

When a holy voice is sent
Saying to our hearts, "Repent," Jesus, Saviour, take us in
Save thy little flock from sin.

Who knows anything about road-making?

Can one man build a wide, good road all by himself? No; it takes many men working together. Long ago, when kings went on journeys in the Eastern lands, they sent a messenger, or, as he was called, a herald, to clear the way before the journey, and to see that the roads were smooth and ready.

DON'T.

I might have just the mostest fun

If 'twasn't for a word,

I think the very worstest one

'At ever I have heard.

I wish 'at it 'ud go away,

But I'm afraid it won't,

I s'pose 'at it'll always stay—

That awful word of don't.

It's "don't you make a bit of noise,"

And "don't go out of doors,"

And "don't you spread your stock of toys

About the parlour floor,"

And "don't you dare play in the dust,"

And "don't you tease the cat,"

And "don't you get your clothing mussed,"

And "don't do this and that."

It seems that I have never found

A thing I'd like to do,

But that there comes some one around

'At's got a "don't" or two.

And Sunday, 'at's the day 'at "don't"

Is worst of all the seven.

Oh, goodness, but I hope there won't

Be any don'ts in heaven.
