STEPHENS. - Death has again visited the home of Bro. S. T. and Clara Stephens, of Gloncairn. About three months ago little Willie F. was taken 92 YONGE STREET, TORONTO, AND 214 off to the paradise of God, and upon DUNDAS STREET, LONDON, the 26th of November Helena Marion, a lovely, engaging little girl of five years and five months, was called to join her little brother. She suffered for about see us. three weeks from the dread disease diphtheria, to which the frail body finally yielded. May the Heavenly Father's presence and the dear Saviour's sweet promises support and comfort the bereaved parents under this sore affliction. C. SINCLAIR. Collingwood, Dec. 10, 1890.

Wo are pleased to copy the following review of book, which we trust many of our subscribers will buy and read:

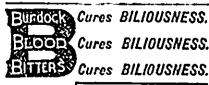

"Christianity and Somo of its Evidences" is the subject of an address delivered in Woodstock, Oxford county, Ontario, Canada, by the Hon. Oliver Mowat, Premier of Ontario, before the Society of Christian Endeavor. It is with much pleasure that we invite attention to this lecture of a lawyer of ability and a clear-headed man who is busy with the onerous duties of states. manship, who, novertheless, has taken time to study the evidences of the Christian's faith. The style of the lecturer is simple, pleasing, forceful and scholarly. It has the ring of a clearheaded thinker and an lionest heart. This little volume is published by Williamson & Co., Toronto, and in its mechanical features is almost faultless. It is an 8vo. of 90 pages; seal cover, gilt top, 50 cents.—Christian Oracle, Chicago.

THE CHRISTIAN INTERNATIONAL LES-SON COMMENTARY FOR 1891. By B. W. Johnson.—This is one of the best works we have yet seen. After you are through using it this year it will make a valuable book for your library. We copy the fellowing from one whose name is well known:

" The Lesson Commentary,' by Bro. B. W. Johnson, is certainly a most valuable production. Whenever we revo anything from the pen of Johnson we expect that which is of the very highest order; and we have never yet been disappointed. His 'Lesson Commentary for 1891' will rank among the best. It is deserving of a large sale, Its author has proven himself to be a carefulatudent as well as a close thinker, and a commentator of great ability. The Christian Pub. Co. is deserving of much credit for the handsome dress in which they have clothed this valuable book."-L. L. Carpenter.
