

womanhood from all classes to become "brides of the sun," or wives of the ruler.

Dr. Hastings, Medical Officer of Health for Toronto, is now making an effort to suppress unnecessary noises. Persons violating the regulations may be proceeded against at law.

The resignation of Miss Mina Rodgers, who has been Superintendent of the Berlin and Waterloo Hospital for two years, has been accepted with regret by the Board of Trustees. She is retiring from hospital work.

The presentation of a motor ambulance by the Sir William Osler Chapter, I. O. D. E., to Sir William Osler for overseas service, was formally made at the Parliament Buildings. Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, president of the National Chapter, made the presentation to Colonel Ryerson, of the Canadian Red Cross Society, who in turn gave the vehicle to Sir Edmund Osler, representing his brother, Sir William. Hon. Dr. Pyne, representing the Premier, congratulated the I. O. D. E. on the excellent work it has carried out.

On 11th May, Princess Louise opened the Daughters of the Empire Hospital for Canadian Officers at Hyde Park, furnished by Col. and Mrs. Gooderham. On Princess Louise's suggestion a cablegram of thanks was sent to the donors. It is the desire of Col. and Mrs. Gooderham that, at the close of the war, the furniture and equipment would be given to the British Red Cross for the Star and Garter Home at Richmond for the permanently disabled.

A party of Canadian nurses with the University of Toronto Hospital at Salonika saw the death of Dr. Yellowless by drowning. They had to wade through a dangerous marsh to make their escape, and were in great peril.

At the annual commencement exercises of Kingston General Hospital Training School for Nurses Friday night, announcement was made of a legacy of $10,000 from the estate of the late E. H. Schmerhorn, Napanee. The money will be used in enlarging the nurses' residence.

The campaign for funds for the extension of the Toronto Women's Hospital realized the very substantial sum of $41,500. An effort will be made to secure the sum of $120,000 required to complete the plans in the interests of the institution.

The City Council of Brantford has agreed to submit to the ratepayers a by-law for $58,000 for hospital extension. The vote will take place on 26th June.

The executive of the Hamilton Recruiting League recently decided that special provision should be made for caring for returned soldiers and that the new Mountain-top Hospital, when completed, be used for this purpose.