RACHEL QURNER, Jamustratesz.

3 on Sale.

OO FEET of DEALE, at Chimcook Mills now IDY FOR SHIPMENT acook Deals being Superior to Sawn by gang Saws.) and receiving Catgoes at the Die scan be delivered dry and lest dispatch, is a fair recom-

will be sold at Reduced 1, 1812, -xi. 44

VOLUME OF maranth.

d, but have intenuted long so, are requested to as early as convenient, will leave their names with ir respective distressrannum, in advance; if I. additional to cavel pos-

22; 1842 OST OFFICE Ist November 1842. difax,St. John St. George and Quater, will hereat Sandays. Tuesdays, and M. and arrive on Tues ton direct will close on M. and arrive on Saturn on Mondays, Wednesday 12 A.M. and arrive y at GP: M. and on Su-cloesdays and Fridays, a daily at 2 P. M. Mails for

r so long as they continu GEO. F. CAMPBELL nvils Vices.

0 W 8 , Sec. from Liverpool, via Si Bellows, ices-" Hiles" Anvils.

t Nails. nerica Soccepans SEA red Rim Locks, &c. &cd AMES W. STREET. 1. 1st 1842.

EWS STANDARD

EVERY FRIDAY, BY W. Pmich Saint Andrews, N B.

vered in town or called for rwarded by mail, and until arrears are paid PISEMENTS. written orders, o: contraued no written directions nes, and under, 3s

Over 12 lines ad per ine, 12 lines ld per ine, 12 lines ld per ine, year as may be agreed on, adviduals who have m see to be pail for in advance at the period of Atthe chartest.

Standard. VOLUME 10

GAZETT

Price 15s. in Town]

SAINT ANDREWS, NEW BRUNSWICK, FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6, 1843.

[17s. 6d. sent by Mai

NUMBER 1

A YANKEE EMIGRANT AMONG STRANGE TONGUES.

ple-looking son of Yankee land, from somewhere very far "down east," stepped ashore from a vessel at the levee; and, with a female counterpart (his better part) on one arm, and a little fac simle of himself, in the other. a little fac simle of himself, in the other, he strolled, for the first time in among the streets seemed to be determined not to be outdone, of New Orleans. The vessel lay in the third in civility; but he got tired at last, and said municipality, so that our Yankee friend soon he'd be dod derned if he'd break his neck, found himself in the suburbs of France. Hit bowing, for any "parley yoo" object was to find a cheap little house, and At length the Yankee stranger was direct object was to find a cheap little house, and at length the Yankee stranger was directget into it immediately, so as to save the exget into it immediately, so as to save the exget into it immediately, so as to save the exget into it immediately, so as to save the exed to a house which promised to suit his economical views; and after a little further tention, which he would anxiously stop to was also a Fienchman, and, with accustomexamine, but they all read. Maison a Louer' and this our friend could not understand, quested to take sears and remain for a few a hig whiskered fellow across the street-Is Dis afternoon, sair-yes, sair, said the Recon I did'nt hear, nuther," said she .- let. He said something about his grand pa! Sair, it is

Is this house your grand father's? called Frenchman. out the Yankee again.

Out the Yankee again.

Votre discourse nese suit pas, bauled the Frenchman, in an irritable tone.

O! I see now—he's a paricy you! Did look out, and you shall look after the house!

nother small edifice with the same announce-poor little shanty, with only two diminutive ment of "Maison a Lour" upon the door. In and inconvenient rooms, and yet the first Marm? ejaculated the down-easter.

It is an indicated the down-easter.

It is an indicated the down-easter.

It is an indicated the down-easter.

Sair, you no are yankee?

It is from down east, said Ichadod.

Ah, yes; you are no Yankee?

Why, bless you I'm from way down-east?

"Que dui, senora?" blands replied the retorted the sly Yankee; and the Frenchman would have sworn that he had got answer.

mima turned with a disconsolate air to her the negative.

"Eb bien!" I do not like the Yankeeman the sur parley roos!

They stared again, and soon found another "Majson a Louer," which was open, and inside was a man white-washing the walls.

Mister, is this house to let? said Ichabod. Ichabod did'nt relish this fellow, and left changing his little responsibility from one him. He wandered about almost from one end of the city to the other, and got a last.

one, said Ichabod, in a brisk manner. "You ten years a rich man. - (New Orleans Picayfolks in this village seem to have about as une.) much civility for strangers as a cow's tail has! for gallinippers. If you're a parley voo, Mister, I don't ask nothing on you, cause
One of Joe Smith's holy clan, as we see then its only your ignorance: that if you is not then its only your ignorance: that if you is not get say if this 'ere house is to let.
Was haben sie gesagt? replied the Gerthe effect of shaking the faith of his followthan in a quentless manner, brushing more than the self-ect of shaking the faith of his followthe effect of shaking the faith of his followthe effect of shaking the faith of his followthe first of the self-ect of shaking the faith of his followthe first of the self-ect of shaking the faith of his followthe first of the self-ect of shaking the faith of his followthe self-ect of shaking the self-ect of shaking the faith of his followthe self-ect of shaking the se furiously at the wall as he spoke.

though he guessed shrewdly enough at what minutes. Presently the other gentleman ought to mean.

Say, mister, look here! said he calling to afternoon the least will be ready?

Frenchman.

this house to let?

"Je ne vous comprend pas," replied the Frenchman.

What did he say? inquired the puzzled stranger of his wife.

Ah, yes;—now, sair, he continued, turning to Ichabod.

Well, said Ichabod, I reckon I only jest come to look arter that house you've got to

Sair, it is just gone out the door! said the Hey! ejaculated I habod. you ever see a live one before, Jemima! said — Ha, ha!—Yes, sair. Monsient; I the Yankee traveller, examining the Frenchman from head to foot with a sort of half-grinting and half-preplexed stare.

The document of the house with him. Ha, half-yes, look after! After is crolled to the house with him. man from head to not the state.

Also had been state.

My! do you see the hair on his face! said word.

Ichabod found another house, and another house, and another house, and another house, and another house.

Jemima, Let's go on.

It was not long before they encountered a old Frenchman was the landlord. It was a lit was not long before they encountered a old Frenchman was the landlord. It was a lit was not long before they encountered a old Frenchman was the landlord. It was a gouly, male on Frenchman

> No see to be care boase for boarwell, sespon lang house, de people are no careless and so courteous daughter of Old Sprin; and Je- would have sworn that he had got answer in husband, saving—It's no use, Ichabod: this must be one of —"On ne sait a quelle zauce le mettre! He will always have knife, and weetle! weetle!

m to the other. end of the city to the other, and got at last.

The man brushed away silently at the a fine, pleasant, and even commodious wall, without deigning any kind of notice or home, for fifteen dollars a month, high up response.

Say, friend; brecken you can give a body streets with the classical names, this side of an answer of some kind, even it it aint a civil.

Lafayette. Now, we shall find Ichabod in man in a queurlous manner, brushing more ers, determined to set his brain to work to recover the lost confidence of his congrega-What? said lehabod.

It's enother parley voo, said Jemima.

No, it ain't, returned Ichabod; there's no hair on his face. Look here—say, mister.

Ich fersteh ihr nicht! exclaimed the surly daily food. Having, as he thought, sufficiently trained the bird, he gave out that on Darnation's if there's any gittin' a word, the next Sabhath after lecturing, he would be pearled to surly trained the bird, he gave out that on Darnation if there's any gittin' a word the next Sabbath, after lecturing, he would out o' em at all in English, Jemima! and, by prove by a miracle, that he was a prophe: of hockey! I don't know, what to do! Let's God. The day came—the meeting house go on."

At length they came to a house with a courselected sons had been procured under the promise of teous Frenchman in it, who could understand eternal secrecy to hide himself in the garret, teous Frenchman in it, who could understand eternal secrecy to hide himself in the garrentem and speak their own language. He told and to let the messenger of peace fly at the them they could have the house on the 1st of word of command. All was well arranged, with a countenance, lit up with confidence of success, the Latter Day Saint began his ollars a month.

Reckon that's too much—aint it Jemima?

Couldn't say lifteen—could you? said Ichadel, liar and imposter; and to prove his assertions, he, with a loud voice, called on service of the se

THENEWS-BOY'S ADDRESS TO THE PATRONS OF THE St. Andrews Standard, January 1, 1843.

But rather let me say the News-Boy pays tion .- Chronicle.

His court to all his PATRONS, in these tays; Wishing them health, and peace, and gen'rous cheer And wealth's encrease with each succeeding year

Such ancient custom would I now pursue. And pay my special compliments- To You.

But lest you think a sombre lay, Unfitted for this festive day; I would my honoured Patrons greet In strains more lively and more meet

Tho' ancient use at New Year's fine, Demands the News Boy's annual rhyme; And bids him carefuly to tell Whate er of note has late befell; Unequal to the task, I pray, Indulgence to th' imperfect lay.

To Britain first our eyes we turn, Where freedom's holiest altars burn Where partial strife the few embroi But where no slave pollutes the soil; Where fair Victoria rules—whose sway Extends throughout unceasing day.

From India's orient plains afar -, The envy of th' ambitions Czar, Who seeks his purposed point to gain Thro' powerless Persia's broken reign, And thro' gulf washed Baloochistan, To seize on mighty Indiston— To where Columbia sees the wave. Her western cliffs, pacific lave. Brave Isle-Who dare dispute the sway, What power on earth will dure gainesk. Thy soverignty-will China's mighty p tentale, Will Indies base assassin band Lay with impunity its hand, Upon the daughters of her land Never - whilst Englands snowy crest, Dances o'er oceans heaving breast, insult stain the be

That with its sister flowerets blows. Yet retribution did assert the cause, Of freedom, peace, just 'rights, and equal

Now turn we to more welcome lays, And truly sing New Brunswick's praise, New Brunswick--under British sway We live, and generous laws obey; Where science, arts and industry, Had placed a proud prosperity;

What though, our now commercial oat, Sweeps not the wave as years of yore, What though the pulse of manhoods frame, Ebbs on the surge of traffic main, Tis but a spell—the coming tide, Will cover o'er the wreck—will hide Each vestage of the present stress, To teem with fruits of plenteousness.

"So not to wind a long conclusion With complimentary effusion, We'll try to run our annual course With more effect and better force, The Foreign matters all we'll send you, With all domestic news attend you; Of Government which way instructed; Of Legislature how conducted.'

And now to all a blythe New YEAR, With mirth and health & wholesome cheer.

Ah, de rent !-O, no, sair; it is sheep- Ghost be after making, his appearance? Palmer, 305; Hazen Botsford, 217; R. K. very sheep, returned the Frenchman land. Hasn't the cat ate him?

to the Choir of St Stephen's Church, toge-ther with several Ladies of the Congregation The Norwich is to run between St. John small testimonial of their gratitude for his Boston and Bangot boats, service amongst them as Precentor and In. The Charter Oak and Telegraph, are to

The ceaseless course of time has now bro't round,

The happy period when young bosons at the Mechanics' Institute. The sale was The Telegraph is to be hauled up and to bound both respectably and numerously attended undergo thorough alterations and repairs.

Elate with joys that life's blythe morn en- and the charitable disposition of the visitors. The Charter Oak, we learn is one of the hance;
Alas! too often lost as years advance.

Now, friendly greetings, and the social hearth,

Spread wide content, and heart enlivining mirth;

At this gay time, by custom's ancient claim,

L-A-W LAW. An upper and a lower mill Fell out about their water

> The heavy cost remaining still. Were settled with pother; One tawyer took the upper mill, The lower mill the other.

To war they went, that is, to law

Resolved to give no quarter.

Advice — In law, as in physic, it may be lion as that ar. Do you think I be such a observed that prevention is better than the plaguey fool, old feller, as to lose the sport risk of cure. The preceding remarks on the "Uncertainty of the law," are full of instruction, and point out the risk, beside the cer-tain expense delay, loss of time, vexation, ill-feeling and trouble of law suits which in ask no more such darn'd foolish questions as every shape or form should be avoided. "A. that even at a sacrifice, being assured that the intricacies of the law, with its twistings and the most hiersil. A pail, tumbler, decenter, tricacies of the law, with its twistings and may be raised, and you may satisfy yourself may be raised, and you may satisfy yourself gree with thine adversary quickly;'

The higger Fool the better Luck - I of its purity only by what comes out of st seats in the legislature, who begged suffrag-es, and gave away whiskey, while those who disdain to stoop to such measures were left do it. But the lubber-bah; that there con-

I have seen a brainless fop marry a fine girl, and break her heart before the end of snake with a pipe in his mouth, the first year, though her hand had been solicited in vain by the wealthy, the wise, and the honorable. I have seen stupid creatures who scarcely mother is the drudge, to see the daughters knew the top of a tobacco hill from the bot- elegantly dressed, reclining at their ease,

Did you never see a part, or all of these things? If you did not, I congratulate you or their duty. These individuals will often on your prospects of good luck—for you pos.

Good Advice.—If your coat is comfortable, wear it two or three months longer; if the gloss is off. If you have no wife, get one; if you have, God bless her, stay at home with her, instead of spending your evenings in expensive fooleries. Be honest, frugal, plain—seek content and hapiness or home—be industrious. frugal, plain—seek content and hapiness at home—be industrious and preserving; and our word for it, if you are in debt you will soon get out of it, if your circumstances are now embarrassed they will soon become eamay be the price of stocks.

Couldn't say fifteen—could you said Ichabod, turning to his French friend.

An uo, sair — wenty-five dollars is too much low.

Rather guess it's too high, said Ichabod—Ivo mint get no objection to let's see it, have you when baptused in the river Jord and the great of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of the see in his in Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of William Sandary has terminated by the result of the Country of the res

Steam Boat Arrangements .- When the Steamboat arrangements go into operation in the Spring, on the routes between St. John, We understand that the Ladies belonging the Penobscot, Kennebec, Portland and Boshave presented Mr. Smith with a Gown, as a and Belfast twice a week, intersecting, the

At this gay time, by custom's ancient claim, schools. The feelings of those who suggest.

The Printer's Dev-O no! forbear that name ed the good work, are worthy of all acceptago on to the route between Calais and Belfast we are assured, is a mistake. - Portland

> An Illinois Wedding .- Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?" said a magistrate who was placing the indissoluble knot of matrimony on a couple mutually at > tached to one another, in Illinois. "Well, I swar, squire," said the male partner to the contract—a wolfi.h looking customer, by the way. "Well, I swar squire, you must be a green one to ask such a quesquilting frollick, if I wasn't consciptiously sarin and determined to hitch on to her? Drive on now with the busines, squire, and cisions contradictory, its nice technicalities, forms, and mysteries, are all inexhaustible and incomprehensible, and combine, too frequently, to render law an overmatch for plain honesty and simple justice. You can clean it only to the surface. You can clean it only to the surface. dentily, to render law an overmatch for plain honesty and simple justice.

If difference arise, and a reference must be made to others, let it be to mutual friends—to disinterested persons select by both parties, and make up your mind to abide the result.

In and moves over the surface. Tou can clean it only by putting in water, shaking it up, and pouring it. If the water comes clean, you judge you have succeeded in parties, and make up your mind to abide the jug, and vice versa. Hence the jug is like the human heart. No mortal eye can look into its recesses, but you can judge have seen men, merely by noise and fluency, lead the conversation in companies, where there was taste, talent, and learning, though they possed neither of the three.

I have known lawyers to gain their causes, by impudence and vociferation, when neither themselves nor the jury knew their drift.

I have frequently seen men take their seats in the legislature, who begged suffrag. cern comes incinivating, sneaking along, crawling on his belly like a thundering long

Idle Daughters .- It is, says Mr. Ellis, a most painful spectacle in families where the tom, plod on and get rich, while men of with their drawing their music, their fancy real intellect and industry have pined in po-verty. work and their reading; beguiling them-selves of the lapse of hours, days and weeks, tell you with an air of affected compassion — for who can believe it real? — that poor — working berself to death.' Yet

A Critical Operation .- An Elderiy gentleman of Bucks county, Pa, was recently sy, no matter who may be President, or what choked by a piece of roast beef lodging if his windpipe; his breating was almost im-mediately arrested, and in the course of ten