War between the Delesoure and Camanche

Indians.

By an express from New Orleans, import ant advices from Texas have been received War has broken out between the Deleware and Camanche Indians.

One desperate battle had been fought, in which the Delewares were defeated with a loss of 25 warriors. The alledged cause of the war was an incursion of the Delawares upon the hunting grounds of the Camanches, and also favoring the whites in the war be-iween the Indian tribes and Texas. The loss of meir warriors has excited the Delaware nation to revenue, and they would probably have a considerable force to engage in future conflicts.

A general Indian war was apprehended and it was rumored that several tribes had volunteered so carry the war to the city of

We extract an article from the New Era

We extract an article from the New Era, published at Portsmouth, Va, and edited by A. P. Cunningham Esq. He speakes of himself, and here is the extract—[Dec. 24 1846.]

We have been, for some days, suffering under severe inflammation of the lungs, produced by gold, and irritated by speakeng in public so that throughout Saturday night, Sunday, Monday, till a Tuesday, the symptoms of the disease seemed to increase and the suffering was intence, without the least appetite for food. The cough was dry and hard, eausing the most acute pains in the head and back. We had fairly given up all hope of relief, when we thought of this Balsam, and we rent round to our friend. Hensin the agent, for a bottle. We took the first dose according to directions, and almost instantly felt a glow of healthy warmth through the system this was two o clock—at five, we took another dose, at nine another, and we soon after detected a perceptible relief in the frequency of the spasms and violent pains that has before attended them. At three in the morning we took another dose, and the phlegm, though tough yellow and ropy, was ejected from the lungs with comparative ease. We feel grateful for the relief afforded, and recommend a trial of it by all who are suffering. We suffered. We have deemed it due to the medicine, and to humanity, to give this unsought testimonal to the virtue of the Balsam, in our case. this unsought testimonial to the virtue of the Balsam, in our case.
