LETTERS OF THE REV. SAMUEL RUTHERFORD, Principal and Professor of Divinity at St. Andrew's, 1630-1661. With a preface by Rev. Alexander Duff, D.D., LL.D., for sale at the Religious Book and Tract Depository, Granville St., Halifax, for 85 cents.

The name of Samuel Rutherford has long been familiar to English speaking Christians. His last words, that beautiful hymn,— are sung in many a home and have cheered many a sad heart.

"Glory, glory dwellth in Immanuel's hand"—

This book contains 362 letters which were written during various periods of his eventful life. About 220 of them were written to friends when he was in prison in Aberdeen, in chains for the sake of the gospel. They are the outcome of a deep Christian experience, the breathings of one who walked with Christ and who realized the blessedness of such company.

A GUIDE FOR DISCIPLES, by Rev. J. G. Pike, a sequel to Pike's "Persuasive to Early Piety," may be had at the Book and Tract Depository, Granville St., Halifax. Price 28 cents.

To the young Christian setting out on the way to heaven it is full of the richest counsel and instruction. To the pilgrim far on in the journey it is a most valued helper. It touches every phase of the Christian life and the Christian's duty in every relationship in life. All who wish to walk in the strait and narrow way will find in it precious.

THE ANXIOUS INQUIRER AFTER SALVATION DIRECTED AND ENCOURAGED. This little book, by Rev. John Angell James, has been blessed to many as a comfort and guide. It is sold at the Book and Tract Depository, price 17 cents.

BROWN'S SHORT CATECHISM FOR YOUNG CHILDREN with which all are so familiar is published by D. McGregor, 145 Hollis St., Halifax. Price 15 cts. per doz.

Mr. McGregor has the sole agency for the Maritime Provinces for the works of the American Presbyterian Board of Publication, and is prepared to furnish teachers, pastors, Sabbath schools, all, with the works of that great Presbyterian Publishing House.

He has also bound vols. of the Illustrated Missionary News for 1881, containing Mission News from all parts of the world, price 75 cts.
