

REV. M. THACHER, Pitcher, Chenango Co., N. Y., writes—I am sixty years of age. By the use of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer, my gray hair is restored to its natural color.

INDOLENT SORES.—Vitality is so weak in some systems, that any ulcerous diseases with which they are afflicted, lapse almost immediately from the acute or inflammatory phase into the chronic condition.

FOR THROAT DISORDERS AND COUGHS.

Brown's Bronchial Troches are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy. They have been thoroughly tested, and maintain the good reputation they have justly acquired.

These Lozenges are prepared from a highly esteemed recipe for alleviating Bronchial Affections, Asthma, Hoarseness, Coughs, Colds, and Irritation or Soreness of the Throat.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS AND VOCALISTS will find them beneficial in clearing the voice before speaking or singing, and relieving the throat after any unusual exertion of the vocal organs.

L'ECHO DE LA FRANCE.

Revue Etrangere de Science et de Litterature. Multiple unum. Made up of every creature's best. Realiser le bien et contempler le beau.

The object of this Publication is to reproduce, in convenient form, the choice extracts which are now spread out in Reviews, Newspapers and Periodicals published in Europe, and particularly in France.

It is believed there is in Canada a vacancy for such a Publication; and that a compilation affording a collection of the literary beauties and discussions of many subjects, which now appear in the Old World in the French tongue, would be acceptable as well to the English as French speaking portions of our population.

Certainly to all that part of the English speaking population to whom it is an object to cultivate acquaintance with the French language, or the polite literature of France, the projected publication will be in an especial manner valuable.

We purpose to give to our Review as wide a latitude as possible (even to affording to Romance a small space), and to furnish extracts from the speeches and writings of the Thiers, the Berrys, the Montanier, Dupanloup, Michel Chevalier, Vouillot, De Laguerroulles, &c. &c., also sometimes from Figaro, and the Charivri, &c. It will thus be

Of desultory men, studious of change And pleased with novelty, may be indulged. Young people especially will find it very advantageous in their studies of the French language, as it will give them the best and safest illustrations of what they learn, adorning at the same time their memory and intelligence with some of the best productions in the world.

Easy Mode of Sharpening Edge Tools.—The simplest method of sharpening a razor or other edge tool, is to place the blade for about half an hour in water containing one twentieth of its weight of sulphuric or muriatic acid.

BLISSFUL IGNORANCE.—According to the late Sir Asley Cooper, no man ought to know from any physical sensation, that he has a stomach. Let those who are daily reminded of the existence of the organ, by pain, and all the concomitants of dyspepsia—whose stomachs digest slowly, imperfectly, and with sensations which pen cannot describe, whose whole system do violence under the inflictions of the rebellious member—try, merely try, BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

A PROVERB ILLUSTRATED.—Sancho Panza's maxim that you cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, is well illustrated by the futile attempt, to get up acceptable perfume on the cheap plan.

"In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar."

Chas. Foster, 420 Broad St., Philadelphia. This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Liniment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, spavins, etc., either upon man or beast.

All who value a beautiful head of hair, and its preservation from premature baldness and turning gray, will not fail to use Lyons celebrated Kathairon. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy, eradicates dandruff, and causes the hair to grow with luxurious beauty.

WHAT DID IT?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness, and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17.
