Montreal witnessed a notable ceremony recently—the consecration of St. Patrick's, the venerable mother church of the English-speaking Catholics of the city—and heard a notable sermon. Opened for divine service in 1847, when $125,000 had been spent on its erection, more than that sum has since been expended in the improvement and decoration of St. Patrick's. The preacher was Rev. J. A. McCallen, S. S., of St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore.

Those who buy a piano ought to pay as much attention to the record and reputation of a piano as the piano itself. They ought to pay more attention to its musical qualities than to the case.

Envy is a subtle monster. It can be cold and arrogant indeed, but its working attitude. To compass its dark ends, it can assume an innocent aspect. It can be "most seeming virtuous and sweet. It can look like the rose and be the serpent under it. It can quote Scripture and breathe forth long prayers. It is persuasive and speaks a varied language. It is eloquent betimes, but do not hearken. There is ruin in its meekness. There is poison in its protected love.—"Catholic Transcript.
