveau Brunswick;

Considérant que si dans la Province de Québec en général, et dans le Comté de Bonaventure en particulier, on gardait nos industries, si après avoir passé un grand hiver dans les chantiers nos journaliers pourraient

You Can Buy Quality Shoes at Fair Prices

EVEN today—when the cost of every item in the make-up of a shoe is far above the normal—you can get satisfactory shoes at fair prices if you will buy prudently. The service you get for your money will largely depend upon your own wisdom and foresight when buying.

As Canada's largest manufacturers of shoes, we ask you to buy prudently, to practise true economy, to avoid extravagance.

There are three things you should do:

First: Buy for service rather than merely for appearance.

Second: Go to a reputable dealer and benefit by his knowledge and experience.

Third: Look for the manufacturer's trade-mark on the shoes you buy.

If you will do these things, we can assure you of the best possible value for your money.

A. H. M. War-Time Selections offer special value for men, women and children. Ask your dealer for them.

Qu'a ces fins le dit Conseil du Comté nomme trois Délégués d'entre ses membres pour procéder à Québec, en compagnie avec le membre local de l'Assemblée Législative, pour mémorialiser et attirer l'attention des autorités du Gouvernement Provinciale à l'égard de ce Conseil de Comté pour l'état anormal de l'industrie du bois dans le Comté de Bonaventure, et mentionner;

ROY HAD SPIRIT OF HIS RACE

How the Captain's Boy, Mackinnon, of the Cameronia Helped to Allay Panic.

In the report of the torpedoing of the Anchor liner Cameronia with troops in the Mediterranean last summer, mention was made of the splendid conduct of the captain's boy Mackinnon. This youngster was on the bridge with the captain when the ship was struck, and he did much to allay the excitement by shouting through the megaphone to the troops, "keep your heads, men. Dinna get excited. It's a' right. Nae hurry," and so on. The sight of the small boy with a megaphone as big as himself advising the soldiers to keep cool made many laugh and quieted many nerves. The boy did many other things, and at the end the captain found he had disobeyed orders and was still on the bridge when everyone else had left the ship. When the captain told him to "clear out," he said, "I'll no go till you go, sir." The captain then caught him by the coat and slung him overboard into the destroyer before jumping himself. An eyewitness on the destroyer described seeing the captain and the boy on the bridge of the sinking ship. I hear now that Mackinnon went down in the Tuscania. Probably he beached there as he did on the Cameronia, and the death he just missed in the Mediterranean came to him off the Scottish coast. In the list of heroes of our mercantile marine there ought to be a place for this gallant wee Glasgow lad.—London Correspondence of the Manchester Guardian.

ONLY MADE MATTERS WORSE

Small Girl's Efforts to "Fudge" on Unfortunate Remark Could Not Be Called Successful.

A number of women were discussing Liberty bonds one afternoon in a neighbor's house. Almost unnoticed a little neighbor girl had entered. At this point in the discussion she exclaimed: "Well, my aunt says she might just as well buy a Liberty bond as to be taxed."

Her remark caused a good bit of comment. One guest, who has a son in the service, became very indignant, and exclaimed:

"The ideal. Buying a bond to escape taxation! That's patriotism for you! That makes me tired—anybody as able as she is to buy bonds, or anything."

With that last remark the speaker "flew" out of the house.

The little girl, beholding the strife and bad feeling she had stirred up, tried to "fudge" on her remark, explaining that it wasn't her aunt who made the remark, but some other woman. The neighbor women held her to her first remark, and were making it pretty "warm" for the little girl, when she finally burst out with:

"Well, you don't know how much it costs my aunt to live; and how much it costs her to take that trip to Niagara Falls!"

The laugh with which the women greeted this innocent remark was sufficient to send the loyal and innocent girl running from the room. Truly her "lines" had not fallen in pleasant places" that afternoon.

Luxury Market Hard Hit

"Don't try to sell luxuries in New Zealand." This is the advice United States Consul General Winslow gives American merchants in a commerce report.

No. New Zealand is not pinched for money. Its wallet is well filled. "There is no particular necessity for retrenchment," as the consul puts it, but the public is opposed to the purchase of luxuries, especially luxuries that have to be imported, thereby using tonnage needed to head off the U-boats.

Trinidad, too, and the whole of the British West Indies, is abstaining from use of imported goods. This has caused the population to change its whole menu, for many foodstuffs were formerly imported. Now the people eat home-grown plants that only the animals ate before. They like the new diet so well they say they will never again import any staple food except cornmeal.

Little Profit in Salt

A recent investigation by the bureau of mines proves that a salt famine in the United States is unlikely, says the Popular Science Monthly. At the same time it was established that owing to the low price of salt and the abundance of its supply there is but little profit in the salt industry, although the American salt works have supplied in recent years practically all the salt consumed in the United States. What a pity—for the profits—salt is not used in munitions!

Simple Menu

"You don't appear to object to these food restrictions."

"I don't see any restrictions worth mentioning," replied Mr. Comrox. "I have been for years wishing I could sit down in the best restaurants and order cornbread and cabbage and potatoes right out loud."

Fawcett

Ranges, Heaters and Hot-air Systems guarantee you this

HOW? WHY?

Fawcett Grates are all made to admit an immense amount of air from below the fire which forces the fuel to burn entirely to a white ash.

Fuel burns longer and the gases and smoke are converted into fuel, because the fire boxes in Fawcett Ranges and Heaters are all built with hot-blast, smoke-consuming devices which burn the hot gases and smoke, thereby saving half the fuel.

These are only a few Fawcett features. Others can only imitate.
