

UP-TOWN, DOWN-TOWN IN MY LADY'S HEART ALWAY.

The world is old, And love grows cold, And hearts are sold For gold. They say: My lady tastes the pleasure of each hour that passes by; In Fashion's golden garden...

PEDESTRIANISM UNDER WATER.

REMARKABLE CHALLENGE OF CAPTAIN GUIRE, THE SUB-MARINE DIVER.

Perhaps the most remarkable pedestrian challenge ever made is that of Captain John T. Guire, a sub-marine diver of Cincinnati, who has proposed, on a wager of $10,000, to walk under water, on the bottom of the Ohio River, from Cincinnati to Cairo, in the space of twenty-five days.

JAPANESE PICTURE OF HELL.

A scarf on exhibition at Tiffany's gives a representation of the Japanese idea of hell, and it would seem to be morbid and dreadful enough to have suited the most fanatical of Puritan theologians. The scarf is nine yards long, and half a yard wide.

THE IRISH PARTY.

A meeting of the Irish Parliamentary party was held on Thursday, in King-street, Lord F. Conyngham in the chair. Mr. Parnell submitted a short statement, and the meeting at once proceeded to discuss the proposition laid down in the requisition, to the effect that the Government having opposed the Franchise and other Irish bills, it was desirable that some action should be taken.

Well-to-do paupers are all the rage in Great Britain at present. One man has claimed his discharge from a Liverpool poor-house, where he had saved money enough from the tips of compassionate visitors to buy a new coat.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

The knowledge of God and the means by which it is attained—Sermon by the Rev. Father Kane.

It had been expected that His Eminence, the Cardinal, would occupy the throne during the high mass at the Cathedral, and might preach, the festival being Trinity Sunday, the last day for the reception of the Easter sacraments, but he did not come, and the mass was therefore unattended with any unusual circumstance.

The celebrant of the mass was the Rev. Father Mori, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Father Kane, who read the gospel of the Sunday—the last two verses of the twenty-eighth chapter of Matthew—but he took as his subject "The Knowledge of God." The purpose of our life, said the preacher, was to know the only true God, and to love and serve Him in heaven.

THE TIMBER TRADE.

LATEST REPORTS FROM GLASGOW.

The trade is even more depressed than it was a month ago, and at the moment we see nothing to warrant the hope of an immediate improvement. Several failures in the building trade have occurred, and the only wagon building firm of any importance in this district (indeed in Scotland) has succumbed.

CANINE DESTRUCTION.

The civic authorities have in their employ a functionary whose duties are always performed in a business-like and expeditious manner. We refer to the Corporation executioner, to whom is entrusted the killing of all animals of the canine tribe whose owners are unable or unwilling to contribute the sum imposed as a tax.

AN OCEAN HORROR.

A DERELICT JAPANESE JUNK, WITH FOUR DYING AND TWO DEAD SAILORS ON BOARD—FATE OF THE BEST OF THE CREW.

(From the San Francisco Alto, June 9.)

The bark Athelstone, from Newcastle, N. S. W., reports that on May 29, latitude 39 deg. 49 min. north, longitude 144 deg. 2 min. west, at 8:30 A. M., she sighted a derelict junk and bore away for her.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Nasase, Japanese interpreter, the following additional facts have been obtained.—The junk was named I-s-u-k-i-n M-a-r-i, and was of 235 tons burden, and manned by a crew of nine seamen, in addition to Captain Baba. She also had on board thirteen passengers.

WHAT WAR WITH ENGLAND WOULD COST.

Those who have been beguiled by the sanguine articles of a certain portion of the Press into the idea that the expense of war with Russia would be a mere flea bite to a rich country like England, would do well to turn to the current number of "Fraser and read a discussion of the question, "Can England Easily Bear the Cost of a Great War?"

THE LATE EARL RUSSELL.

(London Echo.)

Now that the name and fame of Earl Russell are sounded with respect and gratitude through every home in England, it is not instructive to note the estimate which Mr. Benjamin Disraeli, long years ago, formed and published of the illustrious statesman's character.

SOCIALISM.

The Berlin correspondent of the Westminster Gazette, writing after the first attempt to assassinate the German Emperor, says:—There is no denying the fact that the recent attempt of Hotel has excited not only a great sensation in Germany, but has stirred up intense feelings of indignation, and fear, of the wild and fantastic theories, and the atrocious principles of our Social Democrats.

ON THE WARPATH.

The Bannock Indian Troubles Growing Very Serious.

General Crook left for Chicago on Tuesday night, for consultation with General Sheridan on the Bannock troubles. General Cook makes no secret that he considers the situation growing more serious every day.

REPRESSION NOT REFORM.

What is now to be guarded against is, not the plea of putting down Socialism, the Government may not contrive to deprive the German people of their dearly-bought liberties, and reduce them at once to the state of bondage, as regards the right of freedom of speech and writing, such as we enjoyed in the palmy days of Frederick William III.

THE KAISER'S VIEWS.

The one to insist most on the necessity of moral reforms as the best safeguard against Socialism is perhaps the old Emperor Wilhelm himself. In his speech to his ministers last week, he impressed upon them that their chief task ought to be to recall the people to a sense of religion which was fast being lost.
