THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS—CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

The very able and masterly address delivered by Dr. Moorhouse, of the Canadian Medical Association at London, will be found published in full in this issue. An able presiding officer, Dr. Moorhouse was at all times keenly alive to the proper conduct of the meeting, and performed his duties in an unexceptionally efficient manner.

He struck the keynote when he stated that these meetings of the Association gave to each member of the medical profession an opportunity of meeting his fellow-practitioners from throughout the length and breadth of this wide Dominion, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. And this was fully illustrated in the past meeting, as every province, with the single exception of Prince Edward Island, was represented at London.

It is true, as he says, that the beneficial results of these meetings are not confined to the scientific aspect thereof. Equally as important is the ethical and social side, and men who are engaged all their lives in the alleviation of human suffering and the conquering of disease, do well to brush aside all the asperi-
